► LIONS WELCOME FOUR EARLY ENROLLEES

- The Nittany Lions welcome four scholarship student-athletes who enrolled in classes in January, participated in winter workouts and will compete in spring practice. All four graduated high school early to enroll in Penn State.
- The list includes two Gatorade State Players of the Year and two all-state offensive linemen.
- The January early enrollees were: tight end Danny Dalton (Marshfield, Mass.), offensive tackle Alex Gellerstedt (Dublin, Ohio), guard/center Connor McGovern (Larksville, Pa.) and quarterback Jake Zembiec (Rochester, N.Y.).
- Dalton was the Massachusetts Gatorade Player of the Year, while Zembiec claimed New York Gatorade Player of the Year.

► NEW FACES & PLACES ON THE SIDELINE

- When practice kicks off there will be a trio of new faces on the sideline, as well as a few changes in responsibilities.
- Head Coach James Franklin added offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Joe Moorhead, offensive line coach Matt Limegrover and co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach Tim Banks to the coaching staff in the off-season.
- Franklin also made adjustments within the coaching staff. Brent Pry moves to associate head coach, defensive coordinator and linebackers coach; cornerbacks coach Terry Smith serves as the assistant head coach; Sean Spencer remains the defensive line coach and adds the title of run game coordinator; and Ricky Rahne takes over as the tight ends coach.
- Moorhead brings 18 years of collegiate coaching experience to Penn State, including the last four as Fordham's head coach.
- Limegrover comes to Happy Valley with 25 years of collegiate coaching experience, including the last five seasons at Minnesota as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach.
- Banks joins the Nittany Lions after spending the last four seasons at Illinois as the co-defensive coordinator and secondary coach.

► SUCCESS IN THE CLASSROOM

- The Penn State football team continued to excel in the classroom during the 2015 fall semester with a record 56 squad members earning at least a 3.0 grade-point average.
- This marks the fifth consecutive semester (including summer sessions) the Nittany Lions have had more than 50 student-athletes with a 3.0 GPA or better.
- The 56 Lions with a 3.0 GPA or higher surpasses the mark of 55 set by the 2008 fall semester for the most 3.0s in a semester in program history.
- A total of 23 Nittany Lions posted a 3.5 GPA or higher in the fall semester, with 19 earning Dean's List recognition for having 3.5 GPA or higher with 12 credits earned in undergraduate work.
- The Nittany Lion freshmen were impressive in the fall semester with 14 posting a 3.0 or higher.
- Overall, 51 football student-athletes own a 3.0 cumulative GPA or higher after the fall semester, with 21 posting a 3.5 cumulative GPA or higher.
- The fall semester also saw 45 student-athletes improve their cumulative GPA since the 2015 spring semester.
- Additionally, 22 Nittany Lions earned Academic All-Big Ten recognition last fall.

► NINE GAME BIG TEN SLATE RETURNS

- The 2016 season marks the return of a nine-game Big Ten Conference schedule.
- Penn State and the other members of the East Division will host five conference home games in 2016 and even-numbered years, while teams from the West Division will host five conference home games during odd-numbered years.
- As a result of the nine-game conference schedule and the Big Ten's schedule rotation, every student-athlete will have the opportunity to play against every other team in the conference at least once during a four-year period.
- The Big Ten is returning to a nine-game conference schedule for all teams for the first time since the 1983 and 1984 seasons.

A breakout player in 2015, rising junior Garrett Sickels started at defensive end in all 12 games he appeared in. Sickels made 35 tackles, 5.0 TFLs and 3.0 sacks in his first season of significant action on the defensive line.

► EIGHT BOWL TEAMS HIGHLIGHT SCHEDULE

- The Nittany Lions will face eight teams which participated in a bowl game during the 2015 campaign.
- Michigan bested Florida, 41-7, in the Buffalo Wild Wings Citrus Bowl; Minnesota defeated Central Michigan, 21-14, in the Quick Lane Bowl; and Ohio State topped Notre Dame, 44-28, in the Fiesta Bowl.
- Michigan State earned the No. 3 seed in the College Football Playoff and lost to Alabama, 38-0, in the Cotton Bowl.
- Pitt fell to Navy, 44-28, in the Military Bowl; Temple dropped a 32-17 decision to Toledo in the Marmot Boca Raton Bowl; Iowa lost to Stanford, 45-16, in the Rose Bowl; and Indiana suffered an overtime loss to Duke, 44-41, in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl.
- The Nittany Lions' slate features five teams that won at least 10 games in 2015, including three teams with 12 wins.

► LIONS AND PANTHERS MEET FOR FIRST TIME SINCE 2000

- Penn State and Pittsburgh meet on the gridiron for the first time since 2000 when the Nittany Lions visit Heinz Field Sept. 10.
- The Nittany Lions have met the Panthers more than any other opponent – 96 times – with Penn State owning a 50-42-4 series advantage.
- The teams first met in 1893 and played every season from 1900-31 and 1935-92, often in a compelling final game of the regular season.
- The teams did not meet from 1993-96, when Penn State began play in the Big Ten Conference, and then played a four-game series from 1997-2000, with the Nittany Lions winning the 1997-99 contests.
- The Panthers won the last meeting, 12-0, in Three Rivers Stadium in 2000.
- Penn State owns a 17-6 record against Pitt in State College, while the Panthers have a 34-28-4 advantage in games played on their home field.
- Penn State leads, 5-2, in neutral site games, the majority of which were played in Pittsburgh.

► MARYLAND IS HOMECOMING FOE

- When the alumni return to Happy Valley for the 2016 Homecoming game, the Penn State faithful will cheer their Nittany Lions against Maryland.
- The Terps will provide the opponent for the 2016 Homecoming contest on Oct. 8.
- Penn State owns a 69-22-5 record all-time on Homecoming, including wins in nine of its last 11 games.

► LIONS EXCELLING ON THE NEXT LEVEL

- A total of 26 Penn State football alumni populated the rosters of 19 National Football League teams in 2015.
- Of those 26 Nittany Lions playing the NFL, four – NaVorro Bowman, Tamba Hali, Sean Lee and Allen Robinson – were selected to the NFL Pro Bowl in Hawaii.
- Bowman made his third Pro Bowl appearance and comes on the heels of a comeback season after missing the entire 2014 season due to a torn ACL and MCL.
- He also collected his fourth career first team All-Pro honor (2011, 2012, 2013, 2015) after leading the NFL in tackles (154).
- Hali made his fifth consecutive Pro Bowl appearance.
- He saw time in 15 games with 14 starts en route to 48 tackles, 6.5 sacks and two forced fumbles.
- Lee made his Pro Bowl debut after finishing tied for sixth in the NFL in total tackles with a career-high 128 stops in just 14 games.
- He reached the 100-tackle mark for the second time in his career (105 in 2011).
- After a breakout sophomore season in the NFL, Robinson made his first Pro Bowl appearance.
- He ranked sixth in the NFL with 1,400 receiving yards and tied for first with 14 receiving touchdowns.
- Robinson is the fourth player in NFL history with 1,400 receiving yards in his age-22-or-younger season, joining Josh Gordon, Randy Moss and Larry Fitzgerald.
- Robinson is one of four players in NFL history to have 1,400 yards, 14 touchdowns and a 17.5 receiving average since 1970 (Calvin Johnson in 2011, Randy Moss in 2000, Jerry Rice in 1986 and 1989).

► SUPER BOWL CHAMP

- Former Nittany Lion Jordan Norwood helped the Denver Broncos to a Super Bowl 50 victory over the Carolina Panthers.
- Norwood sparked the Broncos with a Super Bowl-record 61-yard punt return in the second quarter to set up a Denver field goal for a 13-7 lead. The previous punt return record was 45 yards by John Taylor in Super Bowl XXIII.
- On the season, Norwood appeared in 11 games with five starts.
- He had 22 receptions for 207 yards and returned six punts for 51 yards.

► 1,000 BY GROUND & IN THE AIR

- Junior wide receiver Chris Godwin and freshman running back Saquon Barkley combined to accomplish a feat that only two other duos have in program history as they each surpassed the 1,000-yard marks in their respective positions.
- The pair is the third Nittany Lion tandem to have 1,000 yards receiving and 1,000 yards rushing in Penn State history, joining Allen Robinson and Zach Zwinak (2012) and Bobby Engram and Ki-Jana Carter (1994).
- Godwin had 69 catches for 1,101 yards, while Barkley rushed 182 times for 1,076 yards.
- Only two teams in the Big Ten (Penn State and Indiana) and 20 squads nationally touted a 1,000-yard receiver and a 1,000-yard rusher in 2015.

► LEADING THE NATION

- The Nittany Lions led the NCAA FBS in a trio of categories last season.
- Senior defensive end Carl Nassib finished atop the FBS standing for sacks (15.5) and forced fumbles (6).
- Nassib is the first Nittany Lion to lead the nation in a statistical category since Larry Johnson led in rushing yardage per game and all-purpose yards per game in 2002.
- Penn State also paced FBS in sacks per game as a team with a 3.54 average. This marks the first team statistical title for the Nittany Lions since leading the country in scoring offense and total offense in 1994.

► STOPS BEHIND THE LINE

- In addition to leading the nation in sacks per game with a 3.54 average, Penn State also ranked sixth in the nation and tops in the Big Ten with 8.2 tackles for loss per game.
- The 106 total TFLs are the most since 2007 (120).
- Penn State recorded at least five tackles for loss in 18 consecutive games until only registering four against Michigan.
- The 18-game streak with at least five TFLs was the longest streak for Penn State since a 38-game streak from 1997 to 2000.
- Penn State led the nation in sack yardage (344) and was second in tackle for loss yardage (502).
- Penn State's 15 tackles for loss against Temple were the second-most in the country during the opening week, trailing only Colorado State, which racked up 16 against FCS-level Savannah State. Eleven different Nittany Lions were credited with at least an assist, led by Carl Nassib, Brandon Bell and Anthony Zettel with 2.5 TFL each, while Trevor Williams had 2.0.

► STINGY DEFENSE

- Penn State ranked 14th in the country in total defense, yielding an average of 324.5 yards per game.
- The Lions led the country in denying fourth down conversion attempts, as opponents were successful at a rate of just 15.4 percent.
- The Nittany Lions allowed only 38 points in the first quarter in 13 games in 2015, an average of 2.92 points per game.
- The Penn State defense was particularly stingy at home, holding 10 consecutive opponents to less than 300 yards of total offense until Michigan registered 343 yards on Nov. 21.
- Penn State's defense allowed just 167 yards (37 rushing, 130 passing) to Illinois, the fewest allowed by the Nittany Lions since holding Minnesota to 138 yards (37 rushing, 101 passing) in 2009.
- The Nittany Lion defense held Illinois to 12 first downs, the fewest since giving up just eight to Temple last season, and the fewest in a Big Ten game since allowing 12 to Michigan last season.

► FUMBLE!

- Penn State's 20 forced fumbles led the country and were the most by the Nittany Lions since 1985 (24).
- Penn State ranked 11th nationally and second in the Big Ten in fumble recoveries with 12.
- Eleven different Lions recovered fumbles in 2015, as Garrett Sickels was the only one with two recoveries (Army, Maryland).
- Sickels finished 26th in FBS and second in the Big Ten in fumble recoveries.
- Senior defensive end Carl Nassib led the FBS in forced fumbles (6), while junior linebacker Brandon Bell finished tied for 32nd with three forced fumbles.
- Penn State's six fumble recoveries in consecutive games (3 vs. San Diego State and 3 vs. Army) were the most in a two-game span since having six at Virginia (3) and vs. Navy (3) in 2012.

The Nittany Lions celebrate Mike Gesicki's first career touchdown, a 33-yard reception against Army during a sold out Seats for Servicemembers game on Oct. 3.

After missing the first two games of 2015 due to injury, rising junior Grant Haley started the final 11 contests at cornerback. A consistent presence in the secondary, Haley led the team in pass break-ups (7) and passes defended (9).

► BARKLEY LEADS FRESHMAN HONORS

- Saquon Barkley claimed Football Writers Association of America (FWAA), Sporting News and USA Today Freshman All-America honors.
- Barkley was also named to the ESPN.com True Freshman All-American teams and was selected by Sports on Earth as the top offensive freshman.
- Barkley earned second team All-Big Ten accolades (coaches and media), as well as BTN.com Freshman of the Year and All-Freshman Team honors.
- He broke the Penn State freshman season rushing record with 1,076 yards, surpassing the mark of 1,002 set by D.J. Dozier in 1983. He produced the 23rd 1,000-yard rushing season by a Nittany Lion and is the 14th player to accomplish the feat.
- Barkley was joined on the BTN.com All-Freshman Team by kicker Joey Julius.
- Julius converted 10-of-12 field goal attempts to rank second in the Big Ten and 21st in the nation with a .833 conversion rate. He also averaged 62.0 yards on kickoffs with 22 of his 53 resulting in touchbacks.
- Barkley, Troy Reeder and John Reid were selected to the ESPN.com Big Ten All-Freshman team.
- Reeder started the 11 games for the Nittany Lions at the linebacker spot. He ranked fourth on the team with 67 tackles, including 42 solo. Reeder also has 5.5 tackles for loss to go along with an interception.
- Reid started the first two games of the season in place of the injured Grant Haley. He tied for the team lead with two interceptions to go along with his one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. Reid also had three pass breakups and finished second on the team with seven passes defended on the year. In his 13 games, he has 29 total tackles, including one TFL.

Rising junior Saeed Blacknall appeared in all 13 games and made a career-high three starts in 2015 while notching eight receptions for 248 yards and scoring a touchdown.

► NITTANY LIONS EARN ALL-BIG TEN NODS

- Carl Nassib earned first team All-Big Ten honors from both the coaches and media.
- The Nittany Lions have had at least one first team All-Big Ten selection in each of the last 11 years.
- Joining Nassib on the All-Big Ten defensive teams were junior defensive tackle Austin Johnson (second team – media; third team – coaches), senior defensive tackle Anthony Zettel (third team), sophomore safety Marcus Allen, sophomore linebacker Jason Cabinda, sophomore cornerback Grant Haley and senior cornerback Trevor Williams, who all garnered honorable mention accolades.
- Offensively, freshman running back Saquon Barkley was selected to the All-Big Ten second team by the coaches and media, while sophomore wide receiver Chris Godwin was a second team pick by the media and third team selection by the coaches. Sophomore wide out DaeSean Hamilton also garnered All-Big Ten honorable mention accolades from the media.

► GODWIN LEADS RECEIVING CORPS

- Sophomore wide receiver Chris Godwin caught at least four passes in 11 of 13 games last season and 12 of his last 15.
- Godwin is just the third player in school history to register 1,000 receiving yards in a season, joining Allen Robinson (2012, 2013) and Bobby Engram (1994, 1995) as the players to accomplish the feat. It was the fifth 1,000-yard performance in a season in program history.
- Godwin is just the sixth player in program history to have 60 catches in a season, ranking fourth on the season receptions list with 69.
- Godwin finished second on Penn State's season receiving yards list with 1,101 in 2015.
- He is also in 17th place on the career receiving yardage chart (1,422).
- Godwin posted five 100-yard receiving games in 2015.
- Godwin finished the season ranked 25th in FBS and second in the Big Ten in receiving yards per game (84.7) and finished 49th in FBS and fifth in the Big Ten in receptions per game (5.3).
- With 133 yards against Georgia in the TaxSlayer Bowl, Godwin became Penn State's career leader in bowl receiving yards with (273) in two games, passing Bobby Engram's 272 yards.
- Godwin owns the No. 2 (140 yards) and No. 3 (133 yards) bowl receiving yardage marks in Penn State single game bowl history.

- At Michigan State, Godwin grabbed multiple TD catches in a game for the first time in his career and made a career-high 11 catches.
- He has at least one catch in 23 of 24 career games and six career games with five or more grabs, joining his seven-catch night vs. Boston College in the 2014 New Era Pinstripe Bowl.
- Godwin totaled 103 yards on three catches at Ohio State, and then made four catches for a season-high 135 yards and a touchdown the following week against Maryland. He became the first Nittany Lion to post back-to-back 100-yard receiving games since Allen Robinson in 2013 (106 vs. Nebraska, 122 at Wisconsin).

► BLACKNALL GOES DEEP

- Sophomore wide receiver Saeed Blacknall led the Nittany Lions with an average of 31.0 yards per reception on eight catches in 2015.
- Blacknall turned a short pass into a 59-yard reception at Michigan State to set a career long and Penn State's longest completion of the season.
- Blacknall hauled in his second career touchdown with a 25-yard ball from Christian Hackenberg to give Penn State a 10-7 lead over Michigan in the second quarter.
- Both of Blacknall's career touchdown catches have come in Penn State White Out games (Ohio State in 2014 and Michigan in 2015).
- Blacknall caught a 38-yard pass in the second quarter vs. Maryland to start a two-play, 75-yard touchdown drive. Hackenberg connected with Chris Godwin on a 37-yard touchdown pass on the very next play.
- Blacknall had a career-best 101 yards receiving against San Diego State, doing so on just four receptions. His previous best was 34 yards against Ohio State last year.
- Blacknall had then career-long 46- and 45-yard receptions to obliterate his previous single-game standard. His previous long was a 24-yard reception last year against Ohio State.

► HAMILTON MOVING UP RECORD BOOKS

- DaeSean Hamilton's is moving up the career charts as a Nittany Lion.
- Hamilton caught five passes against Georgia in the TaxSlayer Bowl to move into seventh on the all-time catches list with 127.
- He ranks 15th in career receiving yardage with 1,479 yards.
- He became the 13th Nittany Lion to reach the 100-reception milestone with two catches against Ohio State.
- Against Ohio State in 2014, Hamilton hauled in a school record 14 passes, breaking Freddie Scott's mark of 13 catches vs. Wisconsin in 1995.
- His 82 catches shattered the PSU freshman standard for receptions in a season and ranked second in school history, trailing only Allen Robinson (97 in 2013). With the second of his seven catches at Michigan, Hamilton moved past Deon Butler's freshman mark of 37 catches in 2005.

➤ BARKLEY BREAKS 1,000

- Despite missing 2.5 games to injury and only receiving one carry in the season opener, Saquon Barkley led the Lions with 1,076 rushing yards in 11 games played, a Penn State freshman record.
- Barkley turned in his fifth 100-yard rushing performance of the season at Michigan State with 103 yards to break D.J. Dozier's freshman season record of 1,002 set in 1983.
- Barkley is the 43rd Nittany Lion to break 1,000 career yards rushing.
- He finished 16th on Penn State's season rushing yardage list and is 41st on the career rushing chart.

➤ PREMIER RUNNING BACK

- Barkley's yards per game average of 97.8, which ranked 34th nationally and third in the Big Ten, was skewed down since he only received one carry for one yard in the season opener against Temple and only played a little over a quarter against SDSU before leaving the game.
- Barkley's yards per game average was 107.6 when not including the Temple game and 119.6 when not including the Temple and SDSU (injured) games.
- Against nationally-ranked opponents Ohio State, Northwestern, Michigan and Michigan State, Barkley averaged 121.2 yards per game, totaling 485 yards on 83 carries. He averaged 5.8 yards per carry.
- Barkley was fourth in the Big Ten and 34th in FBS with 5.91 yards per carry.
- Barkley's seven rushing touchdowns last season tied for the most by a Penn State freshman. D.J. Dozier also had seven in 1983.
- Barkley tied Dozier (1983) for the most 100-yard rushing performances by a true freshman with five games over the century mark (Buffalo, San Diego State, Ohio State, Northwestern, Michigan State).
- Thirty-four of Barkley's 182 rushes went for double-digit gains and 15 of his rushes went for 20 or more yards.

➤ BARKLEY BANKS BIG TIME PERFORMANCES

- A national primetime TV audience was introduced to Barkley at Ohio State, as the true freshman did not disappoint in his return from injury. Barkley posted his third 100-yard rushing game of the season with 194 yards on 26 carries at Ohio State. His 194 rushing yards were the fourth-most by a PSU true freshman. He also has the third-highest total with 195 vs. Rutgers.
- Barkley was only the second running back to rush for 175 yards or more at Ohio State since 2000, joining Indiana's Tevin Coleman, who had 228 yards last season.
- Barkley notched a career-long 56-yard rush in the fourth quarter against Ohio State. In the first quarter, he had a 44-yard touchdown run called back due to a penalty.
- His 310 rushing yards in consecutive games against Buffalo and Rutgers were the highest two-game total by a Penn State back since Zach Zwinak had 314 in a two-game span vs. Indiana (135) and Wisconsin (179).
- It was also the highest total by a true freshman RB in a two-game span since D.J. Dozier had 359 in 1983 (vs. Rutgers and Alabama). Barkley, Enis and Dozier are the only true freshman to have back-to-back 100-yard games (Dozier had four in a row in 1983).
- Additionally, Barkley's 195 rushing yards against Rutgers were the most by a Penn State true freshman since Eric McCoo had 206 against Michigan State in 1998. Barkley was the fourth true freshman at Penn State to have two or more 100-yard rushing performances (5, D.J. Dozier – 1983; 3, Curtis Enis – 1995; 3, Eric McCoo – 1998).
- Against Buffalo, Barkley became just the eighth PSU true freshman to rush for over 100 yards in a game, joining, Matt Suhey (1976), Curt Warner (1979), D.J. Dozier (1983), Curtis Ennis (1995), Eric McCoo (1998), Austin Scott (2003) and Silas Redd (2010).
- He was also the first PSU player to rush for 100 yards in a quarter since Tony Hunt vs. Akron in 2004. Larry Johnson rushed for more than 100 in a quarter four times in 2002.
- Barkley was only the third player since 2000 to rush for 100 yards or more in a quarter, and it has now only happened seven times since 2000.
- Barkley (Buffalo and Rutgers) joined Johnson as the only PSU rushers to total 100-plus yard quarters in back-to-back games.

An All-Big Ten honoree, rising junior wide receiver Chris Godwin finished second on Penn State's season receiving yardage list after finishing with 1,101 yards on 69 receptions in 2015.

► FRESHMEN RUNNING BACKS

- Seven of 11 rushers last season were freshmen.
- When true freshman Saquon Barkley and junior Akeel Lynch missed 2.5 games due to injury, redshirt freshmen Nick Scott and Mark Allen carried the load on the ground against Army and Indiana.
- Scott had a career-best 57 yards rushing against Indiana after rushing for 54 against Army.
- Allen had a career-best 45 yards rushing against Indiana and scored his first rushing touchdown against Illinois.
- Redshirt freshman Johnathan Thomas made his Penn State debut against Army.
- Redshirt freshmen Trace McSorley (QB) and DeAndre Thompkins (WR) and true freshman Brandon Polk (WR) also logged rushes for the Nittany Lions in 2015.

► PLENTY OF CHUNK PLAYS

- The Nittany Lions tied for 27th in the country while leading the Big Ten in plays of 30 or more yards (35).
- The Penn State passing game had 10 plays of 30 or more yards in the win over Maryland.
- Junior quarterback Christian Hackenberg was tied for 21st in FBS with 23 pass plays of 30 or more yards, while sophomore wide receiver Chris Godwin was tied for ninth with 12 catches for 30 or more yards.
- Additionally, freshman running back Saquon Barkley tied for 24th in FBS and was second the Big Ten with six rushes for 30 or more yards.
- Barkley was tied for 11th in FBS with 15 rushes of 20 or more yards, which led the Big Ten.

► SUSTAINED EXCELLENCE

- Penn State and Wisconsin are the only Big Ten teams that have posted a winning season the last 11 consecutive years.
- Penn State is one of eight teams (USC, LSU, Florida State, Wisconsin, Oklahoma, Oregon, Virginia Tech) in the Autonomy Five that has had a winning record each of the last 11 years.
- Overall in the FBS, Penn State is one of nine teams with a winning record in the last 11 years (Boise State).

► NITTANY LIONS GRADUATE

- A total of 13 football student-athletes graduated after the fall semester. They were Matthew Baney, Tarow Barney, Adam Breneman, Derek Dowrey, Malik Golden, Austin Johnson, Geno Lewis, Angelo Mangiro, Carl Nassib, Nyeem Wartman-White, Trevor Williams, Gary Wooten and Anthony Zettel.
- Baney is a local product from State College Area H.S.
- Mangiro is earning his second degree. He graduated last December with an undergraduate degree in criminology, and has now earned a graduate degree in curriculum and instruction in early childhood.
- Breneman graduated in three years, while, Dowrey, Golden, Johnson, Lewis, Wartman-White and Wooten all graduated in just three-and-a-half years.
- Chaz Powell also returned to school to finish his degree after his playing eligibility was exhausted in 2010.
- Kyle Carter, Ben Kline, Kevin Reihner (Stanford) and Matt Zanellato previously earned their degrees to give Penn State a total of 17 graduates playing in the bowl game (18 degrees).

► YAZUJIAN NAMED ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA SECOND TEAM

- Junior long snapper Tyler Yazujian was named to the Academic All-America® Football Team as selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).
- Yazujian is a two-time Academic All-District selection after earning the honor last season.
- He owns a 3.88 grade point average in information sciences and technology.
- Yazujian was an Academic All-Big Ten selection in 2014 and is a seven-time Dean's List honoree. He has also posted perfect 4.0 GPAs in three semesters during his collegiate career.
- On the field, Yazujian handled all of the long snapping responsibilities for the Nittany Lions. He picked up his first career tackle against Indiana on a punt return as he combined with Jordan Dudas for the stop.
- Penn State football student-athletes have earned 64 CoSIDA Academic All-America® selections all-time, the second-highest total among all Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) institutions, trailing only Nebraska. In 2013, All-America guard John Urschel earned his second consecutive first-team Academic All-America® honor.
- The Nittany Lions' 19 Academic All-Americans® over the past 10 seasons (16 first team) lead the nation.
- The Penn State football team has had at least one first-team Academic All-American® in seven of the past 10 seasons. The Nittany Lions have 19 overall first-team selections since 2002.
- Penn State Athletics has 189 all-time Academic All-American selections, which ranks fifth among all schools at all levels and fourth among Division I institutions. The Nittany Lions have 95 Academic All-Americans since 2000, which is fifth in Division I.

Brandon Polk appeared in all 13 games during his true freshman season, making three starts and scoring a pair of touchdowns (1 rushing and 1 receiving) for the Nittany Lions in 2015.

Long snapper Tyler Yazujian earned CoSIDA Academic All-America second team honors in 2015. On the field, he handled all long snapping duties for the second year in a row.

► QUINTET HAS PENN STATE HERITAGE

- Five members of the 2016 Penn State football squad have ties to former Nittany Lion players or staff.
- Redshirt junior guard Evan Galimberti is the son of Mark Galimberti, who was a manager for the Nittany Lion football program and graduated in 1988.
- Senior wide receiver Gregg Garrity's father, Gregg (1980-82), and grandfather, Jim (1952-54), lettered at Penn State. Gregg Sr. made one of the iconic plays in Penn State football history with his diving TD catch to help beat Georgia in the 1983 Sugar Bowl for the Nittany Lions' first National Championship. The youngest Garrity changed his number to 19 during spring practices to honor his father.
- Redshirt freshman safety John Petrishen's great grandfather, Pop Ellwood (lettered in 1923), and great uncle, Bill Ellwood (lettered 1937-38), played football at Penn State.
- Redshirt junior safety Brian Tomasetti is the son of Rich Tomasetti, who played for Penn State.
- Chappie Hill, a letterman on the 1956 Penn State football team, is the great uncle of redshirt freshman tackle Sterling Jenkins.

► LASCH RENOVATION PLAN APPROVED

- The proposed Phase II upgrades to the Mildred and Louis Lasch Football Building were approved by the Penn State Board of Trustees on Nov. 20.
- The Lasch Renovation, a multi-phased project, will allow Penn State football to provide the resources it needs to recruit and support the nation's most talented student-athletes. The first two phases of this renovation include the addition of a nutrition bar, as well as upgrades to the team auditorium, lobby, locker room, hydrotherapy room and an expanded equipment room.
- The Lasch Lobby has a 21st century design that will be powerful and progressive in a clean, classic Penn State way. The lobby features an awards area that will recognize the history and accomplishments of the Penn State football program.
- The locker room concept will continue the classic Penn State theme and feature a new ceiling design with an integrated logo, new carpet, new multi-functional lockers, multi-tiered lighting controls and a video wall.

DEREK DOWREY

6-3 // 321 // Gr./Sr. // G/C
Winchester, Va.

Season: Appeared in 13 games with five starts... Made his second career start vs. Buffalo... Graduated in December with a degree in journalism... One of 13 Nittany Lions to earn their degree in December. Buffalo (9/12): Helped Penn State pile up 200 yards rushing... Was a part of an offensive line that did not allow a sack for the first time since the 2013 season finale victory at Wisconsin. Rutgers (9/19): Paved the way for a pair of 100-yard rushers: Saquon Barkley (195 yards) and Akeel Lynch (120)... Helped Barkley and Lynch become first Penn State tandem to rush for 100-yard since Lynch (108) and Bill Belton (108) passed the century mark against Eastern Michigan... Helped the backfield collect a pair of 100-yard rushers in a Big Ten game for the first time since 2010 (Northwestern) when Evan Royster (134) and Silas Redd (131) topped the mark... The 330 yards rushing by Penn State were the most since the Nittany Lions ran for 338 at Illinois in 2009... The Nittany Lions rushed for 200 or more yards in consecutive games for the first time since 2009 at Illinois (338) and vs. Eastern Illinois (285)... The 471 yards of total offense were the most since Penn State had 511 in 2014 against UCF in the Croke Park Classic. San Diego State (9/26): Helped protect Christian Hackenberg, who threw for 296 yards and three touchdowns. Indiana (10/10):

Tyler Davis handled the placekicking duties in seven games for the Nittany Lions, including the team's last five contests. Davis finished 8-for-8 on field goal attempts and 11-for-11 on PATs in 2015.

Protected Christian Hackenberg during his 17th career 200-yard passing game (262 yards), which allowed him to become the second quarterback in Penn State history to amass 7,000 yards passing in a career... Helped Penn State control the ball for 35:35, its most in a Big Ten game since having 36:29 against Purdue in 2013. at Ohio State (10/17): Helped pave the way for Saquon Barkley's 194 yards rushing, the third-highest total by a true freshman... Protected Christian Hackenberg who threw for 120 yards and one touchdown. vs. Maryland (10/24): Protected Christian Hackenberg to the tune of 315 yards and three touchdown passes... Helped the offense pile up 363 yards of total offense... The offense posted nine pass plays of 20-plus yards, including all three touchdown passes. at Northwestern (11/7): Blocked for 100-yard rusher Saquon Barkley and 200-yard passer Christian Hackenberg... The 205 yards passing by Hackenberg extended his school record to 20 such contests. at Michigan State (11/28): Blocked for Saquon Barkley's fifth 100-yard rushing effort of the season... Barkley broke the Penn State freshman season rushing record and surpassed the 1,000-yard mark for the season... Protected Christian Hackenberg for his school-record extending 21st career 200-yard passing effort... Hackenberg also tossed two touchdown passes to take over the top spot on PSU's career passing touchdowns list with his 47th and 48th career scoring strikes, breaking a tie with Matt McGloin (46, 2009-12).

MALLOY PATERNO HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

CAREER AT A GLANCE

- Franklin enters his sixth year as a collegiate head coach, leading his first five squads to a bowl game, with post-season victories the past three of the last four years.
- He owns a 38-27 career record, with four consecutive winning seasons.
- Franklin has 21 years of coaching experience at the collegiate and NFL level.
- In his first four years as a head coach, Franklin mentored 16 players that have gone on to the NFL ranks.
- Franklin has secured Top 25 recruiting classes each of the last four seasons, including back-to-back Top 20 classes at Penn State.
- Franklin emphasizes four core values for the Penn State program – a positive attitude, great work ethic, competing on and off the field and the ability to sacrifice.

NIITTANY LIONS ON THE FIELD

- Franklin was named the 16th head football coach in the storied history of the Nittany Lion program on January 11, 2014.
- Franklin guided the Nittany Lions to a 7-6 record in 2015 and a berth in the TaxSlayer Bowl.
- Under Franklin's tutelage, Carl Nassib claimed a trio of national awards – Lombardi Award, Lott IMPACT Trophy and Ted Hendricks Award – and became Penn State's 13th unanimous Consensus All-American.
- Nassib also led the nation in sacks with a school-record 15.5 in 2015.
- The 2015 season also saw Christian Hackenberg break every Penn State career passing record, including passing yards, passing touchdowns and completions, and true freshman Saquon Barkley break the freshman season rushing record with a 1,000-yard campaign.
- Barkley was named the Big Ten Network's Freshman of the Year and claimed second team All-Big Ten honors, while wide receiver Chris Godwin (second team) and defensive tackles Austin Johnson (second team) and Anthony Zettel (third team) also earned All-Big Ten accolades.
- Franklin's first season was bookended with a pair of thrilling victories for the Nittany Lions as the Penn State head coach's inaugural season began with a final-play 26-24 victory over UCF in Dublin, Ireland in Penn State's first-ever international game and ended with a comeback, a 31-30 overtime win over Boston College in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl in Yankee Stadium. The Nittany Lions overcame a 14-point deficit late in the third quarter, tying the largest comeback in Penn State's bowl history.

- With the Pinstripe Bowl win, Franklin became just the third Penn State coach to lead the team to at least seven wins in his first season, joining Dick Harlow (1915) and Bill O'Brien (2012).
- Franklin guided the Nittany Lions to a 4-0 start, joining Harlow as the only first-year Penn State coaches to win their initial four games.
- In Franklin's first season at Penn State, he helped Mike Hull to the Butkus-Fitzgerald Big Ten Linebacker of the Year award to carry on the "Linebacker U" tradition.
- Zettel earned All-Big Ten first team honors, while receiver DaeSean Hamilton garnered All-Big Ten second team accolades after pulling in 82 catches for 899 yards.

NIITTANY LIONS IN THE CLASSROOM

- The 2015 fall semester saw the Nittany Lions post a record 56 squad members with at least a 3.0 grade-point average, marking the fifth consecutive semester (including summer sessions) the Nittany Lions have had more than 50 student-athletes with a 3.0 GPA or better.
- The 56 Nittany Lions with a 3.0 GPA or higher surpasses the mark of 55 set by the 2008 fall semester for the most 3.0 students in a semester in football program history.
- Additionally, 22 Nittany Lions earned Academic All-Big Ten recognition in 2015.
- Tyler Yazujian collected a berth on the CoSIDA Academic All-America® second team in 2015.
- A total of 23 Nittany Lions posted a 3.5 GPA or higher in the 2015 fall semester, with 19 earning Dean's List recognition for having 3.5 GPA or higher with 12 credits earned in undergraduate work.
- The Nittany Lion freshmen were impressive in the 2015 fall semester with 14 posting a 3.0 or higher.

- During Franklin's first fall semester on campus, the football student-athletes set program records with 25 student-athletes earning Dean's List recognition (3.5 GPA) and 57 players owning a cumulative 3.0 grade-point average (GPA) or higher after the 2014 fall semester.
- Additionally, 51 squad members compiled at least a 3.0 GPA in the fall of 2014, the third-highest semester total in program history.
- The spring of 2015 saw continued success in the classroom with 51 student-athletes compiling at least a 3.0 GPA, marking the first time in program history with 50 or more 3.0s in a spring semester.

NIITTANY LIONS IN THE COMMUNITY

- In the last two seasons, the Nittany Lions have completed more than 4,000 hours of community service.
- The Nittany Lions' community service activities include: Uplifting Athletes, THON, Pennsylvania Special Olympics Summer Games, State College Area Food Bank and Penn State Hershey Children's Hospital visits.
- The football team's 2,100 hours of community service in 2014-15 equate to nearly 40 percent of the 5,300 community service hours by Penn State student-athletes.
- The engaging and enthusiastic Franklin is a popular speaker and media interview subject. He was a guest analyst on ESPN's coverage from the site of college football's National Championship game, spending a day appearing on various ESPN platforms in 2013 and 2014. In 2015, Franklin joined the FOX studio crew for pregame, halftime and postgame coverage of the Big Ten Championship game.
- In February 2015, Franklin was the lone college head coach among the speakers and panelists at the prestigious MIT Sloan Sports Analytics Conference in Boston. He was a panelist for the session, "The Formula to Win: College Football Analytics," which was moderated by CNN anchor/reporter Rachel Nichols.

RECRUITING SUCCESS

- The Class of 2016 at Penn State finished in the Top 20, ranking as high as 18th by ESPN, and featured a pair of five-star recruits.
- In 2016, Franklin secured the No. 1 player in the state of Pennsylvania (Miles Sanders) for the first time since Jared Odrick (2006).
- The Nittany Lions laid claim to the No. 1 running back in the state of Pennsylvania in 2015 (Saquon Barkley) and 2016 (Sanders).
- Forty-three of the 70 signees under Franklin are from within a 350-mile radius of State College.
- In February 2015, the Nittany Lions' highly-regarded class of 25 signees was ranked in the Top 15 nationally by the four major recruiting services.
- Franklin and his staff organized a Top 25 recruiting class in short order after being hired at Penn State in January 2014.
- While at Vanderbilt, Franklin assembled a recruiting class that finished as high as 19th in 2014.
- In each of his three seasons in Nashville, Franklin signed classes that finished in the Top 50 nationally. Prior to Franklin's arrival, the Commodores average class rank was 64.6 since 2000 (based on 247Sports composite).

HELPING THE COMMODORES GET THEIR WINGS

- Franklin directed Vanderbilt to consecutive Top 25 finishes for the first time in the 124-year history of the program (No. 23/24 – 2013 & No. 23/20 – 2012).
- The Commodores finished 23rd in the final 2012 Associated Press poll, marking their first AP final ranking since 1948.
- Franklin's 24 wins tied Dan McGugin for the most by a Vanderbilt coach in his first three seasons.
- Franklin led Vanderbilt to a bowl game in each of his three seasons in Nashville, with the last two years resulting in wins over North Carolina State (Music City Bowl) and Houston (BBVA Compass Bowl). The Commodores had played in four bowl games all-time in the 121 seasons prior to his arrival, none in consecutive years.
- Vanderbilt has posted four nine-win seasons in program history, with Franklin's last two teams comprising half of the total.
- Over the last 20 games during the 2012-13 seasons, the Commodores' 16-4 record was second-best in the SEC to Alabama's 17-3 mark.
- Franklin guided the Commodores to a 6-6 regular-season record and earned a berth in the Liberty Bowl during his first season after inheriting a Vanderbilt team that finished 2-10 in both 2009 and 2010, including a 1-15 SEC mark.
- The 2011 bowl berth was Vanderbilt's second since 1983 and running back Zac Stacy broke the Commodores' season record with 1,193 rushing yards.
- The Commodores had a breakthrough campaign in 2012 under Franklin, finishing on a seven-game winning streak (longest since 1948) to post a 9-4 mark, Vanderbilt's most wins in 97 years, and a berth in the Music City Bowl, which VU defeated N.C. State, 38-24.
- A victory at Missouri sparked an 8-1 finish, which included three consecutive SEC road wins for the first time in program history.
- The Commodores were 5-3 in SEC play, winning five SEC games for the first time since 1935, and posted two shutouts for the first time since 1968.

- Franklin was among five finalists for the Bear Bryant National Coach of the Year award in 2012.
- Stacy became the first player in Vanderbilt history to rush for 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons, gaining 1,141 yards to finish with a school-record 3,143 yards and 30 rushing touchdowns.
- Wide receiver Jordan Matthews broke the Vanderbilt season receiving record with 1,363 yards on 94 catches.
- Vanderbilt continued its historic rise under Franklin during the 2013 season, capping a school-record second consecutive 9-4 campaign with a 41-24 win over Houston in the BBVA Compass Bowl.
- The Commodores defeated Florida, Georgia and Tennessee in the same season for the first time in program history, winning in Gainesville and Knoxville.
- Franklin helped Matthews develop into a two-time All-American and the SEC's career leader in receptions (262) and receiving yardage (3,759). Matthews broke the SEC season record with 112 receptions for 1,477 yards and seven touchdowns in 2013, becoming the first SEC receiver to make 100 catches in a season.

RISE UP THE RANKS

- Franklin began his coaching career as the wide receivers coach at Kutztown (Pa.) University (1995) and was a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, East Stroudsburg (Pa.) University in 1996, working with the secondary.
- He then was the wide receivers coach at James Madison (1997), a graduate assistant (tight ends) at Washington State in 1998 and the wide receivers coach at Idaho State (1999).
- In 2000, Franklin was named the wide receivers coach at Maryland under head coach Ron Vanderlinden, who would go on to coach the Penn State linebackers from 2001-13.

- Franklin continued in that role under new head coach Ralph Friedgen in 2002 and '03 and helped the Terps to three consecutive 10-win seasons, including an appearance in the 2002 FedEx Orange Bowl. In 2003, Franklin added duties as recruiting coordinator and directed back-to-back recruiting classes ranked in the Top 25 nationally. Franklin and former Nittany Lion head coach Bill O'Brien (running backs) were Maryland assistant coaches in 2003 and '04 under Friedgen.
- After five successful years at Maryland, Franklin was named wide receivers coach on Mike Sherman's Green Bay Packers staff in 2005. During that season, Green Bay ranked third in the NFL in receptions (383) and seventh in receiving yards (3,766). Donald Driver was among the top receivers in the NFL, ranking second in receptions and eighth in receiving yards, with a then-career-high 86 catches for 1,221 yards.
- Franklin served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Kansas State during the 2006-07 seasons under head coach Ron Prince. In 2006, he helped the Wildcats to their first winning season in four years. Franklin coached quarterback Josh Freeman and oversaw an offense that produced a 3,000-yard passer (Freeman), 1,500-yard receiver (All-American wide receiver Jordy Nelson) and 1,000-yard rusher (James Johnson) during the 2007 season, a first in school history. Freeman would go on to become the Wildcats' highest NFL offensive draft pick since 1954 when the Tampa Bay Buccaneers selected him 17th overall in the 2009 NFL Draft.
- Franklin returned to Maryland in 2008 as the Terps' assistant head coach and offensive coordinator. He helped the Terrapins to victories in the 2008 Humanitarian Bowl and the 2010 Military Bowl. The 2010 squad was among the national leaders in scoring offense at 32.2 points per game and was led by ACC Rookie of the Year quarterback Danny O'Brien. He threw for 2,438 yards, 22 touchdowns and only eight interceptions in 2010, with All-ACC receiver Torrey Smith making 67 catches for 1,055 yards and 12 scores.
- In 1998, Franklin began his participation in the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship Program, starting with a stint with the Miami Dolphins and working with Hall of Fame quarterback Dan Marino. Franklin also worked with Donovan McNabb of the Philadelphia Eagles (1999) and Minnesota Vikings (2008) in the NFL program.

PLAYING CAREER

- Franklin was a four-year letterman at quarterback and a two-time All-PSAC selection at East Stroudsburg.
- He set seven school records as a senior to earn team MVP honors and was a Harlon Hill Trophy nominee as the NCAA Division II Player of the Year.
- Among the season records he set were for total offense (3,128 yards), passing yards (2,586) and touchdown passes (19).
- Franklin graduated having broken or tied 23 school records.

PERSONAL

- Franklin graduated from East Stroudsburg in 1995 with a degree in psychology and earned a master's degree in educational leadership from Washington State University.
- Franklin graduated from Neshaminy High School in Langhorne.
- Franklin and his wife, Fumi, have two daughters, Shola and Addison.

Associate Head Coach/Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers

A native of Altoona, Pa., Brent Pry's coaching career has spanned 23 years and began during James Franklin's final two seasons as an All-PSAC quarterback at East Stroudsburg University. Pry has helped each program he's coached at to success, including 11 bowl appearances, with Top 25 finishes in total defense in each of his last five seasons (two at Penn State; three at Vanderbilt). He also has played an instrumental role working with Top 10 defenses at Penn State, Virginia Tech, Georgia Southern and Western Carolina.

As co-defensive coordinator for Penn State, Pry helped direct a unit that had back-to-back Top 15 finishes in total defense. In 2015, the Nittany Lions finished 14th, giving up 324.5 yards per game. Under Pry's tutelage in 2014, the Penn State defense finished second in FBS in total defense, allowing just 278.7 yards per game, improving 46 spots from the 2013 season when the Lions finished 48th while giving up 381.3 yards per game. For his efforts, Pry was a finalist for Football Scoop's Linebackers Coach of the Year to continue the "Linebacker U." tradition. Mike Hull earned the Big Ten Butkus-Fitzgerald Linebacker of the Year award and eight All-America honors in 2014. Hull led the Big Ten with 140 tackles, tied for fourth in school season history.

Pry tutored the Vanderbilt linebackers and was co-defensive coordinator from 2011-13. The linebackers led the team in tackles for loss during each of Pry's three seasons and he helped Chris Marve earn All-SEC honors in 2011. While at Georgia Southern in 2010, his defensive unit helped the Eagles to a win over No. 1 Appalachian State and an appearance in the NCAA FCS semifinals.

A member of the Memphis staff from 2007-09, Pry's defensive line corps helped the Tigers to back-to-back bowl appearances. He also coached at Louisiana-Lafayette (2002-06), boosting the Ragin' Cajuns to their first Sun Belt Conference championship, Western Carolina (1998-2001) and Virginia Tech (1995-98), helping the Hokies to three bowl games as a graduate assistant, including a win in the 1995 Sugar Bowl. Pry coached the East Stroudsburg outside linebackers and defensive backs in 1993-94. Pry's father, Jim, has been a college football coach for more than 35 years and was Franklin's offensive coordinator at East Stroudsburg.

Pry graduated from Lexington (Va.) High School and played defensive back at the University of Buffalo, earning his degree in history in 1993.

► JOE MOORHEAD

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

In his 19th year in college coaching, Joe Moorhead is in his first season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach after spending four seasons as the head coach of the Fordham Rams.

After inheriting a program that went 1-10, Moorhead steadily built Fordham into a Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) playoff regular, along the way, leading the Rams to their best season in program history in 2013 and the Patriot League title in 2014. Moorhead earned a 38-13 record as the Rams' head coach with three consecutive berths in the FCS playoffs. During his tenure, Moorhead produced the highest ranking in program history (#5 in 2013), highest final ranking in program history (#9 in 2013 and 2014), the first two wins over FBS schools in program history and the first two wins over top-10 opponents in school history. Moorhead guided the 2014 Jerry Rice Award for the NCAA FCS Rookie of the Year, three consecutive Patriot League Offensive Players of the Year, 11 All-Americans, five CoSIDA Academic All-Americans and 55 All-Patriot League performers (37 first team, 18 second team) while with the Rams. Under Moorhead, the Rams were consistently one of the top offensive teams in FCS. The Moorhead-led offense set 16 school records (individual and team) in 2013 and 2014. In 2014, Moorhead led the Rams to their first Patriot League title since 2007 with a perfect 6-0 mark in league play and an 11-3 record overall. In one of the most impressive seasons in school history, Moorhead guided the Rams to a 12-2 record in 2013, which included the program's first win over an FBS opponent (Temple) and the school's first two wins over top 10 opponents (Villanova, Lehigh). For his efforts, Moorhead was named the 2013 AFCA Regional Co-Coach of the Year and Patriot League Coach of the Year. He was also a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award and the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year.

Before returning to take the helm at his alma mater, Moorhead spent three seasons at Connecticut, including two as the offensive coordinator. He helped lead the Huskies to 2010 Big East Championship and a berth in the 2011 Fiesta Bowl. Additionally, Moorhead was at Akron for five seasons, Georgetown for four seasons and a pair of seasons as a graduate assistant at Pitt.

As a collegiate player at Fordham, Moorhead was a three-year starting quarterback and team captain as a senior. He was a second team All-Patriot League selection in 1995 after finishing 13th in FCS in total offense. He earned a bachelor's degree in English from Fordham in 1996.

► CHARLES HUFF

Special Teams Coordinator/Running Backs Coach

Charles Huff is in his 12th season of coaching and third at Penn State as the special teams coordinator and running backs coach. Huff was a versatile player and team captain at Hampton University, playing multiple positions on offense, which has greatly assisted him during his college and NFL coaching career.

In 2015, Huff was instrumental in the breakout season of Freshman All-American running back Saquon Barkley. The true freshman broke the Penn State freshman season rushing record with 1,076 yard en route to being named the Big Ten Network's Big Ten Freshman of the Year. In 2014, he guided Sam Ficken to All-Big Ten and Lou Groza Award semifinalist accolades, connecting on a Penn State season record 24 field goals (in 29 attempts).

Huff spent the 2013 season at Western Michigan as the running backs coach and helped the unit nearly double its rushing yards from 2012. The Broncos ran for 1,394 yards in 2013 after running for just 735 yards the year before. Huff spent the 2012 season with the Buffalo Bills as assistant running backs coach, helping C.J. Spiller to his first career 1,000-yard rushing campaign and a Pro Bowl invitation. The Bills topped 2,000 rushing yards as a team for the first time in 13 seasons and ranked sixth in the NFL with 2,217 yards in 2012.

Huff was a member of James Franklin's 2011 staff at Vanderbilt as the offensive quality control coach and they worked together at Maryland in 2009, when Huff was the assistant offensive line coach. He also worked at Hampton (2010) as the offensive line/running game coordinator. Huff was the tight ends/special teams coach at Tennessee State (2007-08), working with NFL first-round draft pick Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie. From Denton, Md., Huff began his coaching career as the Tennessee State offensive line coach in 2006 and also had duties in football operations in 2007-08.

Huff played tight end, fullback, center and guard at Hampton and was a team captain in 2005, helping the Pirates to an unbeaten regular season.

► TIM BANKS

Co-Defensive Coordinator/Safeties

Banks joins the Nittany Lions after spending the last four seasons at Illinois as the co-defensive coordinator and secondary coach. He helped the Fighting Illini to the Zaxby's Heart of Dallas Bowl in 2014. In 2015, the Fighting Illini finished 15th in FBS in passing yards allowed (184.4) and 21st in team passing efficiency defense (112.24).

Prior to his time in Champaign, Banks spent the 2010 and 2011 seasons as the co-defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Cincinnati, helping the Bearcats to the 2011 Big East Co-Championship. During his tenure, the Bearcats made significant improvement on defense, including finishing sixth in rushing defense the country, ninth in turnover margin and second in sacks in 2011. The defensive success helped propel Cincinnati to a win in the 2011 AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

Additionally, Banks spent three seasons as the defensive coordinator at his alma mater, Central Michigan, helping the Chippewas win two Mid-American Conference titles and three bowl appearances. Banks spent four seasons at Maryland, serving as the inside linebackers coach from 2003-05 and the defensive backs coach in 2006. He helped the Terps to the 2006 Champs Sports Bowl and the 2004 Gator Bowl. Banks and Franklin worked together for two seasons (2003-04) at Maryland when Franklin was the wide receivers coach and Banks was the inside linebackers coach.

Banks has also made coaching stops at Memphis as the defensive backs coach (2002) and outside linebackers coach (2001), Bowling Green as the defensive backs coach (2000) and running backs coach (1999), Ferris State as the defensive backs coach (1997-98) and Bowling Green as a graduate assistant (1996).

Banks was a four-year letterwinner at Central Michigan. A cornerback, he was a two-time All-MAC second team selection (1993-94) and was a co-captain on the Chippewas' 1994 MAC Championship team. He led CMU in tackles in 1993 with 105 stops. Banks graduated from Central Michigan with a bachelor's degree in industrial management in 1995.

► JOSH GATTIS

Offensive Recruiting Coordinator/Assistant Special Teams Coordinator/Wide Receivers Coach

Josh Gattis is in his third season as Penn State's offensive recruiting coordinator and wide receivers coach. He also works closely with Charles Huff as the assistant special teams coordinator. He is entering his seventh season in the coaching ranks and has been a member of James Franklin's staff for four years.

Gattis guided a strong group of wideouts in 2015 with Chris Godwin (second team) and DaeSean Hamilton (honorable mention) earning All-Big Ten honors. Godwin became the third player in Penn State history (Bobby Engram & Allen Robinson) to have 1,000 receiving yards in a season with 69 catches for 1,101 yards. Under Gattis' tutelage, Hamilton has moved into the top 10 in program history in receptions (7th; 127 rec.) and top 15 in career receiving yards (15th; 1,479). Named the 2015 Scout.com Big Ten Recruiter of the Year, Gattis was instrumental in Penn State signing a Top 15 recruiting class in 2015. In 2014, Gattis mentored Hamilton, who led the Big Ten in receptions en route to all-conference accolades, Freshman All-America honors and Big Ten All-Freshman team awards. Hamilton's 82 receptions in 2014 rank second in Penn State season annals.

Gattis has coached a pair of All-America wideouts, helping Western Michigan's Jordan White earn the honor in 2011 when he led the NCAA with 140 receptions for 1,911 yards. White's totals broke the Western Michigan and Mid-American Conference records and he broke the MAC career receiving yardage record. Gattis joined Franklin's staff at Vanderbilt in 2012 and tutored Jordan Matthews to All-America honors twice. Matthews ended his career as the Southeastern Conference's career leader in receptions (262) and receiving yards (3,759), while also owning the SEC season mark with 107 catches, set in 2013. Matthews also is the only player in SEC history to record two seasons of at least 90 catches and the only player with 100-plus receptions in a season.

Gattis has made an immediate impact in coaching after earning All-ACC honors as a safety at Wake Forest and spending two seasons playing with the NFL's Chicago Bears. Gattis broke into coaching as a graduate assistant at North Carolina (2010) on the offensive staff.

From Durham, N.C., he earned his degree in sociology from Wake Forest and played in the 2007 Senior Bowl and East-West Shrine Game. Gattis was a three-year starter and two-time All-ACC safety, grabbing 12 career interceptions and forcing six fumbles for the Demon Deacons.

► MATT LIMEGROVER

Offensive Line

Matt Limegrover joins the Nittany Lions for his first season as offensive line coach, bringing 25 years of collegiate coaching experience to the Penn State staff.

Limegrover spent the last five seasons at Minnesota as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. He held the title of assistant head coach for the last two seasons. During Limegrover's tenure, the Golden Gopher offense had steady growth, increasing their scoring average by 10 points from 2011-14. He helped Minnesota to three consecutive bowls and eight wins in 2013 and 2014 after a 3-9 mark in 2011.

Limegrover spent 16 seasons working under former Minnesota head coach Jerry Kill, following him along four stops at Minnesota, Northern Illinois, Southern Illinois and Emporia State. He started his time with Kill as the offensive line coach at Emporia State for two seasons (1999-00) and then served as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach under Kill at Southern Illinois (2001-07) and Northern Illinois (2008-10).

During his tenure at Northern Illinois, Limegrover produced seven All-Mid-American Conference offensive linemen during his time with the Huskies, including two first team selections in 2010. Limegrover helped Northern Illinois to three consecutive bowl appearances and the 2010 MAC West title.

At Southern Illinois, Limegrover helped the Salukis win three conference championships, and guided an offense that ranked in the Top 10 in scoring in the NCAA for six consecutive seasons (2002-07).

Limegrover also made coaching stops at Ferris State (1997-98) as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator, Northwestern (1995-96) as a graduate assistant and his alma mater, the University of Chicago (1991-94) serving in a variety of roles, spanning interim head coach, offensive coordinator, offensive line coach and tight ends coach. Limegrover was part of two Big Ten Championship teams while at Northwestern.

Limegrover played offensive line at the University of Chicago from 1987-90 and earned his degree in 1991. He was an honorable mention All-UAA lineman as a senior. Limegrover also has his master's from Northwestern.

► RICKY RAHNE

Passing Game Coordinator/Tight Ends

Ricky Rahne is in his third season as the Nittany Lions' passing game coordinator and first as tight ends coach after spending his first two seasons as quarterbacks coach. Rahne made a strong impression on James Franklin when they coached together at Kansas State in 2006-07 and he joined the Vanderbilt staff as quarterbacks coach in 2011.

Rahne worked with Christian Hackenberg, helping him break all major Penn State passing records. Hackenberg is the only 8,000-yard passer in program history and finished his career as Penn State leader in career 300-yard passing games (9), 200-yard passing games (21), passing yards (8,457), attempts (1,235), completions (693), passing touchdowns (48) and total offense (8,215).

Rahne's passing attacks helped Vanderbilt wide receivers set SEC records and running backs post a pair of 1,000-yard seasons from 2011-13. In 2013, Austyn Carta-Samuels completed a superlative 68.7 percent of his passes (193-of-281), good for No. 3 nationally among FBS AQ quarterbacks. He entered the Top 10 in Vanderbilt season history with 2,383 yards of total offense, despite missing three games. In 2012, Jordan Rogers posted the fourth-highest passing yardage total in school history and logged the eighth-highest total offense yardage.

Rahne spent five seasons at Kansas State, serving as the offensive graduate assistant (2006), where he worked with quarterback Josh Freeman, helping him become a first-round NFL draft choice. He also served as the Wildcats' running backs (2007-

08) and tight ends coach (2009-10) and helped the Wildcats earn two bowl berths. A former pupil, tight end Jeron Masturd, spent three seasons with the NFL's Miami Dolphins and Oakland Raiders. Masturd was an All-Big 12 first team selection in 2009 and graduated as K-State's all-time leader in receiving yards and receptions by a tight end. From Morrison, Colo., Rahne also has coached at Cornell, his alma mater, and Holy Cross, where he worked with Sean Spencer.

A three-time team MVP as a quarterback at Cornell, Rahne left the Ivy League school as the all-time leader in nearly every passing category and was inducted into the Cornell Hall of Fame in 2014.

► TERRY M. SMITH

Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Recruiting Coordinator/Cornerbacks

A standout wide receiver at Penn State, Terry M. Smith is in his third season as the Nittany Lions' defensive recruiting coordinator and cornerbacks coach. Smith added the title of assistant head coach following the 2015 season. From Aliquippa, Pa., Smith returned to his alma mater in 2014 after successful high school and college coaching stops and playing professional football.

Smith's second season saw the secondary to rank eighth in FBS in passing yards allowed (173.5). Cornerbacks Trevor Williams and Grant Haley each earned honorable mention All-Big Ten accolades in 2015. In his first year back at Penn State, he helped develop a secondary that boosted the Nittany Lions to No. 2 nationally in pass efficiency defense and sign a recruiting class ranked in the nation's Top 15.

Smith was the wide receivers coach at Temple in 2013 and helped the Owls' passing game reach new heights. Temple set a school record for passing yards (2,996) and tied the school standard with 23 receiving touchdowns in 2013, with Robby Anderson gaining a school game record 249 yards.

A standout player at Gateway High School near Pittsburgh, Smith was a highly successful head coach at his alma mater from 2002-12, compiling a record of 101-30 and posting four WPIAL AAAA runner-up finishes. He has mentored a trio of NFL players and coached in three U.S. Army All-America games. Smith also coached at Duquesne University and Hemphill (Pa.) High School after completing his playing career, which spanned the National Football League, Arena Football League and Canadian Football League.

Still among the career receptions and receiving yardage leaders at Penn State, he made 108 receptions and 15 touchdown catches during his outstanding career from 1988-91. Smith graduated in 1991 and was selected by the Washington Redskins in the 1992 NFL Draft. Smith's stepson, Justin King, was a standout wide receiver and cornerback for the Nittany Lions from 2005-07 before matriculating to the NFL.

Smith was elected to the Gateway Sports Hall of Fame in 2001, after helping the Gators to the 1985 and 1986 WPIAL AAAA Championships as a player.

► SEAN SPENCER

Run Game Coordinator/Defensive Line

Sean Spencer is in his third season as the Nittany Lions' defensive line coach. Spencer has experience on both sides of the ball and special teams during his 20 seasons as a collegiate coach, but he has been exclusively helping build strong defensive units since 2001.

Spencer's influence was front and center in 2015 as the defensive line paced a defense that finished led FBS in sacks (3.54 spg), sixth in tackles for loss (8.2) and 14th in total defense (324.5). Under Spencer's guidance former walk-on Carl Nassib burst onto the national scene, winning the Rotary Lombardi Award, Lott IMPACT Trophy, Hendricks Award and Woodson-Nagurski Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year while breaking the Penn State single-season sacks record with 15.5 in 2015. Nassib also became Penn State's 13th unanimous Consensus All-American. Additionally, defensive tackles Austin Johnson (second team) and Anthony Zettel (third team) garnered All-Big Ten honors.

Spencer was selected a finalist for Football Scoop's Defensive Line Coach of the Year in 2014, as he led a unit that helped Penn State finish No. 3 in FBS rushing defense (100.5) and second in total defense (278.7). Spencer mentored Zettel to first-team All-Big Ten honors last year after recording 17.0 tackles for loss, including 8.0 sacks, and a team-best tying three interceptions.

During his 2011-13 tenure at Vanderbilt, Spencer's defensive lines helped Vanderbilt finish in the Top 25 in total defense all three years. The Commodores recorded 28, 31 and 28 sacks under Spencer, with the D-Line posting 42.5 tackles for loss in 2013. Spencer mentored defensive end Caleb Azubike, who set a Vanderbilt true freshman record with four sacks in 2012 and was named to the ESPN.com SEC All-Freshman team.

Spencer coached the Bowling Green defensive line in 2009-10, where he mentored Chris Jones to All-Mid-American Conference honors and helped the Falcons to the 2009 Humanitarian Bowl, despite not returning a single starter on the defensive line. Jones emerged as a starter for the New England Patriots in 2013, recording six sacks, and played the second-highest number of snaps among NFL rookie defensive tackles.

From Hartford, Conn., Spencer has had two stints at Massachusetts, coaching the defensive line in 2007-08 and in 2001-03, also coordinating the special teams during his second stint with the Minutemen. He also has coached at Hofstra (2006), Villanova (2005), Holy Cross (2004), where he worked with Ricky Rahne, Trinity College (1998-2000) and Shippensburg (1996-97).

A three-year starter at safety at Clarion (Pa.) University, Spencer earned his bachelor's degree in political science.

► DWIGHT GALT

Assistant Athletics Director, Performance Enhancement

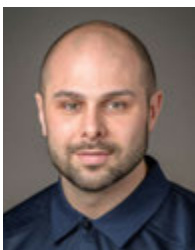

In his third year with the Nittany Lions, Dwight Galt was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director, Performance Enhancement in March 2015. He oversees the performance enhancement regimen for all of Penn State's 31 varsity programs and works directly with the football program.

With more than 31 years of strength and conditioning experience at the collegiate level, Galt worked with James Franklin at Maryland for eight years, before joining him at Vanderbilt from 2011-13, and played a significant role in the Commodores winning nine games in consecutive seasons for the first time. Galt's program designs and administers dynamic and diverse strength and power training, speed enhancement, flexibility, conditioning, and agility training programs to maximize each athlete's athleticism. To bridge the gap between preparation and competition, Galt and his staff also focus on sport specificity, nutrition, and injury prevention to aggressively prepare each athlete for competition.

He has helped train more than 30 former athletes who are active in the National Football League. Galt-trained athletes have consistently impressed NFL scouts, including tight end Vernon Davis and receiver Darrius Heyward-Bey. Galt worked with a pair of Maryland's ACC Championship football teams and also served as the conditioning coach for the Terps' men's basketball program.

Galt is a prestigious Master Strength and Conditioning Coach (MSCC), certified with the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches' Association. A native of Silver Spring, Md., Galt earned bachelor's and master's degrees from Maryland.

One of his twin sons, Dwight Galt IV, is in his fifth year at Penn State as a Performance Enhancement coach with the football program. His other twin son, Tommy, is in his second year as a graduate assistant football coach with the Nittany Lions.

► JEMAL GRIFFIN

Chief of Staff

Jemal Griffin is in his third year as Chief of Staff of the Penn State football program. Griffin's primary responsibilities include the day-to-day management of the football program and its administrative staff, oversight of the football budget and handling all football contracts. In addition, he serves as the team's liaison to the athletic and university administration. Griffin served in a similar capacity with James Franklin at Vanderbilt for three years. He also worked with Franklin at Maryland, serving as the Director of Football Operations from 2008-10 where he was responsible for the daily management of the Maryland football program, including team travel, budget management, team housing, fundraising and special events. He served as Maryland's assistant recruiting coordinator in 2006-07. During that time, the Terps landed nine prep All-Americans and 31 others ranked among the nation's top 100 at their positions.

Prior to joining the Terps, Griffin spent six years on the staff at Woodlawn High School in Baltimore. He started as a defensive backs coach in 2000 and was promoted in 2001 to assistant head coach/offensive coordinator. Griffin coached two prep All-Americans, as well as numerous all-state players at Woodlawn. The school won two Baltimore County titles and two Maryland 4A North Region titles during his tenure.

A native of Baltimore, Griffin earned his degree in management from Coppin State University, where he was a four-year starter on the baseball team and was named to the MEAC All-Tournament team as a senior.

► KEVIN THRELKEL

Director of Football Administration

Kevin Threlkel is in his third year as Penn State's Director of Football Administration. In his capacity, Threlkel handles daily internal operations, team travel logistics, preseason camp and serves as the team's liaison to the Nittany Lion Club, Penn State Alumni Association and the Penn State Football Letterman's Club.

Threlkel served as the Assistant Director of Football Operations under James Franklin at Vanderbilt for three years from 2011-13. Prior to Vanderbilt, Threlkel was at the University of Maryland for two seasons, serving as the football operations intern in 2009 and program management specialist in 2010. The ties between Threlkel and Franklin date to Kansas State in 2006 and 2007, when the Wildcat undergraduate worked as the team's offensive and recruiting assistant. During 2008 and the spring of 2009, Threlkel served as a development assistant with the Ahearn Fund, Kansas State's athletic development organization.

A native of Hays, Kan., Threlkel earned his bachelor's degree in business management from Kansas State University in December 2007 and obtained a master's degree in counseling and student development from Kansas State University in May 2009.

► MICHAEL HAZEL

Director of Football Operations

Michael Hazel is in his third year as the Nittany Lions' Director of Football Operations. His primary responsibilities include overseeing football's external operations, facilities and handling of Coach Franklin's public appearances. Additionally, he serves as the program's liaison to marketing, strategic communications and high school coaches. He was a finalist for the Football Scoop Director of Operations of the Year in 2015. Hazel also was a member of James Franklin's staff at Vanderbilt University, serving as Director of Football Operations for three years. Hazel was a member of the Vanderbilt football staff from 2004-14, serving four seasons as Director of Football Operations, six as Assistant Director of Football Operations and one as a defensive graduate assistant. At Vanderbilt, Hazel was a part of more than half of the institution's bowl games, including the school's first bowl game in 26 years in 2008 and unprecedented back-to-back bowl victories the last two seasons.

Before joining Vanderbilt, Hazel spent three seasons as a defensive graduate assistant at his alma mater, Elon University. Hazel was a four-year letterman at Elon, playing linebacker and contributing on special teams. He helped Elon to a 28-16 record as the program transitioned to Division I-AA and was an eight-time member of the Elon Athletic Director's Honor Roll.

Hazel, a native of Easley, S.C., and a graduate of Wren High School, holds two master's degrees. He earned an M.Ed. in organizational leadership from Vanderbilt in 2007 and an MBA from Elon University in 2004. Hazel received his bachelor's degree in corporate communications from Elon in 2001.

► P.J. MULLEN

Director of Player Development & Community Relations

P.J. Mullen is in his second year as the Director of Player Development and Community Relations. He brings nearly 10 years of institutional and community knowledge to the football program. Mullen's primary responsibilities include assisting in all aspects of on-campus recruiting, planning all appearances and speaking requests for the players, coordinating the team's extensive community outreach initiatives, creating professional development programs for the players, game-day atmosphere responsibilities at Beaver Stadium and overseeing the freshmen, transfers and commits in their transition/application process to Penn State. Mullen also is an adjunct professor in Penn State's College of Communications where he teaches broadcast journalism courses.

Mullen joined the staff after serving as program director and morning show host at WBHV-FM (B94.5) in State College, Pa., from 2009-14. The ties between Mullen and Penn State Athletics date to 2010 when he began freelance production and emcee work for women's basketball, field hockey and softball. Mullen has worked on production teams at various Penn State venues including Pegula Ice Arena since 2013 and with the marketing and game day production teams at Beaver Stadium, the Bryce Jordan Center and Rec Hall since 2011. He also has been the on-field emcee for the State College Spikes, a minor league affiliate of the St. Louis Cardinals, since 2010.

Mullen received his bachelor's degree in telecommunications from Penn State in 2007.

Director of Player Personnel

Andy Frank is in his third year as the Director of Player Personnel for the football program. He oversees all aspects of the recruiting operation. Frank was a member of James Franklin's Vanderbilt staff, serving as the Player Personnel Coordinator for three years. In that role, Frank oversaw the two highest ranked recruiting classes in Vanderbilt history (2012 ranked No. 29; 2013 ranked No. 19 nationally by Rivals.com). He was a member of the staff from 2005-13, serving in several capacities, including defensive graduate assistant (2005-07), defensive quality control (2008), Assistant Recruiting Coordinator (2009), Assistant Director of Football Operations (2010) and Player Personnel Coordinator (2011-13).

Before arriving at Vanderbilt, Frank worked four years for an engineering firm while also serving as a defensive assistant coach at Lincoln High School in Warren, Mich. A native of Sterling Heights, Mich., he played defensive back and special teams at Princeton University. He earned a bachelor of science degree in engineering from Princeton in 2001 and a master's in education from Vanderbilt in 2007.

► TIM BREAM

Assistant Athletics Director, Sports Medicine Support Services Head Athletic Trainer for Football

Tim Bream is in his fifth year at Penn State and was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director, Sports Medicine Support Services in March 2015. He is responsible for overseeing sports medicine support and athletic training services for all 31 Penn State varsity sports, including football, and the university's approximately 800 student-athletes.

Bream returned to his alma mater after 19 years with the National Football League's Chicago Bears. He had served as the head athletic trainer with Chicago since 1997 after spending the four previous years with the Bears as an assistant athletic trainer.

Prior to working in the NFL, Bream held athletic trainer positions at several schools, including Richmond, where he was the director of sports medicine and head athletic trainer (1998-92), Vanderbilt (1986-88), Syracuse (1984-86) and West Virginia (1983-84). In addition, Bream has worked with the United States Olympic Committee medical staffs, including the 1991 World University Games in England and the 1992 Winter Olympics in Albertville, France.

Bream graduated from Penn State with a bachelor's degree in health and physical education, with an emphasis in athletic training. A native of Gettysburg, Pa., he earned his master's degree in physical education with an emphasis in sports science from West Virginia. He has served as an instructor and lecturer in collegiate and professional settings, co-authored articles for national publications and been a presenter at numerous national athletic training seminars and symposia.

► JEVIN STONE

Video Director

Jevin Stone is in his fifth year as Video Director for the football program after serving as a video assistant since 2009. Stone oversees all functions of the department, including filming and editing games and practices, budgeting and managing the student staff.

Stone earned two football letters as an offensive lineman at Indiana State and graduated in 2004. Following his playing career, Stone worked on the video staff for the football team. He was a member of the Indianapolis Colts' video staff (2004-06), including the Super Bowl XLI Championship team. He also was the head video director for the Berlin Thunder of NFL Europe in 2006, followed by a one-year stint with the Frankfurt Galaxy.

Stone was a video assistant with the Cleveland Browns in 2007-08 and rejoined the Colts' video staff in 2008-09. He returned to the college ranks in 2009 as a video assistant at Penn State. Stone was selected as the 2015 Big Ten Football Video Director of the Year.

Stone oversees all video software and equipment in the Lasch football building. He supervises all of the video and computer needs for the Penn State football program as well as the filming and editing of all practices and games with the state-of-the-art XOS Thunder System. This technology allows the coaches and players to view any play or sequence at the click of a button from any computer, tablet or smart phone. Video is merged with key data, such as down and distance, to provide coaches and players with a complete analysis of every play. He also is responsible for the opponents game exchange via the internet.

Stone is a member of the Collegiate Sports Video Association. This Association provides information to connect and network with other video coordinators around the country and also learn new technology that a variety of vendors have to offer.

FOREVER BLUE & WHITE ATHLETIC ENDOWMENTS

Join Penn State's proud athletic tradition. This is an opportunity to link your name in perpetuity with the accomplishments of all of Penn State's athletic teams.

By endowing a specific playing or coaching position on a team of your choice, you will help ensure that the University always will have funds available for expenses such as room and board, tuition and books; and that Penn State will be able to employ a first-rate coaching staff that will set a positive example for our young men and women.

As of March 2016, 27 benefactors already have seized the chance to endow a football position for the White Squad (see diagram below). Most of the Blue Squad remains available.

This program is open to all positions on any of Penn State's 31 intercollegiate athletic teams in consideration of a gift of $300,000 and for a minimum commitment of $50,000 you can establish a named endowed scholarship to support the team of your choice.

Coaching endowments also are available in all 31 sports, with gift levels for assistant coaches starting at $500,000 and head coaches starting at $1 million. Patrick and Candace Malloy previously created the Malloy Paterno Head Football Coach Endowment at Penn State.

The Malloys' gift will provide important resources for the football program. Income from the Malloy Paterno Head Football Coach Endowment will be directed, at the head coach's discretion and with approval from the director of athletics, to purposes ranging from academic support and special medical care for team members, to expenses associated with recruitment of student-athletes and coaching expenses, excluding salary supplements. Penn State Intercollegiate Athletics receives no state support for its programs and must cover the cost of fielding 31 varsity teams from ticket revenues and private giving.

The University invests endowed gifts in perpetuity and uses a portion of the annual income for the purposes intended by the donor. The remaining income is added to the principal to protect it from inflation and ensure its growth.

For more information on becoming a part of Penn State's proud athletic tradition, please call the Nittany Lion Club Office of Major Gifts at 814-863-GIFT (4438).

GAME RECAPS

PHILADELPHIA - Penn State raced out to a 10-0 lead early, but Temple responded with 27 points over the final three quarters to win the season opener, 27-10, Saturday afternoon in Lincoln Financial Field.

True freshman wide receiver Brandon Polk started, and on Penn State's first play from scrimmage, ran 33 yards. It helped set up a field goal, and running back Akeel Lynch broke off a 42-yard touchdown run on Penn State's next possession for a quick 10-0 lead. Temple would not yield another score though, forcing six straight punts after Lynch's score.

On the seventh possession since the score, with the game tied at 10-10 in the third quarter, quarterback Christian Hackenberg was intercepted in the end zone, and the return set up the Owls' go-ahead score from the two. Quarterback P.J. Walker, who completed 15-of-20 pass attempts for 143 yards, rushed it in himself.

Temple running back Jahad Thomas rushed 29 times for 135 yards and rushed for two touchdowns.

Sophomore wide receiver Chris Godwin caught five passes for 81 yards for Penn State to lead all receivers.

On defense, senior defensive end Carl Nassib made a career-high 10 tackles. He recorded his second career solo sack, good for a 12 yard loss, in the second quarter. His 2.5 tackles for loss were also a career-best. Senior cornerback Trevor Williams tied his career-high with six tackles, matching his six stops vs. UCF on September 14, 2013. His 2.0 TFL surpassed his career total entering the game (1.5 TFL). Junior linebacker Brandon Bell forced his second career fumble in the second quarter, and his 2.5 tackles for loss are a career-high, surpassing his 2.0 TFLs at Indiana on Nov. 8, 2014.

The loss to Temple snapped a 39-game undefeated streak for Penn State in the series that dated 74 years.

GAME RECAPS

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - Penn State scored on three consecutive drives starting late in the third quarter en route to a 27-14 victory over Buffalo in the home opener on a rainy afternoon in Beaver Stadium.

Buffalo pulled within three points, 10-7, with a touchdown late in the third quarter, but a Penn State field goal before the end of the third quarter and a pair of touchdowns on the next two drives to start the fourth put the game out of reach.

Carl Nassib once again led the defense for Penn State, hauling in an interception that led to a field goal, posting three sacks and forcing two fumbles. The Nittany Lion defense held Buffalo to 274 yards (69 rushing, 205 passing) of total offense. It was the fewest rushing yards allowed since yielding 68 against Illinois last season.

On the other side of the ball, Penn State totaled 200 yards rushing, led by true freshman running back Saquon Barkley, who totaled 115 yards on 12 attempts with a touchdown. He is the first PSU true freshman to rush for more than 100 yards in a game since Silas Redd had 131 yards on 11 carries and scored one touchdown against Northwestern in 2010. Barkley broke off back-to-back runs totaling 50 yards to start Penn State's first possession of the fourth quarter, which led to a touchdown and 20-7 Penn State lead. He also found the end zone with 9:02 remaining in the contest from nine yards out for a 27-7 lead.

Another true freshman, Brandon Polk, totaled 45 yards on three carries, scampering 22 yards for a touchdown for the Lions' first score of the game, and adding another to setup a short field goal attempt late in the third quarter. It marked the first time since 2005 that Penn State had two true freshmen score a touchdown in the same game.

Christian Hackenberg finished with one touchdown and 128 yards passing, completing 14-of-27 attempts in wet conditions. He connected on a 38-yard pass play to Chris Godwin, who led the receiving corps with five receptions for 75 yards, to set up Barkley's fourth quarter score. DaeSean Hamilton hauled in a 5-yard touchdown reception on the drive keyed by Barkley's big runs and totaled three catches for 15 yards.

The offense was strongest in the second half, totaling 202 yards, and did not yield a sack in the game for the first time since 2013 in a win over Wisconsin. The Lions did not turn the ball over either for the first time since last season's tilt against UMass.

Contributing on defense in addition to Nassib were Austin Johnson and Troy Reeder. Johnson posted a career-high nine tackles, including 2.5 for loss and 1.5 sacks. Reeder also surpassed a career high with seven tackles in his first career start.

The Nittany Lion special teams contributed, as well, returning both a punt return and kick return for at least 58 yards in the same game for the first time since 2007, when they accomplished the feat against Notre Dame.

Buffalo quarterback Joe Licata completed 24-of-35 pass attempts for 205 yards and two touchdowns, but was sacked six times for 47 yards and picked off once. Ron Willoughby was his top target with eight catches for a touchdown, and Marcus McGill caught four passes for 45 yards and a touchdown. Anthonie Taylor added 93 yards on the ground with 18 carries.

The game had an electrifying start as Penn State's Nick Scott returned the opening kickoff 58 yards to the Buffalo 42. It was the longest for Penn State since Chaz Powell had a 92-yard return against Purdue in 2011.

A 22-yard touchdown run on a sweep to Polk was the game's first score and gave Penn State a 7-0 lead with 6:57 remaining in the first half. A 58-yard punt return by DeAndre Thompkins, on which he was barely tripped up by UB punter Tyler Grassman on a diving play, setup the two-play scoring drive at Buffalo's 24. It was the longest punt return by a Nittany Lion since Derrick Williams' 63-yard punt return for a touchdown at Wisconsin in 2008.

With Buffalo on its own 33 on the ensuing possession, Anthony Zettel burst through the UB line and tipped a Licata pass, and Nassib was able to haul it in with one hand for the interception, which he returned 10 yards to the UB 12. Joey Julius converted a 22-yard field goal to cap the drive with 3:58 left in the half.

After the halftime break, Willoughby capped a 11-play, 78-yard drive with a 14-yard touchdown reception to cut Penn State's lead to three.

Penn State converted a field goal on its next possession, and then after a UB three-and-out, Barkley broke free on the first PSU play for 33 yards to the Buffalo 29, and then ran down the middle and leapt over a safety before being brought down after a 17-yard gain. Hackenberg threw for seven yards to Godwin and connected with Hamilton on a 5-yard touchdown reception for a 20-7 lead with 12:04 remaining in the game.

Another three-and-out led to Penn State's final scoring drive, as the Lions drove 74 yards on just six plays, a 15-yard pass interference penalty and a 38-yard connection between Hackenberg and Godwin led to Barkley's 9-yard touchdown run.

Buffalo drove 82 yards on 13 plays to reach the end zone on a 10-yard reception by McGill with 4:38 remaining, but two sacks-fumbles by Nassib helped prevent UB from mustering another scoring drive.

GAME RECAPS

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - Saquon Barkley rushed for 195 yards and two touchdowns to lead Penn State past Rutgers, 28-3, in the Big Ten opener on a rainy night in Beaver Stadium. The Nittany Lions took command of the game in the second quarter with three touchdowns in front a "Stripe Out" crowd of 103,323.

Penn State led Rutgers 21-0 at halftime and did not allow the Scarlet Knights to reach the red zone until doing so once in the fourth quarter, yielding a field goal. The three points allowed was the fewest for the Nittany Lions since 2011 against Iowa.

The Nittany Lion ground game keyed the offense totaling 330 of 471 total offensive yards, with 174 coming in the first half. It was the most yards gained on the ground for the Lions since 2009 when they totaled 338 and the first time they broke the 200-yard mark in consecutive games since the same year.

Barkley posted his second consecutive game of more than 100 yards, finding the end zone twice and totaling his season-high 195 yards on 21 carries, the most yards for a PSU true freshman rusher since 1998 and the most for any PSU rusher since Bill Belton totaled 201 in 2013. Barkley was particularly strong in the second half, totaling 140 yards and a touchdown on 11 rushes.

Fellow running back Akeel Lynch also broke 100 yards, totaling 120 on 10 carries, with nine carries and 115 yards coming in the first half, including a career-best 75-yard touchdown run. It was the first time Penn State had two 100-yard rushers in a game since Lynch and Belton accomplished the feat in 2013.

The Nittany Lion defense forced Rutgers to punt on its first five possessions before Grant Haley hauled in an interception on the sixth and final RU drive of the first half.

John Reid hauled in his first interception and recovered a late fumble, as the Lions pulled in a season-high three turnovers. The Blue and White continued to penetrate the backfield as well, totaling 9.0 tackles for loss and 5.0 sacks. Defensive tackle Austin Johnson led the team with 2.0 backfield stops, including a sack. Carl Nassib continued his strong start, tallying his team-best fifth sack as part of 1.5 backfield tackles. Safety Marcus Allen led the team with 11 tackles, including seven solo stops.

Christian Hackenberg completed 10-of-19 passes with one interception for 141 yards, and was not sacked for a second consecutive game. His top target was DaeSean Hamilton who totaled 81 yards on four catches in the first half, and finished with five for 86 yards. Chris Godwin also caught four passes, totaling 49 yards.

Rutgers quarterback Chris Laviano completed 27 of 42 passing attempts for 251 yards with two interceptions. Josh Hicks led the ground game with 49 yards, but the Scarlet Knights only totaled 43 for the game, the fewest Penn State had allowed since holding Maryland to 33 last season. Carlton Agudosi led 10

Rutgers pass catchers with six receptions for 80 yards.

After playing the field position game on its first two drives of the game, pinning Rutgers on its own 2- and 10-yard lines, respectively, with punts from Chris Gulla, the Penn State offense found the end zone on its third possession, driving 80 yards on 12 plays in a season-long six minutes, two seconds. Hackenberg found Godwin along the right sideline for a 30-yard gain on the first play, and then the Nittany Lions pounded the ball into the red zone with eight consecutive running plays. On 3rd-and-3 from the 17, Hackenberg found Hamilton for a 13-yard gain to the 4-yard line, setting up an end-around to redshirt freshman wide receiver DeAndre Thompkins from two yards out for his first career touchdown with 12:10 remaining in the second quarter.

The Lions went three-and-out on their next possession, but scored on their next two.

Starting at the Penn State 10, the Lions drove 90 yards on eight plays for their longest drive of the season. Hackenberg found Hamilton with a short pass in the middle of the field that Hamilton was able to turn into a 48-yard gain to the Rutgers' 42. The Nittany Lions then handed off to Barkley on six of the next seven plays, and he capped the drive with a 15-yard touchdown run with 2:06 remaining in the half.

After another Rutgers' punt, Penn State took over on its own 25 with 1:14 on the clock. Lynch broke through a hole in the middle and ran 75 yards to the end zone.

Rutgers assembled the longest drive of the scoreless third quarter, advancing 54 yards on seven plays before Reid ended it with his first career interception.

Rutgers reached the red zone for the first time with just under 12 minutes remaining in the fourth quarter, capping a 16-play, 71-yard drive with a 34-yard field goal. The drive took 7:13.

A 40-yard rush by Barkley keyed Penn State's ensuing drive, but a Hackenberg pass from the Rutgers' 28 was intercepted by Anthony Cioffi at the 1-yard line with 7:57 remaining.

Rutgers reached midfield on their first two plays, but three consecutive sacks by Nassib, Jordan Lucas and Johnson, respectively, moved Rutgers back to its own 21.

Barkley responded on the ensuing possession, breaking off a 54-yard run to the Rutgers' 16 on the first play, and rushing into the end zone on the next for the final margin.

GAME RECAPS

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - Penn State scored three touchdowns off three San Diego State fumbles en route to a 37-24 victory in non-conference action in Beaver Stadium. Quarterback Christian Hackenberg completed 21-of-35 pass attempts for 296 yards and three touchdowns, while defensive tackle Austin Johnson returned a fumble 71 yards for a touchdown to put the game out of reach in the fourth quarter.

The game turned in Penn State's favor late in the first half when San Diego State muffed a punt and fumbled in Nittany Lion territory in the final 2:33. The Aztecs led 14-13 but the turnovers allowed Penn State to take a 27-14 lead into the locker room after Hackenberg capped both resulting drives with touchdown passes.

Chris Godwin and DaeSean Hamilton led the Lions with five receptions each, with Godwin totaling 78 yards and a touchdown. Godwin also recovered the muffed punt late in the second quarter. Saeed Blacknall led in yardage, totaling a career-high 101 yards on four receptions, including career-long receptions of 45 and 46 yards. Running backs Saquon Barkley and Mark Allen both factored in the passing game, each notching their first receiving touchdowns.

Barkley led the team on the ground with 62 yards on eight carries, all in the first quarter and early second quarter.

Penn State was strong defensively, yielding only two drives longer than 36 yards, and 242 total yards. The Nittany Lions' 141 passing yards allowed were their fewest against an FBS non-conference opponent since holding Kent State to 134 in 2013. SDSU's first touchdown came on a 100-yard kickoff return by Rashaad Penny, and its last came after getting the ball on the Penn State 21-yard line after a Nittany Lion muffed punt early in the third quarter. Not including special teams scores, the Nittany Lion defense has not allowed more than seven points in the first half of 10 consecutive games.

Defensive tackle Anthony Zettel led the unit with a career-high seven tackles, including a team-best 2.5 for loss and a half sack. He also recovered a fumble that led to a touchdown and broke up one pass. Defensive end Carl Nassib had 2.0 of the team's five sacks, including the sack-forced fumble that led to Johnson's touchdown run. Defensive end Garrett Sickels forced the fumble that Zettel recovered and recorded a half sack and pass breakup in addition to three tackles.

Penny led SDSU with 192 all-purpose yards, including the 100-yard kickoff return and a 55-yard rush that keyed a touchdown drive. Donnel Pumphrey rushed for 56 yards and a touchdown on 18 carries and caught four passes for 51 yards. Quarterback Maxwell Smith completed 10-of-30 passes for 141 yards and a touchdown, targeting Mikah Holder for 78 yards and a touchdown.

SDSU's fumbles before halftime allowed Penn State to score two touchdowns in the final 1:03 before the break.

Lloyd Mills muffed a 44-yard punt from Penn State's Chris Gulla at the SDSU 27. The Nittany Lions found the end zone in four plays, as Allen capped the short drive with a 13-yard touchdown reception with 1:03 remaining in the half. Allen pulled in the short pass near the line of scrimmage and leapt into the end zone as he was tripped up. He was originally marked down at the two, but the spot was overturned upon video review.

After the ensuing kickoff, SDSU took over on its own 25-yard line, but Sickels stripped Pumphrey of the ball on the first play from scrimmage, and Zettel pounced on it, giving the Lions the ball back on the 23 with 55 seconds remaining in the half.

After a sack, Hackenberg led the Lions to the 11, completing an 8-yard pass to Kyle Carter and a 7-yard pass to Hamilton on 3rd-and-5. Hackenberg then converted another third down after a pair of incompletions, finding Godwin in the middle of the field for an 11-yard touchdown with 17 seconds left before the break.

Hackenberg completed 16-of-24 pass attempts in the half for 234 yards and three touchdowns. Blacknall caught three of the passes for 98 yards. The Nittany Lions outgained SDSU in total offense 297-81 yards.

San Diego State threatened in the second half, taking advantage of a muffed punt for a six-play, 21-yard touchdown drive. Pumphrey capped the drive with a 1-yard touchdown run. Late in the third quarter when SDSU began to drive on offense again. Starting at their own 18, a 31-yard pass from Smith to Holder moved the Aztecs to the PSU 24. The drive came to an abrupt end though when Nassib forced Smith to fumble on the next play, planting his helmet on the quarterback's arm just before it could come forward. The 6-4, 323-pound Johnson scooped up the resulting fumble and rumbled 71-yards to the end zone for a 34-21 lead with 13:44 remaining.

Joey Julius would convert his third field goal of the game with 9:52 remaining for the final margin. A 32-yard pass from running back Nick Scott to Godwin moved the Lions into range at the SDSU 13.

GAME RECAPS

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - Linebacker Jason Cabinda made a career-high 14 tackles and forced a fumble, as Penn State's defense led the Nittany Lions to a 20-14 victory over Army West Point on a rainy afternoon in Beaver Stadium. The unit recovered three fumbles for a second consecutive game and Cabinda also secured the victory with a sack on fourth-and-5 in Penn State territory in the game's final two minutes.

It was Penn State's fourth consecutive victory in its fourth consecutive home game, giving the Nittany Lions their best home start since 2008. The Lions led the game from their second offensive possession until the end.

Penn State running back Nick Scott totaled 54 yards on the ground on 12 attempts and gave the Lions the early lead with an 11-yard touchdown run for his first career score. He also caught one pass for 22 yards.

Quarterback Christian Hackenberg completed 10-of-19 passing attempts, for 156 yards. Ninety-one yards came on what proved to be the game-deciding scoring drive late in the third quarter, as he marched the Lions down the field on just three plays, connecting with wide receiver Chris Godwin on a 49-yard pass and finding tight end Mike Gesicki for a 33-yard touchdown reception. It was Hackenberg's 37th career touchdown pass to tie Chuck Fusina for seventh all-time at Penn State.

Godwin finished with 66 yards and four catches, while Gesicki's touchdown was the first of his career which fittingly came on his birthday.

Quarterback A.J. Schurr led the Army's triple-option offense, running 24 times for 74 yards and both of the team's touchdowns, including a 56-yard touchdown run. He completed his lone pass attempt for 32 yards, leading to his first touchdown in the third quarter. Dropping back to pass only a handful of times, Schurr was sacked three times, twice by Cabinda and once by Carl Nassib, who entered the game leading the country in the category and has recorded a sack in each game this season.

Army's single completion matches the lowest total of the year, and its one attempt is also the lowest thus far this year. Nine different Black Knights carried the ball, totaling 261 yards.

The wet conditions made handling the ball difficult for both teams. It made the passing game difficult for the Lions, while Army fumbled seven times with only two being forced, by Cabinda and Anthony Zettel, respectively. Manny Bowen, Von Walker and Garret Sickels each recovered fumbles. Penn State's six fumble recoveries in consecutive games (3 vs. San Diego State and 3 vs. Army) are its most since having six at Virginia (3) and vs. Navy (3) in 2012.

Penn State received the opening kickoff and went three-and-out, but received the ball back immediately when Army fumbled the snap on their very first play and Sickels recovered it at the Army 42. The Nittany Lions were then able to drive to the end zone on eight plays. Hackenberg converted a fourth-and-4 with a 12-yard pass to DaeSean Hamilton to the Army 11 to keep the drive alive. Scott then rushed across the goal line on the next play for the touchdown.

Army was unable to cross midfield until early in the second quarter, when an 11-yard gain by Drue Harris placed the Black Knights at the Penn State 43. Jordan Asberry fumbled on the next play though and Walker recovered it.

Another fumble on Army's next drive set up a Penn State field goal drive starting at the Army 41. A career-long 19-yard rush by Hackenberg keyed the drive, and placekicker Joey Julius converted from 37 yards with just 25 seconds remaining in the half for a 10-0 advantage.

The Nittany Lions added a field goal on their first drive of the third quarter, as Julius connected from 27 yards for a 13-0 lead.

Penn State held Army to just 77 yards of offense in the first half, but was able to make progress in the second half. Army responded on its ensuing possession with an eight-play, 76-yard touchdown drive, as Schurr completed a 32-yard pass to Edgar Poe to move the Black Knights to the Penn State 12. Schurr then rushed himself the next three plays, finding the end zone from three yards out.

Both teams then traded punts, resulting in Penn State taking over at its own 9-yard line with 1:13 remaining in the third quarter, but Hackenberg was able to engineer a three-play, 91-yard touchdown drive. Hackenberg found Kyle Carter for a quick 9-yard gain, but then connected with Godwin on a 49-yard pass down the middle, and the capped the drive with a 33-yard touchdown pass to Gesicki at the conclusion of the quarter for a 20-7 lead.

However, Schurr broke free for a 56-yard touchdown run on Army's next possession to cut the deficit to six points again with 11:04 remaining in the fourth quarter.

Penn State was only able to get one first down after the kickoff and was forced to punt, giving the Black Knights the ball at their own 15 after a holding penalty during the return. The Nittany Lion defense only yielded 42 yards on nine plays in more than six minutes before Cabinda dropped Schurr for a 10-yard loss on fourth-and-5 with 1:21 remaining.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - Penn State quarterback Christian Hackenberg accounted for all four touchdowns and became the second player in school history to surpass 7,000 career passing yards, as he led the Nittany Lions past Indiana, 29-7, in Big Ten football action on a sunny afternoon in Beaver Stadium.

The Penn State defense held Indiana's league-leading offense, which was averaging 498.2 yards per game entering the contest, to just 234 yards and a first-quarter touchdown. Defensive end Carl Nassib registered two sacks and two forced fumbles, as the Lions totaled four sacks - one more than Indiana had allowed prior all season. Defensive tackle Austin Johnson also recorded a sack and was one of three Lions with nine tackles.

Hackenberg used both his arm and his legs to move the ball downfield. He completed 21-of-39 passing attempts for 262 yards and two touchdowns, while setting career-highs rushing with two more touchdowns, 21 yards and a career-best 22-yard run. Wide receiver Chris Godwin was his top target with four catches for 14 yards, while fellow receivers DaeSean Hamilton and Brandon Polk both caught 39-yard touchdown passes. Hackenberg targeted eight different receivers in the contest.

The Lions used seven different ball carriers to total 154 yards rushing on 32 attempts. Nick Scott and Mark Allen had eight carries each, with Scott totaling a career-best 57 yards and Mark Allen totaling a career-best 45.

Indiana quarterback Zander Diamont led the Hoosiers in the air with nine completions on 17 attempts for 90 yards, and also led on the ground with 11 rushes for 38 yards and the team's lone touchdown. However, he left the game in the third quarter and freshman Danny Cameron completed 6-of-16 passes for 65 yards with one interception in relief. Ricky Jones was the game's leading receiver with five catches for 59 yards.

Marcus Oliver paced the Indiana defense with a game-high 13 tackles, while Nick Mangieri and Zack Shaw recorded two sacks each.

Hackenberg did most of his damage in the first half, throwing for two touchdowns and rushing for one. He completed 12-of-23 passing attempts for 186 yards, while rushing five times for 28 yards.

Both teams scored touchdowns in the first quarter. Penn State struck first on its third offensive drive, taking advantage of an Indiana personal foul that negated a lost fumble on third-and-10 from Penn State's own 36.

The penalty moved the Nittany Lions to the Indiana 49, and they scored two plays later. Hackenberg threw a short pass to Scott out of the backfield for 10 yards, and then Polk used his speed to get behind the Hoosiers' secondary for a 39-yard touchdown reception - the first of his career - with 7:35 remaining in the first quarter.

Indiana would answer on its ensuing possession, driving 65 yards on eight plays for a game-tying touchdown. Diamont moved Indiana into Penn State territory with a 10-yard rush, and then after a rushing attempt for no gain, connected on passes of 14 and 17 yards on consecutive plays to reach the PSU 12. He called his own number on the next play and rushed to the right for a touchdown with 4:11 remaining in the quarter.

Indiana caught Penn State off guard with an onside kick and kept the ball on offense, but the Nittany Lion defense forced a three-and-out - one of six on the day. Penn State took over at its own 7 and drove 50 yards on seven plays into Hoosier territory, but Mark Allen failed to hold onto a hand off and fumbled the ball away with four seconds remaining in the opening quarter for the Lions' first lost fumble on offense this season.

Penn State's defense continued to hold, and the Lion offense found the end zone again on its second drive of the second quarter after starting at its own 20. Mark Allen rushed for a career long 28 yards, and Hackenberg connected with Godwin for 14 yards to the IU 38-yard line. Allen lost a yard on his next carry, but Hackenberg found Hamilton down the right side for a 39-yard touchdown completion with 5:40 remaining in the half. The extra point attempt was no good, giving Penn State a 13-7 lead.

After an Indiana three-and-out, highlighted by Johnson's sack for a loss of 10 yards, Hackenberg used his legs to key Penn State's next touchdown drive. Hackenberg used a 9-yard rush to advance to Indiana's 35 and, one play later, a 22-yard rush to Indiana's 6. One play later from the 1, he ran around the right end untouched into the end zone with 36 seconds remaining in the half. The extra point try attempt failed again, and Penn State took a 19-7 lead into the halftime break.

The defenses ruled the third quarter, as Penn State was held to just 29 yards and Indiana was unable to get into scoring range despite 118 yards of offense. Indiana regained possession late in the third after a Penn State three-and-out, but cornerback John Reid intercepted a dropped pass at the Penn State 48. The play led to a seven-play, 52-yard touchdown drive that Hackenberg capped with a 5-yard run and dive into the end zone. A 21-yard completion to Kyle Carter on third-and-3 from the Indiana 45 kept the drive going.

A 30-yard field goal for Penn State from Tyler Davis in the fourth quarter resulted in the final margin.

GAME RECAPS

COLUMBUS, Ohio - Penn State freshman running back Saquon Barkley rushed for 194 yards in his return from injury, but the Nittany Lions were unable to hold on to an early lead against No. 1 Ohio State, as the Buckeyes won, 38-10, in a Big Ten football contest Saturday night in Ohio Stadium.

Penn State assembled a six-play, 61-yard field goal drive on its first possession and forced punts on Ohio State's first three drives to hold a 3-0 lead after the first quarter. The Buckeyes found their rhythm in the second quarter though, as they scored rushing touchdowns on their next three possessions to take the lead for good, including two from quarterback J.T. Barrett.

Barkley led all rushers with 194 yards on 26 carries, including a career-long 56-yard rush to Ohio State's 21-yard line early in the fourth quarter on Penn State's first offensive play after Ohio State extended its advantage to 24-10 with a field goal. The Lions reached the 13, but were unable to convert on third-and-2 and fourth-and-2, and turned the ball over on downs. Barkley also had a 44-yard touchdown run in the first quarter nullified by a penalty, and Penn State would eventually be forced to punt.

Barkley's 194-yard performance ranks as the fourth most by a true freshman at Penn State, trailing his third-ranked 195-yard performance against Rutgers earlier in the season. His three 100-yard rushing games are tied for second on the all-time true freshman season list, while D.J. Dozier's five 100-yard rushing games in 1983 top it.

Elliott and Barrett both broke 100 yards on the ground to lead Ohio State's offense. Elliott totaled 153 yards on 27 carries with a touchdown, while Barrett amassed 102 yards and two touchdowns on 11 carries, while completing all four passing attempts for 30 yards and two more touchdowns. Six different rushers ultimately totaled 315 yards.

Trailing 21-3 after halftime, the Nittany Lions would fight back into the game at the start of the second half, as they covered 78 yards on just three plays for a touchdown. Quarterback Christian Hackenberg threw a 56-yard pass to Chris Godwin to flip the field from the Penn State 22 to the Ohio State 22 on the first play, and then Barkley rushed for 14 yards to the 8, setting up a quick strike to DaeSean Hamilton along the right sideline, on which he broke tackles and leapt into the end zone to reduce Ohio State's lead to 21-10.

It was Hackenberg's 40th career touchdown pass, giving him sole possession of No. 6 all-time at Penn State.

Godwin finished with three catches for 103 yards, while Hamilton caught his 100th and 101st receptions to become the 13th player all-time at Penn State to reach 100 career completions.

The score would prove to be the only one of the quarter and Penn State's last. Ohio State would score on each of three drives in the fourth quarter to put the game out of reach, kicking a 39-yard field goal with 12:54 remaining before Barrett completed touchdown passes to Braxton Miller (6:25 remaining) and Michael Thomas (4:14).

Field position was a factor in the game, as Penn State was pinned inside its own 10 four times and inside its own 20 a total of six times out of 12 offensive drives. Its best drive start came at its own 35. Ohio State had four drive starts in Penn State territory and started inside its own 20 just twice.

The nation's sack leader, Carl Nassib, led the Penn State defense with 1.5 sacks and 3.5 tackles for loss, also tying for second on the team with eight tackles. The Lions totaled 10.0 tackles-for-loss to mark its fourth game with at least 9.0 TFLs. It was also the most surrendered by Ohio State this season. Joey Bosa led Ohio State with seven tackles, a sack and 3.0 TFLs.

GAME RECAPS

BALTIMORE - Penn State quarterback Christian Hackenberg threw for 315 yards and three touchdowns on just 13 completions to lead the Nittany Lions past Maryland, 31-30, in a wild game Saturday in M&T Bank Stadium, home of the NFL's Baltimore Ravens.

Penn State became bowl eligible with the win and extended its dominance over the Terrapins to 36-2-1 all-time.

Hackenberg became the school record holder for career completions (608) and yards passing (7,453), surpassing Zach Mills in both.

Penn State went ahead for good early in the fourth quarter when Geno Lewis made a spectacular 27-yard touchdown reception. All three of Hackenberg's touchdown tosses came from long range, as Chris Godwin pulled in a 37-yard score for a 14-13 lead late in the first half, and DaeSean Hamilton caught a 20-yard completion for a 24-20 lead with 5:32 remaining in the third quarter. Godwin totaled 96 yards on five receptions, while Hamilton totaled 135 on four.

Maryland quarterback Perry Hills threw for 225 yards and a touchdown on 19-of-28 passing and rushed for 124 yards and a touchdown on 26 attempts, but was picked off three times and lost a fumble.

Safety Malik Golden nabbed his first career interception on Maryland's final drive of the game to seal the victory. Defensive end Garrett Sickels came up with his second fumble recovery of the season - and his career - in the fourth quarter and returned it 36 yards. Cornerback Grant Haley grabbed his second interception of the season and third career to end Maryland's first drive of the game. Cornerback John Reid forced his first career fumble and safety Marcus Allen made his first career fumble recovery in Penn State territory on Maryland's third possession of the game.

Defensive tackle Austin Johnson tied his career high with nine tackles, marking the third time this season he has recorded nine stops. Troy Reeder posted a career-high 11 tackles to lead Penn State in the category.

The Nittany Lions forced a season-high five turnovers for a total of 17 this season and recorded 11.0 tackles-for-loss.

GAME NOTES

- Earning its sixth win of the season, Penn State becomes bowl eligible. The Lions have appeared in 45 bowl games in program history, tied for ninth-highest among FBS schools at the start of the season.
- Head coach James Franklin is now 5-for-5 in leading teams to bowl eligibility as a head coach.
- Penn State is now 36-2-1 all-time vs. Maryland with a 3-0-1 record in neutral site games.
- The Nittany Lions are now 17-0-1 in games played away from home against the Terrapins.
- James Franklin is 6-4 in games decided by seven points or fewer at PSU (2-0 this year).
- The one-point victory was the first one-point win in a regular season game, as well as a Big Ten game, since 2006 at Minnesota (28-27 in OT).
- It was the first one-point victory in regulation in a regular season game since a 16-15 victory over Minnesota in 1997.
- The Nittany Lions forced a season-high five turnovers for a total of 17 this season. Penn State has scored 48 points off turnovers (6 TD, 2 FG).
- Penn State's 17 turnovers forced include 10 fumble recoveries and seven interceptions.
- The five turnovers the most forced by Penn State since forcing five against Temple on Nov. 15, 2014.
- Penn State's three interceptions are the most in a single game since picking off Rutgers five times in the Big Ten opener last season on Sept. 13.
- Penn State has recorded at least five tackles for loss in 15 consecutive games. The Nittany Lions recorded 11.0 tackles-for-loss vs. Maryland, including 4.0 sacks.
- The 15-game streak with 5.0 or more TFLs is the longest since a 15-game string from 2001-03.
- The Nittany Lions recorded 11.0 tackles-for-loss to mark the fifth game this season with at least 9.0 TFLs in a game.
- The Nittany Lions have recorded at least one sack in 30 consecutive games, which is the longest streak since a 30-game streak from 2007-09.
- Penn State is now 24-of-27 in the red zone this season with 14 touchdowns and 10 field goals after going 2-of-2 with two touchdowns vs. Maryland.

GAME RECAPS

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - The Penn State defense limited Illinois to just 167 yards of offense and quarterback Christian Hackenberg threw for two touchdowns and caught another as the Nittany Lions cruised to a 39-0 victory over the Fighting Illini. The shutout was Penn State's first since 2013 and first in the Big Ten since 2009.

Penn State improved to 7-2 overall and 4-1 in the Big Ten for first time since 2012, and its margin of victory was the largest against a Big Ten opponent in a shutout since a 49-0 win vs. Northwestern in 2002. It was also Penn State's largest win in a Big Ten game since a 41-point win (48-7) at Wisconsin in 2008.

The 167 yards of offense (37 rushing, 130 passing) by Illinois was the fewest allowed by the Nittany Lions this year, and the fewest since holding Minnesota to 138 yards (37 rushing, 101 passing) in 2009. The Fighting Illini entered the game leading the Big Ten in protecting the quarterback, but yielded a season-high four sacks.

Carl Nassib, who entered the game as the national sack leader, extended his own streak to nine games with a second-half sack. Fellow linemen Austin Johnson and Anthony Zettel also recorded a sack. Linebacker Jason Cabinda led the team with seven tackles. Additionally, 10 different Lions totaled nine tackles for loss for the 16th straight game with at least 5.0 TFLs.

Hackenberg set a Penn State record with his 19th career 200-plus yard passing game, totaling 266 yards and two touchdowns after completing 21-of-29 passing attempts. He also caught a 14-yard touchdown pass from running back Nick Scott, and left the game early in the fourth quarter with Penn State comfortably ahead. Hackenberg is the first Penn State quarterback with a touchdown catch since Zack Mills against Akron in 2004. In his last six games, Hackenberg has 12 touchdown passes, one touchdown reception, no interceptions and four games with at least 250 yards passing.

Hackenberg's top targets were Chris Godwin and DaeSean Hamilton. Godwin tied a career best with seven receptions, including one touchdown reception and a total of 76 yards. Hamilton had four catches, giving him 110 for his career and moving him into a tie with Bryant Johnson for ninth place at Penn State.

Running back Saquon Barkley led the game with 142 all-purpose yards, rushing 20 times for 84 yards and a touchdown, while also catching a career-high three passes for a career-best 58 yards.

Defensive back Clayton Fejedelem led Illinois with 13 tackles, a forced fumble and a blocked extra point. Quarterback Wes Lunt was held to 129 yards on 16-of-37 passing with one interception.

Penn State found the end zone on its second drive for the game's first score. A career long 31-yard reception by DeAndre Thompkins moved the Nittany Lions into Illini territory, and a 19-yard reception by Barkley advanced the Lions to the Illinois 6. After a pair of rushes placed the ball on the 5, Hackenberg zipped a pass through traffic over the middle to Godwin with 5:52 remaining in the quarter. The extra point try was blocked.

Lunt was intercepted at midfield on Illinois' ensuing possession by Troy Reeder. It was the first pick of Reeder's career and he returned it 44 yards to the Illinois 6. On the first play of the ensuing drive, Hackenberg lofted a pass to Lewis along the left sideline in the end zone, and Lewis leapt, pulled it down and got one foot in bounds for the touchdown. The extra point was blocked again though, giving Penn State a 12-0 lead with 4:16 remaining in the first quarter.

Penn State forced an Illinois punt and drove into Illini territory early in the second quarter, but Thompkins was stripped of the football, ending the drive at the Illinois 37. Both teams would trade punts though until Tyler Davis converted a 42-yard field goal with 4:16 remaining in the half. Penn State would take a 15-0 lead into the locker room.

The Nittany Lions would receive the kickoff to start the second half and Koa Farmer returned it from the end zone a career-long 57 yards to the Illinois 43, setting up a seven-play touchdown drive. The Lions converted a pair of third-and-longs on the drive as Hackenberg connected with Hamilton on 16-yard pass on third-and-10 from the 43, and again on a 19-yard pass on third-and-16 from the 33.

The latter set up a 14-yard touchdown pass by Scott to Hackenberg, who rolled out down the left sideline, wide open after handing off to Scott. It gave Penn State a 22-0 lead with 11:18 remaining in the third quarter and was the first reception by a Nittany Lion quarterback since Matt McGloin had a 16-yard catch from Curtis Drake against Nebraska in 2011, and the first touchdown reception by a quarterback since Zack Mills had an 18-yard touchdown reception from Michael Robinson in the 2004 season opener against Akron.

Davis added a 28-yard field goal with 3:56 remaining in the quarter for a 25-0 lead, and Barkley capped a seven-play, 80-yard touchdown drive with a 7-yard scoring run after hurdling Illinois defenders and losing a shoe at the goal line.

Mark Allen added a career-long 20-yard touchdown run with 6:33 remaining for the final margin.

GAME RECAPS

EVANSTON, Ill. - Defensive end Carl Nassib set Penn State's single-season sack record with No. 15.5 of the year and Penn State rallied from a 13-point deficit to take the lead in the fourth quarter, but a 35-yard field goal by Jack Mitchell with nine seconds remaining gave Northwestern a 23-21 victory over the Nittany Lions, Saturday in Ryan Field.

Trailing 13-0 in the second quarter, Saquon Barkley scored the first of two touchdowns on the day from seven yards out, but Solomon Vault returned the kickoff for a touchdown. It was the last score for the Wildcats until Mitchell's game-winning kick.

A gadget play by the Nittany Lions cut the deficit to six with 5:04 remaining in the third quarter, as quarterback Christian Hackenberg pitched the ball to wide receiver Geno Lewis, who threw a perfect 32-yard pass to DaeSean Hamilton for a touchdown.

Barkley Put the Lions ahead for the first time with 13:22 remaining, and he finished the day with 120 yards rushing on 25 carries and catching six passes for 50 more yards. Hackenberg went 21-of-40 passing for 205 yards with an interception, his first in 203 consecutive passing attempts. Wide receiver Chris Godwin had eight catches for 104 yards to lead all in the game.

Northwestern quarterback Zack Oliver entered the game in relief and threw for a touchdown and ran for another. He completed 11-of-24 passing attempts for 111 yards, also throwing an interception. Running back Justin Jackson was a catalyst for Northwestern rushing for 186 yards on 28 attempts.

The Penn State defense posted 10.0 tackles for loss, marking the seventh time this season and fourth straight game they recorded nine or more TFLs. Nassib also forced his sixth fumble of the season, the most forced by a Penn Stater since Michael Haynes forced seven in 2002. Defensive tackle Austin Johnson posted a career-high 10 tackles.

GAME NOTES

- Penn State has recorded at least five tackles for loss in 18 consecutive games.
- The defense posted 10.0 tackles for loss, marking the seventh time this season and fourth straight game they recorded nine or more TFLs.
- The Nittany Lions have recorded at least one sack in 32 consecutive games.
- Penn State has 10 straight games with at least 2.0 sacks, the longest active streak in the Big Ten and tied for No. 2 in the FBS.
- The Nittany Lions have allowed only 21 points in the first quarter in 10 games in 2015.
- Penn State had scored first in 10 consecutive games, dating to the Michigan State game last year.
- The last season Penn State had two non-quarterbacks attempt passes in a season was 2011 (Bill Belton and Curtis Drake). RB Nick Scott and WR Geno Lewis have completed TD passes this season.
- DE Carl Nassib broke the Penn State single season sack record with a solo sack early in the fourth quarter, giving him 15.5 sacks this season. The old record of 15.0 was held by Larry Kubin (1979) and Michael Haynes (2002).
- Nassib forced his sixth fumble of the season, the most forced by a Penn Stater since Michael Haynes forced seven in 2002.
- DT Austin Johnson posted a career-high 10 tackles. His previous best was nine stops, which he accomplished three times, most recently against Maryland on Oct. 24, 2015.
- RB Saquon Barkley surpassed 100 rushing yards for the fourth time this season, which ranks No. 2 in a season for a Penn State true freshman. D.J. Dozier had five in 1983.
- Barkley's seven rushing touchdowns this season are tied for the lead by a Penn State freshman. D.J. Dozier also had seven in 1983. Barkley had two rushing TD vs. Northwestern.
- On the true freshman rushing yards list, Barkley ranks second with 836 yards, passing Eric McCoo's 822 yards in 1998. Dozier tops the list with 1,002
- Barkley set a career-best with six catches, going for 50 yards.

GAME RECAPS

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - It was Senior Day inside of a Whited Out Beaver Stadium, but the Penn State football team couldn't produce enough offense to topple Michigan in a 28-16 setback. There were 19 seniors honored prior to playing in their final home game in front of 107,418 white-clad supporters on a sun-splashed day inside of the nation's second-largest stadium.

Junior quarterback Christian Hackenberg threw for 137 yards with one touchdown pass. His lone touchdown toss was to Saeed Blacknall and pushed him into a tie atop Penn State's career passing touchdowns list with the 46th in his career. He is now tied with Matt McGloin, who threw 46 scoring strikes from 2009-12.

Hackenberg also became the first Nittany Lion quarterback to surpass the 8,000-yard passing mark, and in the process moved into the top spot on the career total yards ledger.

Brandon Bell grabbed his first interception of the season and second of his career midway through the first quarter. He returned the pick 25 yards to the Michigan 40. In the third quarter, Bell forced his fourth career fumble and recovered the ball at the UM 42, which eventually led to a 24-yard field goal from Tyler Davis.

Davis was successful on a career-high three field goals in the game. He connected on all three tries, converting from 23, 24 and 18 yards in the game.

Junior tight end Brent Wilkerson set a career high with three receptions, accounting for 16 yards. Sophomore Chris Godwin also caught three passes, logging 51 yards, and moved into the top 20 in career receiving yardage with 1,180. Godwin also moved into a tie for No. 9 on the single season receptions list with his 52nd catch of the season, earning him a tie with Bobby Engram (1994).

Defensively, junior Malik Golden - wearing No. 9 to honor injured senior safety Jordan Lucas - posted a career-high with eight stops. It is the second straight game Golden eclipsed his career-high, logging six stops at Northwestern Nov. 7. Sophomore Marcus Allen also registered a career high in the tackles column with 12 stops. He had collected 11 tackles on three occasions.

Penn State scored first for the 11th time in its last 12 games after Saquon Barkley broke off a 56-yard rush to move the Nittany Lions down to the Michigan 9-yard line. After three run plays netted three yards, Davis connected on a 23-yard field goal to push Penn State ahead early, 3-0.

Michigan responded with a six-play, 73-yard drive that was capped by a 26-yard touchdown pass from Jake Rudock to Jake Butt. Along with the touchdown pass, Rudock found Jehu Chesson for two completions, gaining seven and 39 yards, respectively.

The two teams remained scoreless until the 2:01 mark of the second quarter when Penn State logged its own six-play touchdown drive, this one covering 43 yards in 2:04. Hackenberg completed passes for five, nine and four yards to set up the scoring strike to Blacknall. On third-and-6 from the UM 29-yard line, Hackenberg threw a pass into the right corner of the south end zone that Blacknall came back to and made the jumping catch to push Penn State back in front, 10-7.

The lead didn't last long, as Michigan marched 70 yards on seven plays to recapture the lead, 14-10, with under one minute to play in the opening half. The Wolverines used passes of 26, 11 and 18 yards to move down to the Penn State 11-yard line. Rudock then found Amara Darboh on a wide receiver screen for an 11-yard score.

A muffed punt by Penn State helped the Wolverines build a 21-10 lead with 6:07 left in the third quarter. After Michigan took over at the Penn State 9-yard line, they used a six-yard gain by Jabrill Peppers and a two-yard rush by De'Veon Smith set up third-and-goal from the PSU one. Sione Houma took the handoff on third down and bulled his way into the end zone for the score.

Bell was the catalyst on Penn State's third scoring drive of the game, coming away with a sack-fumble of Rudock, a fumble which he recovered at the Michigan 42. After gaining just one yard on the first three plays of the drive, Hackenberg found Godwin streaking down the middle of the field. Godwin made the catch at the 20-yard line and drug a pair of Michigan defenders down to the UM three. The Lions were unable to find the end zone on the first three plays of the fourth quarter and Davis connected on his second field goal of the day, this one from 24 yards.

The Nittany Lions marched 62 yards on 10 plays to draw within five points on another Davis field goal, this time from 18 yards out. On the drive, Hackenberg rushed for 17 yards on a big third-and-14 play to keep the drive alive. He then found Barkley for a 14-yard catch-and-run, before Brandon Polk rushed for five yards to take the ball inside the UM 2-yard line. After an incomplete pass in the end zone, Davis came on to convert his third kick of the day.

The final scoring drive came from the visiting sideline on the next drive. After a 55-yard return of the kickoff by Jourdan Lewis, Michigan benefitted from a pass interference call and Peppers ran for five yards to take the ball down to the Penn State 1-yard line. From there, Smith drove over the pile for the 1-yard rushing touchdown and a 28-16 lead for Michigan.

EAST LANSING, Mich. - Penn State gained 418 yards of offense, Chris Godwin caught a career-high 11 passes, Christian Hackenberg set the school's career record for touchdown passes and Saquon Barkley became the Nittany Lions all-time leading freshman rusher, but turnovers proved costly as No. 5 Michigan State claimed the regular season finale, 55-16, Saturday in Spartan Stadium.

Hackenberg completed 22-of-39 passes for 257 yards and two touchdowns, but was intercepted twice, including in the end zone on the team's first possession. Michigan State was able score a touchdown on the ensuing drive, and later Demetrious Cox returned a fumble 77 yards for a touchdown and 20-3 lead late in the first half. Godwin caught an 8-yard touchdown reception with 35 seconds remaining in the half, but that was as close as Penn State would come.

Godwin finished with 11 catches for 109 yards and two touchdowns. His second score would come at the start of the fourth quarter to make it 34-16, but Michigan State added three more touchdowns, including an interception return of 13 yards for a touchdown by Malik McDowell.

DaeSean Hamilton added eight catches for 78 yards. Barkley rushed for 103 yards on 17 carries, giving him a freshman-record 1,007 for the season.

Hackenberg's two touchdown passes gave him 48 for his career, making him the sole record holder at Penn State.

Safety Malik Golden made a career-high nine tackles after setting a career high of eight the previous week against Michigan. Freshman linebacker Manny Bowen forced his first career fumble in the fourth quarter and defensive tackle Tarow Barney had his first career fumble recovery on the same play. Barney was made his first career start, becoming the 14th Nittany Lion to make his first career start this season. Defensive backs John Reid and Troy Apke tied their career highs for tackles with five each.

The Nittany Lions were held without a sack for the first time since the UCF game in 2013.

GAME NOTES

- Penn State played in Spartan Stadium for the first time since 2009.
- The Spartans lead the series, 15-14-1. The teams next meet Nov. 26, 2016 in Beaver Stadium.
- The Nittany Lions have faced three consecutive opponents ranked in the Nov. 24 CFP Top 25 (Northwestern, Michigan, Michigan State).
- Penn State has allowed 35 first quarter points in 12 games, an average of 2.92 points per game.
- MSU's Demetrious Cox returned a fumble 77 yards for a score. The last time a Penn State opponent returned a fumble for a touchdown was Michigan's Frank Clark, 24 yards in 2013.
- QB Christian Hackenberg's 8-yard TD pass to Chris Godwin in the second quarter was the 47th of his career to break the Penn State record he shared with Matt McGloin. His second TD pass to Godwin gave him 48 TD passes.
- Sophomore WR Chris Godwin grabbed multiple TD catches in a game for the first time in his career.
- Godwin made a career-high (11) catches. His previous high was eight at Northwestern on Nov. 7.
- Sophomore WR Saeed Blacknall's 59-yard catch in the third quarter was a career long and Penn State's longest completion of the season.
- True freshman RB Saquon Barkley turned in his fifth 100-yard rushing performance of the season with 103 yards. He is tied with D.J. Dozier (1983) for the most 100-yard rushing performances by a true freshman.
- Barkley also broke Dozier's freshman season (true or redshirt) rushing record after bringing his season total to 1,007 yards.
- Safety Malik Golden made a career-high (9) tackles. His previous high was eight vs. Michigan.
- Anthony Zettel started at DE for the first time since the 2013 season.
- DT Tarow Barney made his first career start, becoming the 14th Nittany Lion to make his first career start this season.
- Freshman LB Manny Bowen forced his first career fumble in the fourth quarter and Barney had his first career fumble recovery on the same play.
- Bowen's forced fumble was the 19th of the season for the Nittany Lions.
- The Nittany Lions were held without a sack for the first time since the UCF game in 2013.

GAME RECAPS

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. - Facing a 21-point deficit in the third quarter, Penn State rallied to come within a touchdown of Georgia, but the Nittany Lions ran out of time as the Bulldogs held on, 24-17, to win the 71st annual TaxSlayer Bowl Saturday afternoon in EverBank Field. Penn State wide receiver Chris Godwin became the school's career leader in bowl receiving yards and just the second to surpass 1,100 receiving yards in a season.

Leading 24-17, Georgia (10-3) tried to ice the game with less than two minutes remaining by going for it on fourth-and-2 from the Penn State 23. Jason Cabinda and Garrett Sickels stuffed Georgia's Keith Marshall for a 2-yard loss, giving the Nittany Lions (7-6) a chance to tie the game with a touchdown and extra point with 1:52 remaining.

Redshirt freshman quarterback Trace McSorley, who entered the game midway through the second quarter after quarterback Christian Hackenberg left with an injury, led the Nittany Lions to the Georgia 39 with eight seconds remaining, but his Hail Mary pass attempt was batted down near the goal line.

McSorley finished completing 14-of-27 pass attempts for 142 yards and two touchdowns while also rushing seven times for 31 yards. Running back Saquon Barkley totaled 69 yards on 17 carries.

Godwin caught six passes for 133 yards, giving the sophomore 273 receiving yards between the 2014 Pinstripe and 2016 TaxSlayer Bowls for a new school record. He finished the season with 1,101 receiving yards, ranking second only to Allen Robinson's 2013 effort (1,432 yards).

Georgia took a 24-3 lead on a Sony Michel touchdown run with 4:15 remaining in the third quarter, but the Lions started their rally on the next drive, scoring their first touchdown on the first play of the fourth quarter on fourth down, capping a 10-play, 75-yard touchdown drive. A 21-yard completion to Godwin on third-and-6 moved the Lions to midfield and a 29-yard rush by Barkley to the Georgia 15 set up the drive. Facing fourth-and-7 though, a false start penalty backed PSU to the 17, but McSorley found Geno Lewis just inside the right sideline in the end zone following the final quarter break.

Both teams would punt and Penn State forced another Bulldog punt before finding the end zone again. A 20-yard run by Barkley started the seven-play drive, and a leaping catch by DaeSean Hamilton for a 20-yard touchdown capped it with 6:14 remaining.

Georgia was able to run 4:15 off the clock on its ensuing possession, and withstood Penn State's final rally.

Hackenberg completed 8-of-14 passing attempts for 139 yards with one interception before leaving the game. He threw for 510 yards in his two bowl games, good for No. 3 on the Penn State career bowl list.

In addition to his touchdown, Hamilton caught five passes for 71 yards. Penn State outgained Georgia, 401-327 in total offense.

Linebacker Brandon Bell led the defense with 11 tackles, while Austin Johnson and Anthony Zettel each recorded a sack.

Penn State received the opening kickoff and advanced from its own 17 into Georgia territory with three consecutive double-digit passing completions by Hackenberg. The drive stalled after a pair of runs for no gain, and Hackenberg was intercepted by Dominick Sanders on a short pass under pressure that bounced off Barkley's hands on third and 18.

The Bulldogs started at their own 47 and gained 26 yards on seven plays to set up a successful 44-yard field goal attempt with 7:02 remaining in the first quarter.

The remainder of the quarter would be scoreless as both teams would punt on their next three possessions.

Godwin set up a field goal drive in the second quarter with big receptions of 19 and 51 yards. The 51-yarder moved Penn State to the Georgia 18. Tyler Davis converted a 34 yard field goal with 8:08 remaining in the half.

Georgia answered in just three plays on its next drive though. McKenzie broke a 26-yard run to the Penn State 46 on the first play, and then following a 2-yard rush by Michel, wide receiver Terry Godwin threw deep to Malcolm Mitchell on a trick play for a 44-yard touchdown with 6:46 remaining in the half.

The Nittany Lions went three-and-out and failed to convert on a fake punt, giving Georgia the ball on the Penn State 46. Both teams traded three-and-outs again, giving the Bulldogs the ball at their own 42 with 1:54 remaining in the half. They drove 58 yards in seven plays for a touchdown, as Lambert capped the drive with a 17-yard touchdown pass to Terry Godwin with 24 seconds remaining in the half for a 17-3 lead.

Both teams punted following their first drives of the second half. McKenzie returned Penn State's punt 37 yards to the Penn State 23, to setup Georgia's second drive of the half, but a sack by Anthony Zettel backed the Bulldogs to the 31, forcing a 48-yard field goal attempt that sailed wide left.

A 19-yard completion to Godwin on third down moved the Lions into Bulldog territory, but Penn State turned the ball over on downs at the 44. Michel then capped a seven-play, 56-yard touchdown drive with a 21-yard scoring run with 4:15 remaining in the third quarter.

BOWL RECAPS

Penn State fought a gallant fight, but Southern California was just too strong in a 14-3 victory in the 1923 Rose Bowl, the Nittany Lions' first post-season game. The Trojans bounced back from an early 3-0 Penn State lead to post the win.

The 29-member Penn State travel party departed State College by train on December 19 and, after stops in Chicago and the Grand Canyon, arrived in Pasadena on Christmas Eve. The morning of the game, the team took in the Tournament of Roses Parade, then returned to its hotel. The Lions left in several taxi cabs at 11 a.m. for the Rose Bowl, but as the 2:15 p.m. kickoff approached, the team was mired in post-parade traffic. Only after the cabbies drove over the lawns of local residents did the Penn State contingent finally reach the Rose Bowl.

When the team arrived, they found kickoff had already been delayed by 10 minutes. Penn State coach Hugo Bezdek and USC coach "Gloomy Gus" Henderson almost came to blows as the Lions' skipper successfully lobbied game officials for additional warmup time. The game finally started an hour late and ended in moonlight, with sportswriters lighting matches in order to finish their stories. Even with the 60-minute delay, many of the 43,000 spectators did not reach their seats until the second quarter.

Penn State took an early 3-0 lead on Mike Palm's 20-yard drop-kick field goal, but Roy "Bullet" Baker rushed for 123 yards and one touchdown for the Trojans and the Lions were held to five first downs and 104 yards. Penn State's share of the proceeds — $21,349.64 — was directed toward the $2 million Emergency Building Fund and in particular the construction of Varsity Hall (now Irvin Hall).

1948 COTTON: January 1, 1948

Penn State climaxed a 25-year climb back to national prominence with a 13-13 tie against Southern Methodist in the Cotton Bowl. Unheralded quarterback Elwood Petchel matched SMU All-American Doak Walker yard-for-yard as the Lions rallied from 13-0 back and had several chances to win the game.

Petchel threw for scores in the second and third quarters and nearly had a third at the end of the game, when a defender tipped away the ball at the last second. In the third quarter the Lions tied the game at 13 and Ed Czekaj's PAT kick appeared to be good, but was ruled no good by a hesitating referee. The Lions outgained SMU 258 to 206, but two lost fumbles hurt their chances. Petchel completed seven of 15 passes for 165 yards and two touchdowns. Fran Rogel gained 95 yards on 25 carries, easily out-rushing Walker.

Because two Lions, Wally Triplett and Dennie Hoggard, were African-American, none of the Dallas hotels would allow the team to stay in their facilities, forcing the squad to stay at a Naval Air Station 14 miles from Dallas.

Coach Bob Higgins' squad finished 9-0-1, won its first Lambert Trophy and was No. 4 in the Associated Press poll.

1959 LIBERTY: December 19, 1959

Coach Rip Engle took the advice of veteran bowl participant Bobby Dodd of Georgia Tech and installed some new plays to keep his Penn State team busy for the 1959 Liberty Bowl. That advice paid off as Penn State scored on a fake field goal play to upend Alabama, 7-0, in the inaugural Liberty Bowl in Philadelphia. The play came in the final seconds of the first half with Galen Hall passing 18 yards to Roger Kochman for the score. Game conditions at Municipal Stadium (later renamed JFK Stadium) were less than ideal and Penn State's defense made the points stand up.

Directed by quarterback Richie Lucas, the Maxwell Award winner and Heisman Trophy runnerup, the Lions' offense completely dominated the game, outgaining Coach Bear Bryant's Crimson Tide 319 to 131, including a 278 to 104 edge on the ground. The victory was the first bowl win for the Nittany Lions, improving their post-season mark to 1-1-1. Penn State has not been below the .500 mark in bowl games since the historic win.

Penn State's second team — the "Reddie" unit — proved the value of depth as the Nittany Lions rolled over Oregon, 41-12, for their second straight Liberty Bowl win in as many years. Twenty-one unanswered points in the second quarter gave the Lions a lead they would not relinquish on a cold, windy day in Philadelphia.

Oregon's long first-quarter TD drive produced an early lead, but quarterback Dick Hoak and his second unit marched for two scores, while quarterback Galen Hall led another in the second quarter for a 21-6 halftime bulge. The Ducks scored in the third quarter, but again the Reddie unit produced three TDs in the fourth quarter. Hoak enjoyed an outstanding day on defense as well as running and passing on offense. He ran for 61 yards and two scores on nine carries; and completed three of five passes for 67 yards and a TD strike.

It was the running game that was the difference as the Lions outgained Oregon 301 to 187 and 420 to 360 overall. The 420 yards of total offense was a school bowl record until 1975. The Lions also forced four turnovers.

Penn State justified its selection as the Lambert Trophy winner with a decisive 30-15 victory over Georgia Tech, notching its third straight bowl victory in as many years in its first post-season game in the South. Despite three early-season losses, the Lions downed the Yellow Jackets, who had allowed only 4.4 points a game, registering four shutouts.

Galen Hall threw three touchdown passes as Penn State rallied from a 9-0 deficit. The Nittany Lion defenders caused five turnovers and took advantage of a misfired fake punt and an interception to put the game away with 10 fourth-quarter points. All-America end Dave Robinson made a stunning play midway through the third quarter and with the Lions leading 14-9, leaping over two blockers and forcing quarterback Stan Gann to fumble, which Robinson recovered at the Jackets' 35-yard line. Hall struck quickly, tossing a 35-yard scoring strike to Junior Powell.

The Jackets carried the day statistically (outgaining Penn State 412 to 313), but special teams play for Penn State was critical as Yellow Jacket errors and a superb Lion punting game (eight punts for a 41.0 yard average) helped offset Georgia Tech's rushing game. Hall was superb, hitting 12 of 22 passes for 175 yards and three touchdowns to earn game MVP honors.

Penn State posted a 9-1 regular-season in 1962, losing by three points at Army, and was ranked No. 9 in the final Associated Press poll, earning its second straight Lambert Trophy. But, the Lions were snubbed from a New Year's Day bowl and accepted an invitation to play in the Gator Bowl for the second consecutive year, facing unranked, 6-4 Florida.

The Lions managed only eight first downs and 147 yards and lost to the Gators, 17-7. Except for a 76-yard touchdown march culminated by Pete Liske's one-yard TD run in the second period, Rip Engle's squad didn't slightly resemble the offensive terror that had swept its last six games, scoring 164 points in the process.

Florida quarterback Tommy Shannon completed seven of nine passes for 79 yards and two scores and mixed his plays to befuddle the big Penn State defense. The Gators added the longest field goal in Gator Bowl history and forced five turnovers to snap the Lions' two-game bowl winning streak.

The best experience of this post-season may have been the squad's trip to the White House where they gave President John F. Kennedy a Nittany Lion statue. The Lions practiced for more than a week at the U.S. Naval Academy before encountering difficult travel from Harrisburg to Jacksonville, having to bus to Pittsburgh and land in Orlando due to poor weather conditions in Pennsylvania and Florida.

Penn State led for 59 minutes and 45 seconds, but Florida State rallied from a 17-0 deficit and kicked a field goal with 15 seconds remaining to earn a 17-17 tie in the Gator Bowl.

The Nittany Lions did all their scoring in the first half, thanks largely to quarterback Tom Sherman. He kicked a 27-yard field goal in the first period and then threw touchdown passes to Jack Curry and Ted Kwalick for a 17-0 bulge at halftime.

Early in the second half, the Lions stopped the Seminoles on downs at the Penn State five-yard line. Three rushes by Charlie Pittman appeared to give Penn State a first down, but the measurement came up six inches short. In his first bowl game as head coach, Joe Paterno decided to go for it, but Sherman's fourth-down sneak was short. Florida State quarterback Kim Hammond tossed a 20-yard scoring pass to Ron Sellers soon after to swing the momentum. Hammond was 37-of-53 passing for 362 yards, with four interceptions, while Sellers had 14 receptions for 145 yards.

After the game, Paterno told the Philadelphia Inquirer, "I may be rationalizing, but in the long run that fourth-down call may be the best thing I ever did for Penn State football."

1969 ORANGE: January 1, 1969

"There was no way Penn State could win...The last two minutes were pure unadulterated insanity." — Pittsburgh Press

The Nittany Lions posted perhaps the school's most dramatic victory with an unbelievable 15-14 win over sixth-ranked Kansas in the 1969 Orange Bowl. In the final 1:16 seconds of the game, Penn State turned what appeared to be a Jayhawk victory into an incredible cap to an 11-0 season and the No. 2 national ranking.

With Kansas leading, 14-7, with 10 minutes to play, Jayhawk coach Pepper Rodgers passed on a field goal from the Penn State five-yard line and running back John Riggins was stopped on fourth-and-one by Paul and Pete Johnson, keeping the Lions within a touchdown.

The game took on legendary status in the last two minutes after Penn State was forced to punt. The Lions had all three timeouts left and used them well. After tackle Mike Reid dropped quarterback Bobby Douglass for 13 yards in losses on consecutive plays of Kansas' final offensive series, Penn State helped its cause when Neal Smith partially blocked the punt, providing one last opportunity from the 50 yard-line with 1:16 left. Quarterback Chuck Burkhart connected with Bob Campbell on a 47-yard pass to the Kansas three, just as Kansas running back Donnie Shanklin was being announced as the game MVP. After fullback Tom Cherry tried the middle twice, Burkhart faked a handoff to Charlie Pittman and carried around the left end for the touchdown with just eight seconds remaining.

Never one fond of ties, Joe Paterno elected to go for the win, but Burkhart's two-point pass to Campbell was knocked away and the Kansas players began to celebrate with fans who were coming onto the field. But, a penalty had been called on the Jayhawks for 12 men on the field and, as game films would later reveal, Kansas had 12 men on the field for four plays, including Burkhart's touchdown. Presented with a second opportunity, this time from the one-and-a-half-yard line, Campbell swept around the left side and into the end zone for the scintillating 15-14 victory as Penn State became the first Eastern school to win the Orange Bowl since 1937.

If ever a defense won a bowl game, it happened in the 1970 Orange Bowl as Penn State repeatedly slammed the door on Missouri's highly-touted offense for a 10-3 victory. It was a superlative performance by the Lion defenders as they led Penn State to its second straight Orange Bowl victory, its 22nd straight win and its 30th consecutive game without defeat.

But, a second straight 11-0 campaign again earned the Lions the No. 2 national ranking, not their first National Championship. Having already voted to play in the Orange Bowl, the fifth-ranked Lions saw No. 1 Ohio State lose to Michigan, leaving the winner between unbeaten Texas and Arkansas as the likely new No. 1. President Richard Nixon was in attendance in Austin and after the Longhorns' 15-14 win, declared Texas national champions, much to the chagrin and outrage of Joe Paterno, his squad and Nittany Lion fans.

With the controversy about Number One still being debated, the Nittany Lion defense was outstanding in stopping the Big Eight champions. Nineteen times the powerful Missouri offense got possession of the ball and nine times the Lion defenders forced a turnover, intercepting seven passes and recovering two fumbles. The seven interceptions remain an Orange Bowl record, bettering the six turned in by Georgia against TCU in the 1942 contest, as well as being tied for the second-highest ever for any bowl game.

All of Penn State's scoring came within a 21-second span late in the first quarter, with Mike Reitz kicking a 29-yard field goal with 3:44 remaining and Chuck Burkhart passing moments later to Lydell Mitchell for a 28-yard touchdown. The second score was set up after All-American Mike Reid jarred the ball loose from Missouri's Joe Moore on the kickoff and Mike Smith recovered the fumble. Burkhart completed 11 of 26 passes for 187 yards to earn Most Valuable Back honors, while Reid was chosen Most Valuable Lineman.

Missouri connected on a 33-yard field goal late in the first half and reached the Penn State 14-yard line with 1:42 to play. But, George Landis grabbed his second interception of the game at the two and the Lions remained unbeaten in their 30th straight game, tying the school mark set from 1920-22.

Stung by a season-ending loss at Tennessee, Penn State looked at the 1972 Cotton Bowl as an opportunity to redeem itself and make a statement to the college football nation. With the No. 1 snub of 1969 not far removed, the game with Texas would provide a great opportunity for the Nittany Lions to earn some national respect. In what some considered a "must" win for the rising national powerhouse, Penn State blitzed highly-touted Texas, 30-6, for its third straight major bowl victory.

Neither team was able to do much in a sluggish first half that wound up with Texas holding a 6-3 edge. The Longhorns had moved the ball from their famed Wishbone offense early in the contest, but the Penn State defense began to take control as the game wore on. The second half was all Penn State. The Lions took the lead for the first time early in the third quarter after Charlie Zapiec recovered a fumble at the Texas 41-yard line. A 19-yard run by Lydell Mitchell and a 19-yard pass from John Hufnagel to tight end Bob Parsons helped the Lions reach the Texas one. Mitchell followed a block by All-American Dave Joyner for the game's first touchdown.

The game-breaker came the next time the Lions got the ball. On second down from their 35-yard line, Hufnagel faked to Mitchell and lofted a pass to split end Scott Skarzynski dashing alone down the right sideline for a 17-6 lead. Alberto Vitiello added two more field goals and Hufnagel scored on a four-yard run, as the Lions controlled the ball for 13 minutes in the fourth quarter.

Defensive end Bruce Bannon was voted the Outstanding Defensive Player-of-the-Game, although it was a team effort that held the Longhorns to 242 yards and without a touchdown for the first time in 80 games. Mitchell was an overwhelming choice as the game's Outstanding Offensive Player, as the All-American capped his brilliant career with 146 yards in 27 carries and one score.

"It is one of the greatest victories in Penn State history," stated a joyous Joe Paterno. "I don't think we've ever had a game that we had to win more than this one."

1972 SUGAR: December 31, 1972

Penn State was matched against one of the nation's top teams in the 1972 Sugar Bowl on New Year's Eve, and while battling No. 2 Oklahoma throughout the game, fell 14-0, snapping a three-game bowl win streak.

The game did not get off to a good start when the Lions learned just hours before kickoff that leading rusher John Cappelletti had a virus and a 102-degree temperature and would be unable to play. Without Cappelletti's ball-control running, the defense spent a great deal of time on the field. As it turned out, the Lion defenders did a spectacular job against one of the nation's most explosive offenses, holding the Sooners' Wishbone attack to just 14 points. Oklahoma out-gained Penn State 453 to 196, including 278 to 49 on the ground, but the stingy Lion defense forced eight Sooner fumbles, five of which Penn State recovered.

Several weeks after the game, Oklahoma was discovered to have used two ineligible freshmen players and the NCAA forced the Sooners to forfeit the games the players had participated in. Joe Paterno and school athletic officials refused to accept the win.

Prior to that revelation, Paterno accepted an offer to become the Boston Patriots' head coach and general manager four days after the Sugar Bowl, but changed his mind the following night.

For the third time in six seasons, Penn State found itself in the Orange Bowl attempting to complete a perfect season. And, as they did in the 1969 and 1970 Orange Bowls, the Nittany Lions rose to the occasion. Louisiana State provided stiff competition, but a hard-fought 16-9 win over the Tigers put the finishing touches on Penn State's first 12-0 campaign.

The Tigers took the opening kickoff and quickly scored on a three-yard run by Steve Rogers. The Lion defense made a few adjustments and LSU's only other points came on a safety when Penn State punter Brian Masella downed a bad snap in his own end zone in the third quarter.

Chris Bahr got Penn State on the scoreboard with a 44-yard field goal in the first quarter. The Nittany Lions grabbed control in the second period, sparked by Chuck Herd, who made a brilliant one-hand catch of a Tom Shuman pass on the LSU 20-yard line and ran it in to complete a memorable 72-yard score. The Lions continued their surge moments later when Gary Hayman, the nation's leading punt returner in 1973, returned a punt 36 yards to the LSU 25-yard line. Heisman Trophy winner John Cappelletti vaulted over from one yard out for a 16-7 halftime edge.

Despite being one of only three unbeaten, untied teams entering the bowls, Penn State was ranked No. 5 in the Associated Press poll and the Sugar Bowl matchup between unbeaten Alabama and Notre Dame was being touted as the game for the national title.

Penn State completed a 10-2 season with a record-setting 41-20 victory over Southwest Conference champion Baylor in the Cotton Bowl. Joe Paterno's Nittany Lions came from behind for the fifth time in its 10 wins, erasing a 7-3 halftime deficit with a 38-point second-half explosion for a Cotton Bowl record 41 points.

Quarterback Tom Shuman and fullback Tom Donchez, the mainstays of the offense all season, led the record-breaking efforts. Shuman completed 10 of 20 passes for 226 yards and a touchdown and added 14 yards and another score on the ground. Donchez carried 25 times for 116 yards and a touchdown and caught four passes for 50 yards. Freshman Jimmy Cefalo also contributed greatly to the victory, rushing for 55 yards, catching three passes for 102 yards and scoring two touchdowns.

It was a close game as the third quarter ended, with Penn State holding a 17-14 edge. Three straight scores — a three-yard run by Cefalo, a 33-yard field goal by Chris Bahr and a two-yard run by Shuman — gave the Lions an insurmountable 34-14 lead. Shuman earned his second-straight post-season award, grabbing the Outstanding Offensive Player award as he led Penn State to what still is a school bowl record 491 yards of total offense.

Penn State and Alabama made history in the first Sugar Bowl played in the newly-constructed Louisiana Superdome, with a capacity crowd of 75,212 on hand. The contest also was the first of four meetings between Joe Paterno and Paul "Bear" Bryant, two of only five Division I-A coaches with at least 300 career wins.

The game was typical of the Nittany Lions' 9-3 season, featuring outstanding defense and kicking. Alabama managed the only touchdown of the game, a 14-yard run by Mike Stock in the third quarter, which was enough to allow the Tide to pull out a 13-6 victory.

Chris Bahr, the Lions' record-setting placekicker, accounted for all of Penn State's scoring with a 42-yard field goal in the third period and a 37-yarder early in the final quarter. Alabama specialist Danny Ridgeway countered Bahr's boots with field goals of 25 and 28 yards.

Bahr's first field goal with 4:33 left in the third quarter tied the game at 3-3, but Alabama came right back with an 80-yard drive for what proved to be the winning touchdown. The game wasn't decided until Alabama stopped the Lions on a fourth-and-one try from the Penn State 39-yard line with 1:19 to play.

Meeting Notre Dame for the first time since 1928, a 3-0 turnover deficit proved to be Penn State's undoing as the Irish posted a 20-9 victory.

It was apparent in the early going that the teams were evenly matched and breaks would be the determining factor. After Penn State took an early 3-0 lead that Notre Dame erased with a first-quarter touchdown, the Irish used a turnover and solid offense to outscore the Lions, 13-0, in the second period, cruise to a 20-3 halftime lead and never relinquish their hold.

Penn State out-gained the Irish, 274-273, led by the rushing tandem of Bob Torrey and Matt Suhey. Quarterback Chuck Fusina hit 14 of 33 passes for 118 yards, including Penn State's only touchdown, an eight-yard strike to Suhey in the fourth quarter. Jimmy Cefalo made five catches for 60 yards and had three carries for 18 yards to earn Penn State Outstanding Player-of-the-Game honors. All-America linebacker Kurt Allerman made a game-high 16 tackles.

1977 FIESTA: December 25, 1977

A then-record Fiesta Bowl crowd was treated to an exciting shootout between two of the nation's finest teams, with Penn State winning the showdown against hometown Arizona State, 42-30, to cap an 11-1 season.

The Lions won their first of six Fiesta Bowls (without a loss), with an opportunistic kicking game, a grinding second-half running game, an alert defense and some big plays by Jimmy Cefalo.

Penn State led, 17-14, at halftime despite being held to 45 yards rushing. Joe Lally returned a blocked punt 21 yards for the first Lion touchdown, the fifth score by the punt return team in 1977. A 67-yard punt return by Cefalo then set up a 23-yard field goal by Matt Bahr. Penn State scored the third quarter's only touchdown and out-slugged the Devils, 18-16, in a furious fourth quarter, with Matt Suhey's two-yard TD run with three minutes left providing some breathing room.

Steve Geise led all rushers with 111 yards, while Bob Torrey added 107 on only nine carries, marking the only time Penn State has had two runners crack the century mark in a bowl. Suhey added 76 yards, helping the Lions to a 268-90 edge on the ground. Matt Millen made 18 tackles to capture Outstanding Defensive Player honors.

1979 SUGAR: January 1, 1979

A goal-line stand by Alabama in the fourth quarter was the key in depriving Penn State of its first national championship. The Lions, 11-0 during the regular-season and ranked first in the polls entering the Sugar Bowl in the Louisiana Superdome, twice came up short from inside the one-yard line as No. 2 Alabama hung on for a 14-7 win and the national title.

In one of the greatest defensive games ever played for the national title, the hitting was ferocious on both sides. Alabama posted the first half's only score with eight seconds left, on a 30-yard pass from Jeff Rutledge to Bruce Bolton, who made what appeared to be a diving, spectacular catch in the end zone for a 7-0 halftime lead. Photographs and video would later reveal the ball had bounced on the turf before Bolton caught it.

The Lions capitalized midway through the third quarter. Pete Harris intercepted a Rutledge pass on the Alabama 48-yard line and Chuck Fusina passed 17 yards to Scott Fitzkee to tie the score. But, 'Bama's Lou Inker returned a punt 62 yards to the Penn State 11 and Major Ogilvie's eight-yard TD run gave the Tide a 14-7 lead later in the stanza.

With about seven minutes to play, Matt Millen forced a fumble which Joe Lally recovered at the Alabama 19. On second-and-goal at the six, Fusina hit Fitzkee near the flag, but as he turned to cross the goal line, Don McNeal knocked him out two feet from the stripe. Matt Suhey's dive on third down was six inches short and on fourth down, Mike Guman was stopped short by Barry Krauss and the Tide defense in one of the memorable defensive stands in college football history. On Penn State's final possession, the Nittany Lions drove to the Alabama 41-yard line, but the Tide defense held again to seal the win.

Herb Menhardt's 20-yard field goal with 18 seconds remaining lifted Penn State to a 9-6 win over Tulane in the 21st Annual Liberty Bowl in Memphis. The win was the first in a string of five consecutive bowl victories for the Nittany Lions.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Penn State offense got untracked early in the second period. Quarterback Frank Rocco directed the Lions on a 13-play, 68-yard drive that culminated with a 33-yard Menhardt field goal for a 3-0 lead. Rocco was starting for the first time in 1979, replacing 11-game starter Dayle Tate, who suffered a shoulder injury in the Pittsburgh game earlier in the month. A 63-yard drive culminated in a 27-yard Menhardt trey later in the period for a 6-0 halftime lead.

Tulane tied the game with a pair of fourth-quarter field goals, the latter coming with less than three minutes to play. With just under 50 seconds left and the Lions at the 50, assistant coach Bob Phillips suggested a halfback option, which worked to near perfection. Rocco pitched out to Joel Coles, who pulled up on a sweep around the left side and threw a 39-yard pass to a wide open Tom Donovan, to set up Menhardt's game-winner.

Penn State out-gained Tulane 337 to 202 and limited the Green Wave to minus-eight yards rushing. Matt Suhey posted a 19-carry, 112-yard day for the Lions.

Buoyed by a field goal in the final 10 seconds of the first half, Penn State played a superb second half in a satisfying 31-19 victory over Ohio State in Fiesta Bowl X in front of a record crowd of 66,738. The contest remains the Lions' only bowl game against a Big Ten opponent.

After Curt Warner's 64-yard touchdown run on the first play of the game, Ohio State used Art Schlichter's super passing to grab a 19-7 lead before Herb Menhardt's 38-yard field goal with eight seconds left in the half made it 19-10. Schlichter was 15-of-22 for 244 yards and three touchdowns in the first half.

Like many Joe Paterno teams in bowl games, the Lions made adjustments at the break and dominated the second half. On their first possession of the third quarter, Todd Blackledge directed a 75-yard drive, scoring from three yards to cut the lead to 19-17. After holding the Buckeyes to zero yards in the third stanza, Jon Williams scored on a four-yard run early in the final quarter and Booker Moore's 37-yard run climaxed an 85-yard drive and sealed the 10-2 campaign. Schlichter was 5-of-13 for 58 yards in the second half as the Lions frustrated Earl Bruce's squad.

Penn State outgained the Buckeyes 468 to 412, including a school bowl record 351 yards rushing. Warner had 18 carries for 155 yards, to establish a Nittany Lion bowl record, and one touchdown to earn the Outstanding Offensive Player Award and Frank Case earned both the Outstanding Defensive Player and Sportsmanship awards.

Penn State rode its rugged defense to a dominating 26-10 victory over Southern California in the first Fiesta Bowl game played on New Year's Day. Making its second consecutive appearance in Tempe, Penn State held the Trojans to 60 yards rushing and only three offensive points in the win.

Curt Warner stole the spotlight from USC's Heisman Trophy-winning running back Marcus Allen, gaining 145 yards with two touchdowns to Allen's 85 yards on 30 carries and no touchdowns, his lowest output of the season. For the second straight year in Tempe, Warner scored the first time he touched the ball, reaching paydirt from 17 yards out for a 7-0 lead as he became the only player to be selected the Fiesta's Offensive Player-of-the-Game two straight years.

A 52-yard scoring strike from Todd Blackledge to Gregg Garrity gave the Lions the lead for good in the second quarter and Warner added a 21-yard scoring burst in the third.

The Lions outgained the Trojans 393 to 262, recording 11 tackles for loss, including six sacks.

Penn State concluded a 10-2 season and earned the No. 3 national ranking, playing opponents with a cumulative record of 82-37-2 (68.6), including six teams ranked among the nation's top 20.

1983 SUGAR: January 1, 1983

A mid-year loss to Alabama could have proven devastating, but instead, Penn State rallied to win its last six games, rising to No. 2 in the polls, and garnering a national title matchup with unbeaten and No. 1 Georgia in the 1983 Sugar Bowl. The Sugar Bowl had not been kind to Penn State with the Lions going 0-3 in New Orleans, but on this day those prior games were forgotten, as Penn State defeated the Bulldogs, 27-23, to post an 11-1 record and earn its first National Championship after several near-misses under Joe Paterno.

Penn State jumped to a 7-0 lead, scoring in the first three minutes of the game. On consecutive plays, Todd Blackledge drilled a 33-yard pass to Mike McCloskey and found Gregg Garrity for 27 yards to the Georgia nine-yard line. Curt Warner's two-yard run around left end gave the Lions a lead they would not relinquish. Following a Georgia field goal, treys of 38 and 45 yards by Nick Gancitano sandwiched a nine-yard Warner TD run for a 20-3 lead with less than a minute left in the half.

The Bulldogs responded with just five seconds remaining in the half on a 10-yard TD pass to Herman Archie. Georgia then took the second-half kickoff and drove 69 yards to score on Herschel Walker's one-yard run, to cut the margin to 20-17.

With Warner bothered by leg cramps, the offense struggled in the third period, but early in the fourth quarter Blackledge faked to Warner and threw a perfect 47-yard strike to Garrity, who made a sensational diving catch in the end zone. The play, featured on the cover of Sports Illustrated, will forever be remembered as one of the glorious moments in Penn State history. A fumbled punt set up a Georgia touchdown with 4:54 to play, but the Lion defense stuffed Walker on the two-point try to make the score 27-23. With two minutes left, Blackledge found Garrity for a first down on third down and the Lions ran out the clock, hoisting Paterno on their shoulders with his right index finger raised in another of the significant moments in Lion history.

"Penn State No. 1!" shouted long-time Nittany Lion radio announcer Fran Fisher to his audience, trying to be heard above the din of the delirious blue and white clad fans who were finally able to celebrate a National Championship.

For the second consecutive bowl, Warner outgained the Heisman Trophy winner, rushing for 117 yards on 18 attempts and two scores, gaining 63 gutsy yards in the second half despite the leg cramps, while Walker tallied 103 yards on 28 carries. Blackledge was 13-of-23 for 228 yards to earn MVP honors.

1983 ALOHA: December 26, 1983

Penn State tied an NCAA record with its fifth consecutive bowl victory, edging Washington, 13-10, in the 1983 Aloha Bowl, thanks to excellent punting, outstanding defense and a clutch fourth-quarter scoring drive.

The defense held potent Washington without a touchdown, but Danny Greene's 57-yard punt return for a score midway through the second quarter loomed as the key play of the game, with the Huskies holding a 10-3 lead at the start of the final quarter. Lion punter George Reynolds, whose 47.7-yard punting average on seven kicks earned him Defensive Player-of-the-Game honors, booted a 50-yard punt to the Washington 16 late in the third quarter. The defense held and the offense answered with Nick Gancitano's 49-yard field goal to trail, 10-6, early in the final stanza.

Reynolds' next punt went to the Washington six, the defense held again, and after the ensuing punt to the Penn State 38, Kevin Baugh handed off to Kenny Jackson on a reverse for one first down. Doug Strang then hit Baugh for 16 yards to the Huskie four and tailback D.J. Dozier took the pitch over the right side for a two-yard touchdown with three minutes to play for a 13-10 victory.

The Lions gained just 213 yards, but the defense held the Huskies to 279 and Reynolds' punting proved to be a key in keeping Penn State in the game.

Oklahoma's defense turned in an outstanding effort and the Sooners made two big offensive plays for a 25-10 victory over Penn State in the 1985 Orange Bowl's national title battle.

The Nittany Lions, 11-0 and No. 1, also played well defensively against Oklahoma's wishbone, allowing just 12 first downs. The No. 2 Sooners relied on the big play — a 71-yard TD pass from Jamelle Holieway to tight end Keith Jackson on third-and-24 and a game-clinching 61-yard touchdown run by Lydell Carr — plus four Tim Lashar field goals to win. The loss was Penn State's first in the Orange Bowl after three victories.

Penn State took a 7-0 lead on its first possession. John Shaffer drove the Lions 62 yards, capped by a Tim Manoa one-yard touchdown run. But, the Sooners would score 16 unanswered points. Despite four turnovers, the Lions trailed just 19-10 as Massimo Manca attempted a 26-yard field with 2:46 to play. Manca's kick was no good and a minute later Carr's long TD run sealed the crown for the Sooners.

Penn State could muster just 14 first downs and 267 yards against a defense which had held opponents to less than 200 yards during the regular-season.

1987 FIESTA: January 2, 1987

Linebacker Pete Giftopoulos thrust his 233-pound frame between Vinny Testaverde and a possible winning touchdown in the waning seconds of the 1987 Fiesta Bowl, intercepting Testaverde's final pass at the Lions' one-yard line to preserve Penn State's 14-10 victory over No. 1 Miami (Fla.) and earn the underdog Nittany Lions their second National Championship in four years.

In one of the most memorable National Championship games ever, the No. 2 Nittany Lions intercepted Testaverde, the Heisman Trophy winner, five times to frustrate the Hurricanes and earn their second 12-0 season, culminating Penn State's celebration of 100 years of football.

Unbeaten Miami rolled up 22 first downs and 445 yards to eight first downs and 162 yards for the Lions but, the Hurricanes could not convert yards into points against a staunch Penn State defense that was no stranger to adversity. Miami's only touchdown came in the second quarter. Hit as he was passing, John Shaffer fumbled and the Hurricanes recovered at the Lion 23. Four plays later, Melvin Bratton went over from the one for a 7-0 lead.

Penn State immediately answered with its only sustained drive of the game, going 74 yards in 13 plays. One of the big plays was a 23-yard pass from Shaffer to Eric Hamilton on third-and-12. Tim Manoa also had a 19-yard run and caught a 12-yard pass. Shaffer rolled around the right side four yards into the end zone with 1:14 left in the half and Massimo Manca's PAT made it 7-7 at the break.

Miami regained the lead early in the fourth quarter on a 38-yard field goal by Mark Seelig. All-America linebacker Shane Conlan, who was hobbled by knee and ankle injuries, who had grabbed a third-quarter interception, did it again, intercepting Testaverde's toss and returning it 39 yards to the Hurricanes' five. After a heart-stopping first-down fumbled snap was recovered by Keith Radecic, D.J. Dozier, who had 99 yards rushing on the night, got the most important six yards of his collegiate career when he darted through a gaping hole for the go-ahead touchdown with 8:13 to play. Manca's conversion pushed the Penn State margin to 14-10.

Trey Bauer forced a fumble on the Hurricanes' next drive, but Miami had one threat left. Starting from their own 23 with 3:07 remaining, a fourth-down completion from Testaverde to Bennie Blades gained 31 yards and propelled the Hurricanes across midfield. With 18 seconds remaining, Miami had a fourth-and-goal at the Penn State 13-yard line. Testaverde tested the Lions' secondary one more time, looking for Brett Perriman in the end zone, but his pass came to rest in the arms of Giftopoulos, who cradled his second theft of the night and a Penn State National Championship as he fell on the ball after returning it to the 10-yard line with just nine seconds to play in another of the greatest moments in Lion football history.

More than 70 million people watched the prime-time telecast on NBC, breaking the previous record for a college football telecast.

1988 CITRUS: January 1, 1988

Clemson successfully blended the expected with the unexpected to post a 35-10 conquest of Penn State in the 1988 Florida Citrus Bowl, the first-ever meeting between the two schools. The Tigers rushed for 285 yards and quarterback Danny Williams threw for an uncharacteristic 214 yards (15-of-24) in the Nittany Lions' first appearance in Orlando.

The Lions played without leading rusher and receiver Blair Thomas, who suffered a serious knee injury in an early December practice which would sideline him for the 1988 season. He had rushed for 1,414 yards and 11 touchdowns in 1987. Freshmen Leroy Thompson and Gary Brown posted 106 yards from the tailback position in Thomas' absence. Thompson, who rushed for 55 yards and added 146 more on pass receptions (19) and kickoff returns (127), was voted the Lions' offensive MVP with 201 all-purpose yards.

Penn State's touchdown came on a perfect 39-yard pass from Matt Knizner to Mike Alexander that tied the issue at 7-7 in the second quarter. The Tigers led 14-7 at halftime but, Penn State cut it to 14-10 on a 27-yard field goal by Eric Etze early in the third stanza. Clemson responded with a TD and added two more scores in the fourth period to hand the Lions their worst bowl loss.

Senior linebacker Trey Bauer, who had six stops, three tackles for losses and a quarterback sack, was Penn State's defensive MVP.

1989 HOLIDAY: December 29, 1989

In a game which featured explosive offense on both sides, two freak defensive plays decided the issue between Penn State and Brigham Young in the 1989 Holiday Bowl, which lived up to its reputation for plenty of scoring and wild finishes. By the time Penn State's high-octane 50-39 victory over BYU was finished, 41 post-season records had either been surpassed or equaled by the teams in the four-hour, 17-minute marathon. The Lions and Cougars put 89 points on the scoreboard, including an NCAA bowl record 64 in the second half; gained 1,115 total offensive yards; rolled up 61 first downs; and punted only three times.

Andre Collins, the Lions' All-America linebacker, made the first of the decisive defensive plays after the Cougars had closed to within 41-39 with 2:58 remaining. Collins intercepted Ty Detmer's two-point conversion pass attempt and returned it 100-plus yards to score two for the Lions, the first time they had tallied in such a fashion since the rule was introduced in 1988.

On the ensuing BYU series, Hero Gary Brown blitzed past Outland Trophy-winner Mohammed Elewonibi to steal the ball from Detmer as he prepared to pass and returned it 53 yards for the touchdown in the final minute that secured the wild and wacky win.

Among the flood of big plays earlier in the game was a spectacular, 52-yard TD catch by David Daniels, who leapt high in the air to grab Tony Sacca's aerial at the goal line, was hit, juggled and caught the ball as he landed on his back in the end zone for one of the superlative catches in school history.

Penn State tailback Blair Thomas, playing his final game, broke the school bowl rushing record with 186 yards on 35 carries, one a seven-yard scoring run, and shared Player-of-the-Game honors with Detmer, who was 42-of-59 for an NCAA bowl record 576 yards, with two touchdowns and two interceptions. Thomas also gained 46 additional yards on a pair of pass receptions for 232 all-purpose yards.

The 64 second half points (Penn State, 38 and BYU, 26) remain tied for the NCAA bowl record, while the combined 61 first downs by both squads also are an NCAA bowl mark. The Lions played on the West Coast for the first time since a 1973 visit to Stanford.

1990 BLOCKBUSTER: December 28, 1990

The inaugural Blockbuster Bowl wasn't being played on New Year's Day, but was one of the most intriguing post-season contests, pitting No. 7 Penn State and No. 6 Florida State and their legendary coaches, Joe Paterno and Bobby Bowden.

After spotting the Seminoles 10 points in the first eight minutes of the game, Penn State applied pressure the rest of the way before finally bowing, 24-17, in a marquee matchup of 9-2 independents at Joe Robbie Stadium.

With Florida State leading, 24-10, senior quarterback Tom Bill came off the bench to ignite a 62-yard scoring drive in three plays, finding Terry Smith behind the secondary for a 37-yard touchdown with 6:27 to play. But two Penn State drives later came up empty, including an interception at the one-yard line with less than three minutes to play.

Penn State's other touchdown was scored on a 56-yard pass from Tony Sacca to David Daniels in the first quarter, but the Lions could not overcome three interceptions, a partially blocked punt which led to the Seminoles' first TD and a blocked field goal.

For two and one-half quarters, Fiesta Bowl XXI had all the earmarks of a Tennessee Waltz. But, in a furious eight-minute span in the second half, Penn State turned up the beat and buried the bewildered Volunteers, 42-17, beneath an avalanche of big plays on both sides of the ball in the first of what stretched to eight consecutive January bowl visits.

Penn State grabbed an early 7-0 lead, recovering a fumble on the opening kickoff and converting three plays later when Sam Gash scored on a 10-yard pass from Tony Sacca. At halftime, Tennessee had 17 first downs and 324 yards, while Penn State had just five first downs and 59 yards, but the Vols only led 10-7. Vols' quarterback Andy Kelly, who was 16-of-26 for 204 yards in the opening half, hit Cory Fleming on a 44-yard score on the initial possession of the third stanza for a 17-7 lead.

A 39-yard punt return by O.J. McDuffie ignited the Lions and Sacca found Chip LaBarca on a three-yard scoring toss to cut the margin to 17-14 with 2:56 left in the third period. No one among the crowd of 71,133 was prepared for the onslaught which followed.

On Tennessee's second play after the score, Tyoka Jackson stripped Kelly of the ball and recovered at the Vol 13. On the ensuing play Sacca hit Kyle Brady and suddenly the Lions had a 21-17 lead. On the Vols' second play, Reggie Givens' interception set up a two-yard run by Richie Anderson early in the fourth quarter. On Tennessee's next play, Derek Bochna hit Kelly and Givens grabbed the ball and ran it in from 23 yards. In less than four minutes Penn State had scored 28 points to take a 35-17 lead. Tennessee managed to run three plays before punting on its next possession and the Lions sealed the win with a 37-yard TD strike from Sacca to McDuffie, giving them five scores in less than eight minutes.

Sacca set a Penn State bowl record with four touchdown passes and McDuffie caught four passes for 78 yards and a touchdown and had 71 yards on punt returns to earn Most Valuable Offensive Player honors. Linebacker Keith Goganious recorded a game-high 15 tackles, but Givens earned Defensive MVP accolades. Punter Doug Helkowski set Fiesta Bowl records with his nine punts for a 47.9 yard average as State finished 11-2 and No. 3 in the polls.

1993 BLOCKBUSTER: January 1, 1993

Stanford proved it was one of the nation's top teams as it raced past the Nittany Lions, 24-3, in the 1993 Blockbuster Bowl, ending a Penn State string of four straight wins over Pac-10 teams in post-season games.

Stanford, the Pac-10 co-champions with Washington, moved 71 yards in eight plays with the opening kickoff to score all the points the Cardinal would need in Joe Robbie Stadium.

A 33-yard V.J. Muscillo field goal made it 7-3 at the end of the first quarter, but Stanford led, 14-3, at halftime and added 10 points in the third quarter.

Stanford tallied 365 yards to Penn State's 263. All-American O.J. McDuffie made six catches for 111 yards and Richie Anderson carried the ball 13 times for 40 yards as the Lions were held to their second-lowest point total in a bowl game.

A Citrus Bowl record crowd of 72,456 was treated to the Nittany Lions' strongest effort of the season, a 31-13 knockout of sixth-ranked Tennessee. The hard-earned and satisfying victory capped a 10-2 season and vaulted Penn State to another Top 10 finish.

Trailing, 10-0, Penn State retaliated with tailback Ki-Jana Carter bursting for a three-yard score. The key play was a 36-yard strike from quarterback Kerry Collins to Bobby Engram. The momentum continued to swing in the Lions' favor on Tennessee's next possession, as Tyoka Jackson tipped a Heath Shuler pass which Lee Rubin snared just inches above the turf. Engram then made a 16-yard reception and gained 35 yards on a reverse. Craig Fayak's 19-yard field goal knotted the score at 10-10.

Tennessee tallied its final points of the afternoon with a field goal, but Penn State had its two-minute offense humming late in the first half. Passes to Engram and Brian O'Neal took the ball to the Vol 14-yard line with :10 left. With the majority of the packed stadium expecting a pass, offensive coordinator Fran Ganter called Carter's number and he swept left and hurtled behind an Engram block into the end zone with just three ticks left on the clock to stun the crowd. Fayak's PAT kick put the Lions on top for good, 17-13, capping what may have been the game's most pivotal play.

A seven-yard pass from Collins to Kyle Brady made it 24-13 in the third quarter and Engram made a 15-yard TD catch to close the scoring. Engram made seven catches for 107 yards and his 184 all-purpose yards made him the overwhelming choice as the Offensive MVP, while Rubin was the Defensive MVP. Collins was 15-of-24 passing for 162 yards and two scores, out-playing Shuler, the Heisman Trophy runnerup, who was sacked four times in the second half.

In a landmark season, the Nittany Lions brought proper closure to a magnificent 1994 campaign by beating Oregon, 38-20, in the Rose Bowl, Penn State's first appearance in the "Granddaddy of Them All" since the 1923 contest. Having won their first Big Ten Championship in their second year of conference play, the Lions became the first Big Ten squad ever to earn a 12-0 record and the first Conference team to earn an unblemished record since Ohio State in 1968.

Despite the 12-0 record and having been ranked No. 1 in late October, the Lions finished No. 2 to Nebraska in the final polls, marking the fourth time a Paterno-led team had gone unbeaten but not won the national title.

In a microcosm of a brilliant season, Heisman Trophy runner-up Ki-Jana Carter flashed through the line on Penn State's first play from scrimmage, bounced off a defender and burst into the lush green carpet for an 83-yard score in the game's initial five minutes. The Rose Bowl throng of 102,247 rose in unison as Carter raced toward the end zone in front of the frenzied Blue and White backers. Just as they had done so many times in 1994, the Nittany Lions' startling offensive prowess delivered an early lead and a dagger to the spirit of the opposition.

The Lions, though, were confronted by a relentless Oregon squad, which gained a 14-14 tie in the third quarter before Penn State pulled away for the 38-20 victory. The significance of the win in Pasadena stretched in many directions: Penn State earned its fifth unbeaten, untied season under Joe Paterno and its third 12-0 campaign; Paterno became college football's all-time winningest bowl coach with his 16th post-season win and became the first coach in college football history to win the traditional four major bowls.

Carter rushed for 156 yards on 21 carries and three touchdowns, sharing Rose Bowl Co-Most Valuable Player honors with Duck quarterback Danny O'Neil, who set six Rose records with his 41-of-61 effort for 456 yards and two scores. Carter's 83-yard run was the longest of his career, Penn State's longest in a bowl game and the third-longest in Rose Bowl history. Lion quarterback Kerry Collins concluded his brilliant season with a 19-of-30 display for 200 yards, setting a school completion mark for a bowl game and fullbacks Brian Milne and Jon Witman each tallied once.

The offensive fireworks by both squads produced 13 Rose Bowl records and tied two others. Penn State also eclipsed seven individual and two team school bowl records.

1996 OUTBACK: January 1, 1996

Facing a new opponent, in a new bowl, the Penn State Nittany Lions were determined to send a superb class of 21 seniors out in a familiar fashion. Playing in its first Outback Bowl, a strong finish was the precursor to a solid bowl effort, as the Nittany Lions played arguably their finest game of the year in crushing Auburn, 43-14, to finish 9-3.

Penn State seized control of the Outback with a Wally Richardson to Mike Archie touchdown pass with :05 left in the first half for a 16-7 lead and then deluged the Tigers with an unanswered 27-point avalanche in the third quarter. Outback and school bowl records were being broken and tied by the Lions as quickly as the rain was turning the Tampa Stadium turf into a quagmire.

A group of seniors who were the backbone of Penn State's impressive 31-5 record the past three seasons again led the way in their final game. Archie ran for 41 yards in addition to his big touchdown catch. Stephen Pitts rushed for 118 yards and also made a touchdown reception. Fullback Brian Milne rushed for a career-best 82 yards. The senior offensive line quartet of Keith Conlin, Jeff Hartings, Andre Johnson and Marco Rivera dominated the line of scrimmage, helping the Lions rush for 266 yards and pass for 221 with no sacks. Terry Killens recorded a pair of sacks to spark the defense.

And then there was Bobby Engram. The three-time All-American concluded his career the Lions' all-time greatest receiver with another typically superlative effort, earning game MVP honors for the second time in a bowl. He made four catches, three of which were typically spectacular, for 113 yards and two scores. Just as he had demolished the school's career receiving records, the 1994 Biletnikoff Award winner did so with Penn State's career bowl receiving marks. His two TD catches also broke the school bowl standard, giving the dynamic player 13 records.

Penn State improved to 6-0 in Tempe with a 38-15 win over Big 12 champion Texas in the 1997 Fiesta Bowl.

Gaining only 95 yards while allowing 242, Penn State was fortunate to trail the Longhorns only 12-7 at halftime, having quickly scored after a Mark Tate interception on the game's second play. The defense had stiffened twice inside the 15-yard line, holding Texas to a pair of field goals and one touchdown.

As the Lions did so many times under Joe Paterno, they made adjustments at the break and then dominated the last 30 minutes. Freshman Kenny Watson took the second-half kickoff 81 yards, a school bowl record, to inside the Texas 20. A five-yard Aaron Harris TD run and a two-point pass from Wally Richardson to Curtis Enis provided a 15-12 lead less than three minutes into the half.

Texas gained a 15-15 tie midway through the stanza, but the momentum clearly was swinging in Penn State's direction. On its next drive, Enis scored from two yards. The defense held and on second down, Chafie Fields took a double reverse 84 yards to the Texas five-yard line, the longest run in school and Fiesta Bowl history. Anthony Cleary cracked over for a 28-15 margin and the Lions never looked back, out-scoring Texas, 31-3, in the second half. The Lions out-gained the Longhorns 330-118 in the second half, including a whopping 292 to minus-19 yard edge on the ground.

Richardson completed his tenure with a 21-5 record as a starter as the 16 seniors closed their careers with a 42-7 record and four bowl victories.

1998 FLORIDA CITRUS: January 1, 1998

With their schools meeting for the first time since the 1962 Gator Bowl, Joe Paterno and Steve Spurrier, matched wits for the first time in the 1998 Florida Citrus Bowl. The normally pass-happy Gators stuck primarily to the ground and posted a 21-6 victory.

Playing without starters Curtis Enis and Joe Jurevicius, the Lions struggled offensively, but the defense kept Penn State within striking range after the Gators took a quick 14-0 lead. Jim Nelson collected an interception at the Penn State four-yard line to stop a Florida drive late in the first stanza. On the Gators' next possession, Shawn Lee returned an interception 33 yards to the Florida 31. The Lions moved the ball to the seven, but had to settle for a Travis Forney field goal.

The defense and special teams made two huge plays to give Penn State first-and-goal chances in the second quarter. Brandon Short knocked the ball away from Gator QB Doug Johnson and after a wild scramble, Short recovered at the Gators' six. But, on fourth-and-inches, Chris Eberly was stopped short of the goal line. The defense held and Kenny Watson delivered a 52-yard punt return to the Florida six with 1:14 left in the half. Again, the Lions were faced with fourth-and-one, but Mike McQueary's pass was picked off in the end zone, denying Penn State its best opportunities for touchdowns.

A Forney field goal made it 14-6 entering the fourth quarter, but Florida scored on the second play of the stanza to end the scoring. Gator tailback Fred Taylor set Citrus Bowl records with 43 carries for 234 yards, most ever for a Lion foe in a bowl game. The Lions could muster only nine first downs and 139 yards in offense, the lowest in Paterno's tenure. The 16 Lion seniors completed their careers with a superb 41-8 (83.7) record.

Facing one of college football's most talented players — the eventual No. 1 pick in the 1999 National Football League draft — the Penn State defense was superb in limiting high-flying Kentucky to only two scores in a 26-14 Outback Bowl win before a soldout crowd of 66,005 in the new Raymond James Stadium.

Joe Paterno led the Lions to their eighth straight January bowl game and improved his NCAA record for bowl victories to 19.

While Heisman Trophy finalist Tim Couch did pass for 336 yards, it took him a whopping 48 attempts to do so. The Lion defense intercepted him twice, sacked him five times and had numerous near-sacks and hurries. Kentucky broke out to an early 14-3 lead, but in the second quarter, Penn State made adjustments and scored 10 unanswered points to cut the lead to 14-13.

A 56-yard TD pass from QB Kevin Thompson to Joe Nastasi preceded three Travis Forney field goals. Forney also had made a trey in the first quarter, breaking the Outback and school bowl records with four field goals. Despite dominating the second and third quarters, the Lions only led 19-14 entering the final period. But, the defense, which had gotten a blocked field goal from LaVar Arrington in the third quarter, stuffed the Wildcats on fourth-and-one at the Kentucky 34. Several plays later, Chafie Fields took his second reverse of the game 19 yards to paydirt for the final 26-14 margin.

As it had done all season, the defense led the way, paced by Anthony King's 11 tackles, two interceptions and a fumble recovery. Courtney Brown made the seven stops, including four for loss, and two sacks on consecutive plays in the final period to earn game MVP honors.

Their resolve was firm. A team that was in position to play for the National Championship in early November was looking to finish the season on a positive note after three straight narrow losses to end the regular-season.

Facing Texas A&M in the Alamo Bowl, 25 seniors were playing their final game, a victory would give Joe Paterno another 10-win season.

The Nittany Lions turned in a marvelous defensive performance to record a 24-0 blanking of the Aggies. The whitewash was the Lions' 20th since Sandusky became defensive coordinator in 1977.

Finishing 10-3, the Lions won at least 10 games for the 18th time under Paterno and earned the No. 11 ranking in the final Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN Coaches polls.

The game was Paterno's 30th bowl contest, breaking a tie with "Bear" Bryant for appearances. The all-time bowl wins leader improved his post-season record to 20-9-1.

On A&M's first scrimmage play, All-American LaVar Arrington set the tone, as he chased QB Randy McCown and hit him as he threw, with David Macklin making the first of four Lion interceptions at the A&M 40-yard line.

On A&M's second possession, Derek Fox collected a McCown pass at the A&M 34, and weaved his way to the end zone for a 7-0 lead midway through the first quarter.

With Kevin Thompson sidelined by a shoulder injury, quarterback Rashard Casey made his first career start. He fired a 45-yard TD strike to Eddie Drummond for a 14-0 lead.

Early in the second half, the Aggies advanced to the Lions' 14. But, on third down, Arrington tipped McCown's pass and Ron Graham grabbed it at the eight to thwart another drive.

Arrington flattened McCown to halt A&M's last drive and Casey quickly had the Lions on the move. A 34-yard completion to John Gilmore took the pigskin to the A&M 26. A 20-yard completion to Tony Stewart set up Casey's four-yard naked bootleg on the first play of the fourth quarter for a 21-0 lead.

On the ensuing kickoff, Askari Adams forced a fumble which was recovered by Shawn Mayer at the A&M 23. A 39-yard Travis Forney field goal made it 24-0.

2003 CAPITAL ONE: January 1, 2003

Penn State rode the momentum of four consecutive wins to close the regular-season into the 2003 Capital One Bowl against Auburn, but some missed offensive opportunities resulted in a difficult 13-9 loss.

The Lions finished with a 9-4 record, with all four losses coming by seven points or less, including two in overtime, to teams that were ranked in the Top 15 of the final Associated Press poll (three in the Top 10).

Anthony Adams forced an early fumble that Derek Wake pounced on at the Auburn 15-yard line. The Lions had a first-and-goal at the four, but were forced to settle for a 21-yard field goal by Robbie Gould.

The Tigers advanced to the Lions' seven early in the second quarter, but Wake blocked a 34-yard field goal attempt, his fourth blocked kick of the year. Midway through the quarter, the Lions reached the Auburn 16, but Gould's 33-yard field try was wide.

Penn State's next possession began at the Auburn 43 and the Lions moved to the 10, but again had to settle for a Gould field goal, a 27-yarder, for a 6-0 lead with 1:44 left in the half. Three trips inside the Auburn 20 had resulted in only six points, which would come back to haunt the Lions.

Early in the fourth period, Michael Robinson completed a 34-yard pass to Tony Johnson and then scrambled 20 yards to the Auburn 19. Gould's 31-yard field goal gave Penn State a 9-7 lead, but 10:10 was left to play.

A sack by John Bronson forced an Auburn punt, which the Tigers downed at the Penn State one. The Tigers forced a three-and-out and got excellent field position at the Penn State 40 with 5:04 to play. Brown carried the ball five straight times, the last one a 17-yard touchdown burst with 2:19 to play for a 13-9 lead. Campbell's two-point pass was incomplete.

Zack Mills returned to the contest, but on third down, was intercepted by Roderick Hood and Auburn held on.

Adams recorded nine tackles (eight solo), including a sack, and the forced fumble to earn team Defensive MVP honors. Robinson was the team Offensive MVP.

Freshman Kevin Kelly's 29-yard field goal in the third overtime lifted Penn State to a thrilling 26-23 victory over Florida State in the FedEx Orange Bowl.

The Nittany Lions' fourth win in five Orange Bowl appearances gave them the No. 3 ranking in the final AP and USA Today Coaches polls. The Lions (11-1) earned their 13th Top 5 finish under Joe Paterno.

In a meeting of the two winningest major college coaches of all-time, Paterno gained one victory on his old friend Bobby Bowden, as both legends ended their 40th seasons as head coaches at 12:57 a.m., more than 4 1/2 hours after kickoff.

Austin Scott carried five times for 57 yards on Penn State's second drive and scored from two yards out for a 7-0 lead. Scott gained 110 yards on 26 carries and two TDs, replacing an injured Tony Hunt. Two of the nation's premier defenses then kept each side in check until a wild final 4:09 of the second quarter.

Florida State tied the game at 7-7 on Willie Reid's 87-yard punt return. Then Drew Weatherford hit Lorenzo Booker on a 57-yard TD pass, but the PAT kick was missed.

The Lions quickly responded, as Big Ten MVP Michael Robinson lofted a 25-yard pass to Ethan Kilmer, who made a leaping catch over a defender for the TD with just :06 left in the half. Kelly's PAT made it 14-13 at the half.

The Lion defense did not allow any points in the third period despite great field position for Florida State throughout the quarter.

Jeremy Kapinos pinned Florida State deep as the fourth quarter began. Jim Shaw pressured Weatherford in the end zone, he threw the ball away and was called for intentional grounding, giving Penn State a safety and a 16-13 lead with 13:36 to play.

Florida State later advanced to the Lions' 29, but Penn State stiffened and Gary Cismesia hit a 48-yard field goal with 4:08 to play.

A 38-yard completion from Robinson to Jordan Norwood took the ball to the Seminoles' 11. With :32 left in regulation, Kelly's 29-yard field goal attempt was wide, but he would later emerge as the hero. Robinson was 21-of-39 for 253 yards, accounting for 28 touchdowns during the season.

The Lions held No. 22 Florida State to 26 yards rushing, 12 first downs and three-of-17 on third down. Linebacker Dan Connor made seven tackles, (two TFL) and defensive tackle Scott Paxson had six stops (1.5 TFL). Jay Alford made four hits, with 2.5 TFL, and forced a fumble deep to win a spot on ESPN.com's All-Bowl team. All-America cornerback Alan Zemaitis grabbed his Big Ten-leading sixth interception of the season (12th career).

Facing its fifth ranked opponent, Penn State played its most complete game of 2006 to defeat No. 17 Tennessee, 20-10, in the Outback Bowl, winning a New Year's Day bowl game for the second consecutive year.

Improving to 3-0 in the Outback Bowl, Penn State finished 9-4 and was ranked No. 24 by the Associated Press and No. 25 in the USA Today Coaches polls. The Lions held the Vols to a season-low 10 points, 19.3 below their average and forced three turnovers.

Tennessee became the 10th team, and seventh consecutive, to score 17 or fewer points against Penn State. Over the last five games, the Lions allowed just 36 points (7.2 avg.) with two shutouts. Over the last 25 quarters of the season, Penn State permitted just three TDs. Tennessee also became the eighth opponent held under 100 rushing yards during the season, netting 83.

Tony Hunt was spectacular in his final game as a Lion, rushing for 158 yards on a career-high tying 31 attempts to earn Outback Bowl Most Valuable Player honors. Hunt posted his eighth 100-yard game of 2006 (15th career).

Hunt's 158 yards were the second-highest of his career and the second-highest by a Lion in a bowl game (186, Blair Thomas vs. Brigham Young, 1989 Holiday Bowl). Hunt finished second on the Penn State career rushing charts with 3,320 yards and first all-time with 654 carries (5.08 avg.). He finished just 78 yards behind career leader Curt Warner's total of 3,398 yards.

The Vols scored late in the half to tie the game and it was 10-10 entering the fourth quarter, when the Lion defense delivered the game-changing play. On first down from the Nittany Lions' 14, Dan Connor and Sean Lee crunched Tennessee's Arian Foster and cornerback Tony Davis picked up the pignskin and flew 88 yards for the go-ahead TD with 10:01 to go.

Penn State forced a three-and-out and Derrick Williams returned the punt 20 yards to the Volunteers' 45. Hunt had seven consecutive carries, netting 39 yards, to set up a 22-yard trey by Kelly, making it 20-10 with just 3:29 to play.

Anthony Morelli was a strong 14-of-25 for 197 yards with no interceptions.

All-American Paul Posluszny recorded eight tackles and 2.5 tackles for loss. He finished his career as Penn State's all-time tackle leader with 372 and 12th all-time with 35 tackles for loss. Posluszny became the first player to lead Penn State in tackles three consecutive seasons and the first with a trio of 100-tackle campaigns.

2007 ALAMO: December 29, 2007

Penn State overcame a 14-0 first-quarter deficit to defeat Texas A&M, 24-17, in the Valero Alamo Bowl in Joe Paterno's 500th game as head coach of the Nittany Lions. The Lions (9-4) won their third consecutive bowl game. Penn State finished No. 25 in the USA Today Coaches poll.

The Lions overcame their largest deficit of the season and held the Aggies to just three points over the last three quarters in front of an Alamo Bowl record crowd of 66,166 in The Alamodome. Penn State took the lead for good at 24-17 with :19 left in the third quarter on a season-long 38-yard burst by redshirt freshman tailback Evan Royster.

Early in the fourth quarter, Jeremy Boone boomed a 55-yard punt and Texas A&M's Roger Holland was dropped at the Aggies' one by A.J. Wallace and Justin King. But, Texas A&M proceeded to march downfield looking to tie the game. On fourth-and-one from the Penn State two, McGee ran the option to the right, but slipped and fell at the six, giving the ball back to the Lions, who used two possessions to run out the final 7:43.

Junior linebacker Sean Lee recorded a game-high 14 tackles, with a TFL and a pass breakup, to earn Defensive MVP honors. Lee's 14 stops tied the Alamo Bowl record, as he recorded double-figures in tackles for the 10th time in the season. His 138 tackles ranked No. 4 on the school season list.

All-America linebacker Dan Connor made nine tackles to finish the season with 145, passing Shawn Mayer's 144 for second place on the Lions' season list. Connor's 419 career tackles broke the school record. Safeties Mark Rubin and Anthony Scirrotto made eight tackles each and defensive end Maurice Evans had six stops and forced two fumbles. Cornerback A.J. Wallace made five stops, grabbed his first career interception and had a huge fumble recovery to set up a score.

Penn State ran for a season-high 270 yards, averaging 6.6 yards on its 41 carries. Rodney Kinlaw gained 143 yards on 21 attempts (6.8) for his sixth 100-yard game of the season. Reserve quarterback Daryll Clark gained 50 yards on just six attempts (8.3), including an 11-yard touchdown run.

Senior quarterback Anthony Morelli was 15-of-31 for 143 yards, including a 30-yard scoring strike to a diving Deon Butler to swing the momentum of the game.

All-Big Ten punter Boone averaged a school bowl record 51.4 yards on his five punts, with a long of 55 yards.

Sixth-ranked Penn State came into its Rose Bowl battle with No. 5 Southern California among the nation's leaders in fewest penalties and turnovers, but mistakes proved costly as the Trojans captured a 38-24 win in the meeting between national powers. Southern California took a 5-4 lead in the series.

The Nittany Lions had season-highs of nine penalties for 72 yards, 62 in the first half, negating a turnover and a 45-yard completion in USC territory early in the game. Penn State also had three turnovers after committing only 13 in the regular-season.

Penn State (11-2), the 2008 Big Ten champion, saw its three-game bowl winning streak ended. Coach Joe Paterno lost a bowl game west of the Mississippi River for the first time after 13 victories without a defeat.

More than 30,000 Nittany Lion fans brought the famed Penn State "Whitehouse" to the Rose Bowl, staying in the game until the final gun. The total attendance was 93,293.

The Nittany Lions gained 410 yards, the most by a USC opponent for the season. Penn State became just the third team to score more than 20 points against the nation's No. 1 scoring defense (7.8 ppg average).

Junior quarterback Daryll Clark broke Penn State bowl records with 273 passing yards and 290 yards of total offense. His 21 completions tied Michael Robinson's mark from the 2006 Orange Bowl. Clark was 21-of-36, with two TDs and two interceptions, one of which came on the final play of the game, with Penn State at the USC 12-yard line.

Clark also ran for a nine-yard touchdown late in the first quarter to tie the game, 7-7. The runnerup for 2008 Big Ten MVP honors, he accounted for a school season-record 29 TDs, throwing for 19 and rushing for 10.

Tailback Stephfon Green saw extensive duty, as Evan Royster left the game late in the first quarter with a knee injury. Green led Penn State with 57 yards on 10 carries and five receptions for 67 yards, including a 30-yard play. Royster gained 34 yards on just six carries to finish with 1,236 yards, good for No. 10 on the Penn State season list.

Senior Deon Butler had four catches for 97 yards and a 45-yard first-quarter catch nullified by a penalty. He finished his career as Penn State's career leader with 179 receptions, while his 2,771 yards were good for No. 2.

Senior All-American Derrick Williams made four receptions for 34 yards, including a two-yard touchdown catch early in the fourth quarter to pull the Lions within 31-14. Williams finished his career No. 3 on the school career receptions list with 161. His 4,156 career all-purpose yards were good for No. 5 on the Penn State list.

Senior Jordan Norwood made three catches for 32 yards, including a nine-yard touchdown catch. He finished his career No. 4 on the Penn State career receptions list (158) and No. 3 on the school career receiving yardage list (2,015).

Norwood's three catches also gave him 41 for the season, as he, Butler (47) and Williams (44) each eclipsed 40 or more receptions for the third consecutive season. Prior to 2006, Penn State had never had a trio of players with 40 or more catches in the same season.

The Lions held the Trojans to 61 rushing yards, 145 yards below their season average. USC became the eighth team to fail to gain 100 rushing yards against Penn State.

Sophomore linebacker Navorro Bowman made a school bowl-record five tackles for loss (minus-21), tying Andy Katzenmoyer's Rose Bowl record from the 1997 game. Bowman had his fourth sack of the season among his eight tackles (seven solo), finishing the year with a team-best 106 tackles and 16.5 tackles for loss. Junior linebacker Josh Hull made a game-high nine tackles, including one for a five-yard loss. Senior Tony Davis made eight hits and recovered a fumble and senior Lydell Sargeant had seven tackles (six solo).

Senior placekicker Kevin Kelly scored six points in the game with three PAT and a 25-yard field goal that moved him into fourth place all-time on the NCAA career overall scoring charts with 425 points. That mark also ranks second in Big Ten history, just one point shy of the record of 426 points held by Ron Dayne of Wisconsin (1996-99).

USC quarterback Mark Sanchez was 28-of-35 for 413 yards, with four touchdown passes, the most ever by an opposing player in a bowl game. His 413 yards were second-highest in Rose Bowl history and the most against Penn State since Minnesota's Tim Schade threw for 478 yards in 1993.

Senior quarterback Daryll Clark led Penn State on a 65-yard drive in the waning minutes of the game and Collin Wagner connected on a 21-yard field goal with :57 left to play to lift the Nittany Lions to a dramatic 19-17 win over LSU in the 64th Capital One Bowl.

Clark, the game MVP, led No. 9/11 Penn State (11-2) to its 15th 11-win season under Coach Joe Paterno. The No. 13 Tigers (9-4) suffered their first bowl loss under Les Miles. The victory solidified Penn State's 23rd Top 10 ranking under Paterno. The Nittany Lions finished No. 8 in the USA Today Coaches poll and No. 9 in the AP poll.

Wagner made a career-high four field goals, connecting from 26, 18, 20 and 21 yards. He had never made four field goals during his prep or Penn State career. His four field goals tied Travis Forney's Penn State bowl record (1999 Outback).

Having taken a 16-3 lead into the third quarter, the Nittany Lions saw the Tigers rally to score two touchdowns in a span of 2:24, grabbing a 17-16 lead with 12:49 to play on a one-yard run by Stevan Ridley. Penn State had to punt, but the defense held LSU to one first down and forced a punt, with the Lions taking over at their 31 with 6:54 to play.

Penn State converted two third downs on the dramatic 12-play scoring drive. Clark hit Graham Zug for a first down at the LSU 37. On the next play, Zug made a huge 17-yard sideline reception to the 20. On third-and-four from the Tigers' 14, Stephfon Green burst through the line for a six-yard gain. Clark carried to the LSU two to set up Wagner's game-winner.

On the Tigers' final possession, they faced a third-and-21 from their own 40 with time for one more play. Jordan Jefferson completed a pass to Rueben Randle, who reached the Lions' 35, but was hit by Eric Latimore and fumbled. Nick Sukay recovered to seal the win.

Clark, the 2009 Big Ten Co-MVP, was 18-of-35 for 216 yards, with one TD and no interceptions. Compiling a spectacular 22-4 (84.6) record as the Nittany Lions' starting quarterback Clark became the first Penn State to surpass 3,000 passing yards in a season, finishing with 3,003.

Clark added the Penn State season total offense mark to his resume of records, gaining 3,214 yards to break Michael Robinson's mark of 3,156. Clark's other school records included season (24) and career (43) touchdown passes, and season (31) and career (65) touchdowns responsible for.

Andrew Quarless made a career-high and school bowl record eight receptions for 88 yards to break school records for catches by a tight end in a season (41) and career (87).

The Lions had just two penalties for 10 yards and did not have a turnover for the fifth time in the last six games.

The defense held the Tigers to 243 yards and forced three turnovers. Penn State limited LSU to just nine first downs and 41 rushing yards on 25 attempts, becoming the eighth opponent to rush for less than 100 yards in 2009.

All-America linebacker Navorro Bowman made nine tackles (seven solo), with 1.5 tackles for losses. Josh Hull had six stops and Sean Lee had six hits, finishing his outstanding career with 325 tackles, good for No. 4 at Penn State.

A heavy downpour soaked an already soft field before the 1 p.m. kickoff, but the rain ended just before the first battle between the schools since the 1974 Orange Bowl.

Penn State's bid for a fourth New Year's Day bowl victory in the past six years was turned back in the final minute as Florida captured a 37-24 win in the 25th Outback Bowl in Raymond James Stadium.

Two of the nation's Top 10 winningest programs since 2005 played for just the third time and staged an entertaining contest in front of 60,574 fans. The loss dropped Penn State to 7-6, while Florida finished 8-5. Penn State suffered its first loss in the Outback Bowl after beating Auburn (1996), Kentucky (1999) and Tennessee (2007) in its previous appearances.

Coach Joe Paterno led Penn State to its 25th New Year's Day bowl game under his leadership (17-8).

The Nittany Lions saw their two-game bowl winning streak against Southeastern Conference teams snapped. The Nittany Lions are 9-6 all-time in bowl games against SEC opponents.

The Nittany Lions took a 24-17 lead late in the third quarter, but the Gators scored the next 13 points for a 30-24 lead midway through the fourth frame.

After both teams exchanged punts, Penn State took possession at its own 21-yard line with just 3:04 left to play. Matt McGloin completed an 18-yard pass to Derek Moye and Evan Royster's 23-yard burst made him the first Nittany Lion with a trio of 1,000-yard rushing seasons. With the ball at the Florida 25, a McGloin pass was picked off by Ahmad Black, who returned it 80 yards for a touchdown to seal the game with 55 seconds to play.

Penn State's career rushing yardage leader, Royster finished his outstanding career with 3,932 yards on a school-record 686 carries and 29 rushing touchdowns. The three-time All-Big Ten honoree gained 98 yards on 20 carries against the Gators to finish the season with 1,014 yards on 208 carries.

On Florida's first play from scrimmage, cornerback D'Anton Lynn grabbed his third interception of the season at the Gators' 39-yard line. McGloin completed passes of 16 yards to Brett Brackett and 15 yards to Graham Zug to give the Nittany Lions a first-and-goal. On third down from the Florida 5, McGloin lofted the ball to Derek Moye, who snared it for his eighth touchdown catch of the season. Collin Wagner's PAT kick gave Penn State a 7-0 lead with 9:08 left in the first quarter.

Moye had game-highs with five catches and 79 yards and made his 15th career touchdown catch. He became the 11th Nittany Lion player to record at least 100 career receptions with a first-quarter grab and just the seventh Penn State to record 15 or more career receiving touchdowns.

Making his fifth career start, McGloin was 17-of-41 for 211 yards, with one touchdown and a school-record five interceptions. His 41 pass attempts were a Penn State bowl record and his 17 completions were fifth-highest in Penn State bowl history.

The Penn State defense limited Florida to just 279 yards (101 passing) and an average of 3.9 yards per play.

Junior defensive tackle Devon Still recorded a career and team season-high 3.5 TFL against the Gators, with a career-best seven stops (six solo) overall. Senior linebacker Chris Colasanti made a game-high 10 hits, compiling his fifth double-figure tackle game of the season.

2012 TICKETCITY: January 1, 2012

In the first meeting between Penn State and high-powered Houston since 1977, the No. 20 Cougars beat the No. 24 Nittany Lions, 30-14, in the TicketCity Bowl.

The first bowl game of 2012 was one of just four non-BCS games that featured a pair of Top 25 teams. The Nittany Lions dropped consecutive bowl games for the first time since the 1975 Sugar Bowl and 1976 Gator Bowl. Penn State is 10-5 in bowl games since joining the Big Ten Conference.

Penn State lost for the first time in the historic Cotton Bowl Stadium. The Nittany Lions won the 1972 and 1975 Cotton Bowls (vs. Texas and Baylor) and tied the 1948 game with SMU in the venerable facility.

Penn State played in its 28th January bowl game among its 44 all-time post-season contests.

Houston entered the game No. 1 in the nation in total offense (599.0 ypg), passing offense (44.3 ypg) and scoring offense (50.8 ppg) and was impressive, gaining 600 yards. The Cougars' NCAA record-setting quarterback, Case Keenum, broke the Penn State opponent bowl and all-time records for completions (45) and attempts (69) in a game. He threw for 532 yards and three scores.

The previous opponent records were Brigham Young's Ty Detmer completing 42 passes in the 1989 Holiday Bowl and Oregon's Danny O'Neil attempting 61 passes in the 1995 Rose Bowl. Detmer threw for an opponent record 576 passing yards in the 1989 Holiday Bowl.

Penn State allowed just 41 points during the first quarter in the regular-season, but Houston grabbed a 17-0 lead after the opening period. The Lions out-scored the Cougars, 14-13, over the final three quarters, but were not able to pull within a score.

In his final game as a Nittany Lion, Stephon Green ran for a game-high 63 yards on 15 carries. He scored on a six-yard run midway through the second quarter, his sixth rushing touchdown of the season, to pull Penn State within 17-7. But, the Cougars responded with a 75-yard touchdown pass from Keenum to Patrick Edwards, the longest play from scrimmage allowed by the Penn State defense in the 2011 season and an opponent bowl mark. Edwards' 228 receiving yards also were a Houston bowl record and an opponent bowl mark.

With Houston leading, 27-7, in the third quarter, quarterback Rob Bolden connected with junior wideout Justin Brown on a 69-yard scoring strike to pull the Nittany Lions within two scores. The catch was a career-long for Brown and the second-longest completion in Penn State bowl history behind Chuck Herd's fingertip 72-yard reception from Tom Shuman in the 1974 Orange Bowl.

In his final game as a Nittany Lion, senior linebacker Nate Stupar made a game-high 12 tackles (seven solo), the second-highest total of his career. Linebacker Gerald Hodges recorded nine tackles and safety Drew Astorino had eight stops. Senior All-America tackle Devon Still was limited by turf toe suffered in practice days before the game.

2014 PINSTRIPE: December 27, 2014

On the hallowed grounds of Yankee Stadium, The Captain did it again. Senior placekicker Sam Ficken hit a pair of pressure filled kicks to send Penn State to a 31-30 overtime win over Boston College in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl.

Ficken, who used Derek Jeter's old locker, converted a 45-yard field goal with just 20 seconds left in regulation to tie the game, 24-24, and was true on the game-winning extra point to lift Penn State to its 28th bowl win in school history.

The Valparaiso, Ind., native connected on his 24th field goal of the season, extending his school record, and 54th of his career. He finished his career ranked second in career field goals made, trailing only Kevin Kelly's 78 (2005-08). His seven points against Boston College (4 XP, 1 FG) pushed his season total to 100 points and his career total to 271. Ficken ended his career ranked fourth on Penn State's all-time scoring list.

Sophomore quarterback Christian Hackenberg earned MVP honors after he produced one of the finest passing games in Penn State bowl history. He set or tied nine Penn State bowl game records, including completions (34), attempts (50), passing yards (371), total offense (371) and offensive plays (58). His 72-yard touchdown pass in the first quarter to Chris Godwin tied the record for longest pass and longest touchdown pass, while his four touchdown throws in the game tied Tony Sacca's (1992) and Wally Richardson's (1996) bowl record.

Godwin had a career-day with seven catches for 140 yards — with both totals ranking second in Penn State bowl history — including his second TD catch of the season.

The Nittany Lions scored first on Hackenberg's 72-yard TD pass to Chris Godwin down the right sideline with 5:22 left in the first. The play is tied for the longest pass and touchdown pass in Penn State's illustrious bowl history, tying the Tom Shuman to Chuck Herd connection in the 1974 Orange Bowl.

Hillman also found an opening late in the first quarter for a 49-yard touchdown run that tied the game at 7-7.

Murphy found Shakim Phillips in the corner end zone for a 19-yard touchdown and a 14-7 lead early in the third. He then showed how he set the ACC's season record for rushing yards by a quarterback with 1,079 yards in 2014 with a 40-yard dash that put the Eagles ahead 21-7.

That is when Hackenberg went to work on the Eagles defense. He led Penn State on a six-play, 63-yard scoring drive that ended with a Geno Lewis 7-yard touchdown grab with no time left in the third quarter to pull Penn State within seven points, 21-14.

Hackenberg threw his third touchdown pass of the game, a toss over the middle to Hamilton that threaded the needle between a pair of Boston College defenders, to tie the game with 6:48 left in the fourth quarter.

Mike Knoll put the Eagles back in the led, 24-21, on a 20-yarder with 2:10 left in the fourth, which set up Ficken's game-tying kick with 0:20 remaining.

Murphy hit David Dudeck for a 21-yard TD pass on Boston College's overtime drive, but Knoll missed the extra point for the Eagles and that was the opening Penn State needed to complete its comeback.

On the overtime drive, Hackenberg missed on his first two pass attempts, but was true on his final three throws of the game. On third-and-15, Hackenberg connected with James for a 17-yard catch-and-run, that ended with James running through an Eagle defender to gain the first down. He then found Lewis for five yards before arching a perfect ball into the hands of Carter for a 10-yard touchdown. Carter's first TD grab of the season set up Ficken's automatic kick that sent the Nittany Lions dancing on top of the Yankees' dugout.

2016 TAXSLAYER: January 2, 2016

Facing a 21-point deficit in the third quarter, Penn State rallied to within a touchdown of Georgia, but the Nittany Lions ran out of time as the Bulldogs held on, 24-17, to win the 71st annual TaxSlayer Bowl. Penn State wide receiver Chris Godwin became the school's career leader in bowl receiving yards and just the second to surpass 1,100 receiving yards in a season.

Leading 24-17, Georgia tried to ice the game with less than two minutes remaining by going for it on fourth-and-2 from the Penn State 23. Jason Cabinda and Garrett Sickels stuffed Georgia's Keith Marshall for a 2-yard loss, giving the Nittany Lions a chance to tie the game with a touchdown and extra point with 1:52 remaining.

after quarterback Christian Hackenberg left with an injury, led the Nittany Lions to the Georgia 39 with eight seconds remaining, but his Hail Mary pass attempt was batted down near the goal line.

McSorley finished completing 14-of-27 pass attempts for 142 yards and two touchdowns while also rushing seven times for 31 yards. Running back Saquon Barkley totaled 69 yards on 17 carries.

Godwin caught six passes for 133 yards, finishing the season with 1,101 receiving yards ranking second only to Allen Robinson's 2013 effort (1,432 yards).

Georgia took a 24-3 lead on a Sony Michel touchdown run with 4:15 remaining in the third quarter, but the Lions started their rally on the next drive, scoring their first touchdown on the first play of the fourth quarter on fourth down, capping a 10-play, 75-yard touchdown drive. A 21-yard completion to Godwin on third-and-6 moved the Lions to midfield and a 29-yard rush by Barkley to the Georgia 15 setup the drive. Facing fourth-and-7 though, a false start penalty backed PSU to the 17, but McSorley found Geno Lewis just inside the right sideline in the end zone following the final quarter break.

Both teams would punt and Penn State forced another Bulldog punt before finding the end zone again. A 20-yard run by Barkley started the seven-play drive, and a leaping catch by DaeSean Hamilton for a 20-yard touchdown capped it with 6:14 remaining.

Georgia was able to run 4:15 off the clock on its ensuing possession, and withstood Penn State's final rally.

► HUGO BEZDEK

Born in Prague, Czechoslovakia on April 1, 1884, Hugo Bezdek was head coach at Penn State for 12 years (1918-29), compiling a 65-30-11 record, including undefeated seasons in 1920 and 1921. A four-year All-American at the University of Chicago, he played fullback in football and second base in baseball. Bezdek enjoyed a 24-year collegiate coaching career in which he also served as head coach at Oregon (1906, 1913-17) and Arkansas (1908-12). His 1917 Oregon squad defeated Pennsylvania, 14-0, in the Rose Bowl. He later managed the Pittsburgh Pirates Baseball Club (1917-19). Bezdek, who died in 1952, was named to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1954 and the Helms Foundation College Hall of Fame in 1960.

► BILL BOWES

Bowes was a team captain for Hall of Fame coach Rip Engle during the 1964 season. The 1962 squad finished 9-2 and ranked ninth in the AP and UPI polls, while the 1963 team was 7-3 en route to a final ranking of 16th in the UPI poll. In his senior season, Bowes and the Nittany Lions finished 6-4 and voted down the opportunity to play in the Gator Bowl despite a stunning 27-0 over second-ranked Ohio State and a 28-0 win over Pitt to end the season. Following his graduation, Bowes served as a graduate assistant for the Nittany Lions for the 1965 season before joining the UNH coaching staff. A native of nearby Blanchard, Pa. and Lock Haven High School, Bowes is the winningest coach in Yankee/Atlantic 10 Conference history, posting a 175-106-5 record during his 27 seasons (1972-98) as the head coach at the University of New Hampshire. Bowes took the reigns for the Wildcats in 1972, becoming the youngest head coach in program history. He led UNH to four Yankee Conference championships and guided the Wildcats to the NCAA playoffs four times. Bowes will be inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame as a coach on December 6, 2016.

► JOHN CAPPELLETTI

The 1973 Heisman Trophy winner, John Cappelletti helped the Nittany Lions to a perfect 12-0 season and No. 5 national ranking in both of the major polls. A consensus All-American, Cappelletti rushed for 1,522 yards and 17 touchdowns in 1973. The Upper Darby, Pa., native put together three straight 200-yard rushing games in the final month of the season, including a high of 220 against North Carolina State. Cappelletti also received the Maxwell Trophy and was selected as Player of the Year by ABC-TV, United Press International, the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association, the Walter Camp Foundation and the Washington Touchdown Club. He played in the Hula and Senior bowl games. Cappelletti's career yardage total of 2,639 still ranks him No. 11 on the Lions' all-time rushing list. His 1973 rushing total is fourth on the school season rushing list to Larry Johnson (2,087), Lydell Mitchell (1,567) and Ki-Jana Carter (1,539). Cappelletti still holds a number of Penn State ground-gaining records. A first-round draft choice of the National Football League Los Angeles Rams, Cappelletti played 10 seasons in the professional ranks, six in Los Angeles and four with the San Diego Chargers. He resides in Laguna Niguel, Calif., where he is active in sales and manufacturing activities. Cappelletti was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame on December 7, 1993.

► SHANE CONLAN

Shane Conlan, the leader of Penn State's outstanding defenses in 1985 and '86, was enshrined in the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 2014. A two-time first-team All-American, Conlan became the 18th former Nittany Lion player and 23rd member of the Penn State football family to be inducted into the Hall of Fame. A senior co-captain in 1986, Conlan was instrumental in Penn State's 23-1 record his last two seasons, with two National Championship game appearances. Conlan capped his career by leading a superlative defensive effort in the 1987 Fiesta Bowl to earn the game's Most Valuable Defensive Player, recording eight tackles and two interceptions to lead Penn State past previously unbeaten Miami, 14-10, for the 1986 national title. A four-year letterman and a three-year starter for Hall of Fame coach Joe Paterno, Conlan was a consensus first-team All-American in 1986. The Buffalo Bills selected Conlan with the No. 8 overall pick in the first round of 1987 NFL Draft and he earned NFL Rookie of the Year and Defensive Rookie of the Year honors. Conlan played nine years in the NFL, attaining three Pro Bowl selections and helping the Bills win three consecutive AFC Championships.

► KEITH DORNEY

Keith Dorney, a two-time All-American at tackle for the Nittany Lions in 1977 and 1978, was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in December 2005. He is the 16th ex-Nittany Lion player so honored and the 20th member of the Penn State football family to earn college football's highest honor. Dorney was selected an All-American by the Football Writers in 1977 and in 1978 by the Associated Press, Football Writers, the Football Coaches, NEA, The Sporting News, United Press International, and Walter Camp. A native of Allentown, Pa., he played nine seasons with Detroit (1979-87) of the National Football League. Dorney is a high school teacher and lives in Sebastopol, Calif.

► RIP ENGLE

Charles A. "Rip" Engle achieved national prominence as Penn State's 13th head coach. A native of Salisbury, Pa., he was a four-sport standout at Western Maryland College, graduating in 1930. Engle began his coaching career at Waynesboro (Pa.) High School, where he compiled an 86-17-5 mark in 11 years, including three unbeaten seasons and eight conference championships. He joined the staff at Brown in 1942 and was promoted to head coach two years later. Engle was named head coach at Penn State in 1950 and guided the Lions to a 104-48-4 record in 16 years, winning three of four bowl games and three Lambert Trophies. In 1970, Engle won the Amos Alonzo Stagg Award for his contributions to football. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1974. Engle died March 7, 1983, in Bellefonte, Pa. He was born March 26, 1906.

► JACK HAM

An All-American in 1970, Jack Ham became the tenth Nittany Lion to be enshrined in the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame when he was inducted in 1990. Ham is the only Penn State product in both the college and professional football halls of fame. A nine-time All-Pro linebacker for the National Football League Pittsburgh Steelers, Ham was enshrined at Canton in 1988. As a senior co-captain in 1970, Ham had 91 tackles and intercepted four passes. He still shares a pair of defensive records for blocked punts: four in his career, three in his final season. He had 251 career tackles (143 solo). A second-round draft choice of the Steelers in 1971, Ham developed into one of the NFL's most outstanding linebackers. He starred on all four of the Steelers' Super Bowl championship teams and was the Defensive Player of the Year in 1975. He is president of a drug testing services company and also works as a radio and television football analyst, including his role with the Penn State Sports Network. He is a Penn State Distinguished Alumni Award recipient.

► DICK HARLOW

A Penn State graduate, Dick Harlow served as the Nittany Lions' head coach for three seasons (1915-17), compiling a 20-8 record. A two-year letterman, he also was a member of the baseball and track teams. After leaving Penn State, Harlow was the head coach at Colgate (1922-25), Western Maryland (1926-34) and Harvard (1935-42, 45-47). At Harvard, Harlow was voted Coach of the Year in 1936 and a year later was chosen as the Ivy League Coach of the Year. He was named to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1954. A native of Philadelphia, Pa., Harlow died in 1962. He was born Oct. 19, 1889.

► BOB HIGGINS

Bob Higgins, a native of Corning, N.Y., came to Penn State as a student in 1914 and became one of only five players in the history of Nittany Lion football to earn five letters. An end on Walter Camp's All-America team in 1919, he served as captain as a senior. Higgins also lettered in baseball, boxing and wrestling and played two years of professional football with the Canton Bulldogs. His coaching career included stays at West Virginia Wesleyan and Washington University in St. Louis, before he returned to Penn State in 1928 as an assistant. Higgins was appointed the Lions' head coach in 1930 and compiled a 91-57-11 record in 19 seasons. His 1947 team was unbeaten in the regular-season and tied Southern Methodist, 13-13, in the 1948 Cotton Bowl. Higgins, who died in 1969, was elected to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1954. He was born Nov. 24, 1893.

► GLENN KILLINGER

Glenn Killinger was named to the 1921 Walter Camp All-America team at quarterback after leading Penn State to two straight undefeated seasons. He earned nine letters in football, basketball and baseball. He also coached at Penn State, Dickinson, Rensselaer, and Moravian and played professional football with the New York Giants. Killinger joined the faculty at West Chester (Pa.) State College in 1934 and served in various capacities, including head football and baseball coach, athletic director, and dean of men. A native of Harrisburg, Pa., Killinger died July 25, 1988 in Stanton, Del. He was born Sept. 13, 1898.

► TED KWALICK

Penn State's second two-time All-American, tight end Ted Kwalick was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1989. In his three-year career (1966-68), Kwalick caught 86 passes for 1,343 yards and 10 touchdowns. After making a pair of All-America teams as a junior, Kwalick was a consensus choice as a senior, while finishing fourth in the Heisman Trophy voting. He played in the College All-Star and the Coaches All-America games and the Senior Bowl following his senior season. Kwalick was a 1969 first-round draft choice of the San Francisco 49ers and enjoyed a distinguished career with the 49ers, Oakland Raiders and, briefly, the Philadelphia Bell of the World Football League, before retiring in 1977. He was a member of the Raiders' Super Bowl XI championship team and was selected to play in three Pro Bowls. In nine NFL seasons, Kwalick averaged 15.3 yards per catch on 168 pass receptions. Now living in Santa Clara, Calif., he is president of a sportswear company.

► RICH LUCAS

Rich Lucas, who was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1986, enjoyed an outstanding Penn State career as a two-way player from 1957-59. He won the Maxwell Award, was a first-team All-American at quarterback and was second in the 1959 Heisman Trophy balloting. As a senior, the Glassboro, Pa., native led Penn State to a 9-2 record and a 7-0 victory over Alabama in the first Liberty Bowl. He led the team in rushing (325 yards) and passed for 913 yards and five touchdowns, completing 58 of 117 passes. He also punted 20 times for a 34.0-yard average and returned five interceptions for 114 yards. Following a brief professional football career, he entered athletic administration at Penn State. He retired in 1998 as an assistant athletic director.

► PETE MAUTHE

Pete Mauthe lettered four years (1909-12) at fullback during which time Penn State posted a 26-2-4 record. Mauthe, captain of the 1912 team, also was an outstanding punter and placekicker. As a senior, he kicked a 52-yard field goal and scored 119 points, including 11 touchdowns. Born July 8, 1890 in Turkey City, Pa., he became president of a mining company in Youngstown, Ohio. Mauthe, who died in 1967, was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1957. He was honored in 1964 as a distinguished alumnus of the University.

► SHORTY MILLER

Eugene E. "Shorty" Miller, a 5-foot-5 quarterback who was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1974, earned Walter Camp third-team All-America honors after leading Penn State to an 8-0 record in 1912. A four-year letterman, the Harrisburg, Pa., native also served as captain of the baseball team. He played several seasons of professional football with Massillon (Ohio) and later served as a highly respected college and professional football official. He died in 1966 after a career as a teacher, coach and administrator in the Harrisburg school system. Miller was born on Nov. 15, 1890.

Ted Kwalick was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1989.

Lydell Mitchell was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 2004.

► LYDELL MITCHELL

Penn State's season and career touchdowns record-holder, Lydell Mitchell was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame on December 7, 2004. A product of Salem, N.J., Mitchell was a standout running back from 1969-71, helping the Nittany Lions to a 29-4 record. He earned first-team All-America accolades and finished fifth in Heisman Trophy balloting in 1971 after breaking three NCAA season records — most touchdowns (29), most rushing TDs (26) and points scored (174). Mitchell ran for 1,567 yards in 1971, a school season record that stood for more than 30 years. He still holds Penn State records for touchdowns in a season (29), TDs in a career (41) and rushing TDs in a career (38) and his 246 career points scored rank fifth. Mitchell played in the National Football League with Baltimore (1972-77), San Diego (1978-79) and the Los Angeles Rams (1980). He is president of the Parks Sausage Company in Baltimore, Md., and part owner of Super Bakery, Inc.

► DENNIS ONKOTZ

One of only 12 Penn State players to be named first-team All-America in consecutive years, Dennis Onkotz was a defensive mainstay of the 1968-69 undefeated teams. A native of Northampton, Pa., Onkotz amassed 287 tackles, which still ranks sixth on the Lions' career list. His 11 interceptions are tied for 10th in school history. His three interception returns for touchdowns are a career record (since tied by Darren Perry). A versatile athlete who also returned punts, Onkotz's 13.2-yard average on 47 punt returns is No. 8 among the Nittany Lions' best-ever in that department. Onkotz made the 1969 Academic All-America team and was selected to play in the 1970 Hula Bowl. Chosen by the New York Jets in the third round of the 1970 NFL draft, Onkotz was forced to retire from professional football because of a severely broken leg suffered in his rookie season. Now a financial planner with the Pennsylvania Financial Group, he lives in Boalsburg, Pa. Onkotz was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame on December 12, 1995.

► JOE PATERNO

Joe Paterno's induction into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame took place on December 4, 2007, having been postponed from 2006 due to injuries he sustained in a sideline collision during a November game at Wisconsin. Paterno was scheduled to be among the first active players or coaches inducted into the Hall of Fame. He joined active coaches Bobby Bowden and John Gagliardi as inductees. Paterno and Bowden received the Gold Medal — the Foundation's highest and most prestigious honor — at the 2006 event via a video presentation. Paterno was the 21st member of the Penn State football family to gain induction into the Hall of Fame. From Brooklyn, N.Y., Paterno joined the Nittany Lions' coaching staff in 1950 soon after his graduation from Brown University. He was named head coach in 1966, introducing his "Grand Experiment" and rapidly turning Penn State into one of the nation's premier programs. A member of the coaching staff for 62 years, 46 as the head coach, Paterno is the winningest coach in the history of major college football, earning a 409-136-3 career record (74.9). Paterno was selected the American Football Coaches Association Coach of the Year an unprecedented five times and led the Nittany Lions to seven unbeaten, untied regular-seasons and two National Championships in his 46 seasons. Paterno died from lung cancer at the age of 85 on Jan. 22, 2012 in State College, Pa.

► MIKE REID

Mike Reid, the only Penn State player to win the Outland Trophy as the "outstanding interior lineman in college football," was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1987. A bulwark of the 1968-69 teams, he was an All-American and All-East choice in 1969, when he recorded 87 tackles and returned an interception for a touchdown against Maryland. He also finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy balloting. Reid enjoyed a varied career at Penn State (1966-69), which included a lead role in the play "Guys and Dolls" and winning the 1967 Eastern heavyweight wrestling title. He starred with Cincinnati in the National Football League (1970-74), winning All-Pro honors twice, before retiring to devote full time to his music career. He has won numerous music awards, including the Grammy Award. Also a Penn State Distinguished Alumni Award recipient, he was named an NCAA Silver Anniversary Award recipient in 1995.

► GLENN RESSLER

A dominant two-way lineman from 1962-64, Glenn Ressler was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame on December 11, 2001. A native of Dornsife, Pa., Ressler won three varsity letters, excelling at center and middle guard. In his senior season of 1964, he was a consensus All-American and was the choice of Philadelphia's Maxwell Football Club as the nation's most outstanding player. Ressler played in the East-West Shrine Classic and Hula Bowl following his senior season and graduated in 1965. He played for 10 seasons with the Baltimore Colts of the National Football League after being selected in the third round of the '65 draft. He was a member of the Colts' 1969 Super Bowl team and played on Baltimore's 1971 NFL Championship squad that defeated the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl V. Ressler was selected second-team All-NFL in 1968 by the New York Daily News. He lives in Mechanicsburg, Pa., and volunteers his time to several community organizations.

► DAVE ROBINSON

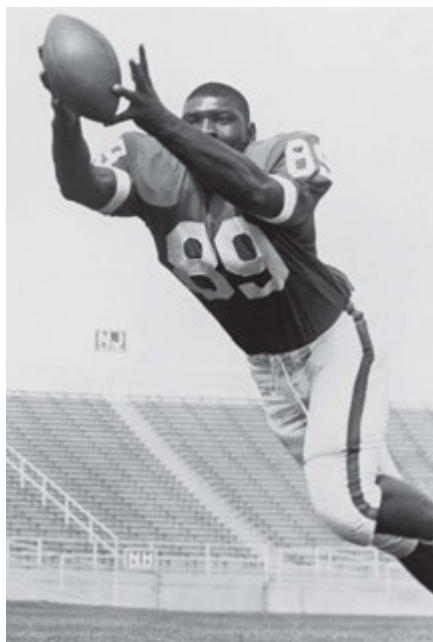

A dominant two-way end from 1960-62, Dave Robinson was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame on December 9, 1997. A product of Moorestown, N.J., Robinson was a three-year letterman playing on both sides of the ball for Coach Rip Engle. As a senior in 1962, he led Penn State to a 9-1 regular-season, made 17 receptions for 178 yards and was named a first-team All-America by the Associated Press, NEA, Football Writers (Look), Post and Time magazines. The first-team All-East choice also was named the nation's top collegiate lineman by the Philadelphia Sportswriters. Dozier became the first back to lead Penn State in rushing four consecutive seasons when he posted 811 yards on 171 carries. Dozier was selected in the first round of the 1987 National Football League Draft by Minnesota, where he spent four seasons (1987-90). He played with Detroit in 1991. He also played baseball in the New York Mets' farm system. Dozier is a minister.

► TIM JOHNSON

Defensive tackle, 1986, Sarasota, Fla., selected by Walter Camp. Johnson led the defensive linemen in tackles with 33 and made five sacks for 30 yards in losses. He was a sixth-round pick by Pittsburgh in the 1987 National Football League Draft. He played with the Steelers (1987-89), Washington (1990-95) and Cincinnati (1996). Johnson is a senior associate pastor and lives in Brentwood, Tenn.

► STEVE WISNIEWSKI

Guard, 1987 and 1988, Houston, Texas, selected by The Sporting News in 1987 and by The Sporting News and the Football Coaches (Kodak) in 1988. The third Penn State offensive lineman to win two-time All-American honors, Wisniewski was a three-year starter and capped his senior season by playing in the Hula and the Japan bowl games. Selected by the Dallas Cowboys as the first pick overall in the second round of the 1989 National Football League Draft, he was immediately traded to the Los Angeles Raiders. Wisniewski played his entire career with the Raiders (1989-2001). He lives in Danville, Calif.

► ANDRE COLLINS

Inside linebacker, 1989, Cinnaminson, N.J., selected by the Football Writers. One of five finalists for the Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker, Collins' season total of 130 tackles is fourth-best in school history. He also tied Jack Ham's season and career records for punt blocks with three and four, respectively. A second-round pick of the Washington Redskins in the 1990 National Football League Draft, he played with the Redskins (1990-94), Cincinnati (1995-97) and Chicago (1998-99). Collins resides in Arlington, Va.

► BLAIR THOMAS

Tailback, 1989, Philadelphia, Pa., selected by Walter Camp and The Football News. Thomas is the only back in Penn State history to gain 1,300 or more yards in two seasons. His lifetime totals are 3,301 rushing and 4,512 all-purpose. Thomas came back from major reconstructive knee surgery to turn in a brilliant senior season with eight 100-yard games, including six straight to close the campaign, and 1,341 yards on 264 carries. He finished 10th in voting for the 1989 Heisman Trophy. As the No. 2 pick overall by the New York Jets in the 1990 National Football League Draft, Thomas became the highest drafted Penn State player at the time since the first combined NFL-American Football League Draft in 1969. Thomas played with the Jets (1990-93), New England (1994), Dallas (1994) and Carolina (1995). He lives in King of Prussia, Pa.

► DARREN PERRY

Hero, 1991, Chesapeake, Va., selected by the Football Writers. Perry led the team with six interceptions, pushing his total to 15 for a share of second place on Penn State's career list. He had back-to-back touchdown interception returns (Boston College, Temple) to tie the Lions' season and career marks. Perry was a Top 20 finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back. He was an eighth-round pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 1992 National Football League Draft and played with the Steelers from 1992-98, after winning a starting spot as a rookie. He also played for Baltimore (1999) and New Orleans (2000). He is the safeties coach for the Green Bay Packers and has served as an assistant coach with the Pittsburgh Steelers (2003-06), the Oakland Raiders (2007-08) and Green Bay Packers (2009-14).

► O.J. McDUFFIE

Wide receiver, 1992, Warrensville Heights, Ohio, selected by the Associated Press, United Press International, Football Coaches, The Football News, Walter Camp, and Athlon Publications. McDuffie broke or tied 15 Penn State receiving, return and all-purpose yardage records. He had a record 63 receptions for 977 yards in 1992. His career total of 125 catches and his season all-purpose yardage (1,831) were records at the time. McDuffie, the first wide receiver to make the list, is eighth on Penn State's all-time chart with 3,817 all-purpose yards. McDuffie played in the 1993 Japan Bowl. He was selected in the first round of the 1993 National Football League Draft by the Miami Dolphins, the 25th player selected overall. He played nine seasons with the Dolphins (1993-2001). McDuffie lives in Plantation, Fla.

► LOU BENFATTI

Defensive tackle, 1993, Green Pond, N.J., selected by Walter Camp. Started all 49 games in his career and was Penn State's first semifinalist for the Lombardi Award since Sean Farrell in 1981. He was the 60th Penn Stater to earn first-team All-America recognition and the 45th under coach Joe Paterno. Benfatti recorded 64 tackles, six tackles for loss, five sacks, an interception, three pass breakups and one fumble recovery. He also forced a fumble in each of the last four regular-season games. Benfatti made 179 career tackles (109 solo), including 25 tackles for loss, 10 sacks and two interceptions. A team captain, he played in the 1994 East-West Shrine and Senior Bowl games. He played three seasons for the New York Jets (1994-96) after being selected in the third round of the 1994 National Football League Draft. He lives in Green Pond, N.J.

► KYLE BRADY

Tight end, 1994, New Cumberland, Pa., selected by Football Coaches and College Sports Magazine. Brady made his farewell season his best with 27 receptions for 365 yards and an average per catch of 13.5 yards — all career-highs. His intimidating blocking was an important element of Penn State's exceptional rushing attack, which ranked No. 6 nationally with 250.9 ypg. Brady was named first-team All-Big Ten for the second consecutive year. With 76 career receptions, Brady is second only to two-time All-America and Hall of Famer Ted Kwalick among Penn State tight ends. Brady, a first-round pick by the New York Jets in the 1995 National Football League Draft (ninth player overall, third Nittany Lion in the first nine picks), played from 1995-98 with the Jets. He played eight seasons with Jacksonville (1999-2006) and one (2007) for the New England Patriots. He lives in Atlantic Beach, Fla.

► KI-JANA CARTER

Running back, 1994, Westerville, Ohio, selected by the Associated Press, United Press International, Football Writers, Walter Camp, Football Coaches, The Sporting News and College Sports Magazine. Carter staked a claim to being one of the most decorated Penn State running backs of all time with a junior season in which he was fourth nationally in rushing (139.9), second in scoring (10.8 ppg) and fifth in all-purpose yardage (158.4). Carter led the Big Ten Conference in all three categories. His 7.8 yards per carry easily was the best among the nation's Top 25 rushers. Carter enjoyed a career game in the season-finale with Michigan State by piling up 227 yards on 27 carries and scoring five touchdowns. Carter was runner-up to Rashaan Salaam of Colorado for the Heisman Trophy and a finalist for the Maxwell Award. His 1994 statistics included 1,539 yards rushing, then the second-best season total in Penn State history, and 23 touchdowns. Carter was named co-MVP of the Rose Bowl with 156 rushing yards on 21 carries, including an 83-yard touchdown bolt on the Nittany Lions' first offensive play. Carter opted to forego his final season of eligibility to enter the pro draft but still earned a position among Penn State's all-time Top 10 in rushing, ranking No. 5 at the time with 2,829 yards in his three seasons. When the Cincinnati Bengals selected him as the first overall player picked in the 1995 National Football League Draft, Carter became the first Nittany Lion to be chosen No. 1. He spent six seasons with the Bengals (1995-2000), two years with Washington (2001-02) and two seasons with the New Orleans Saints (2003-04). He resides in Plantation, Fla.

► KERRY COLLINS

Quarterback, 1994, West Lawn, Pa., selected by the Associated Press, United Press International, The Football News, Football Writers, Walter Camp and The Sporting News. Collins also captured two of college football's major post-season prizes — the Maxwell Award (nation's outstanding player), and the Davey O'Brien Award (nation's top quarterback). Collins finished fourth in the Heisman Trophy balloting and garnered Player of the Year honors from ABC-TV/Chevrolet and the Big Ten. Collins posted the fourth-best season passing efficiency mark in NCAA history (172.8). He broke Penn State season records for total offense (2,660), completions (176), passing yardage (2,679), completion percentage (66.7), yards per attempt (10.15) and passing efficiency (172.86). He had 14 consecutive completions at Minnesota, another school mark. Collins was the linchpin of an explosive offense that shattered 14 school records and led the nation in scoring (47.8 ppg) and total offense (520.2 ypg.). The first-round pick of the Carolina Panthers in the 1995 National Football League Draft and the fifth player selected overall, Collins enjoyed a 17-year career in the NFL. He played for Carolina (1995-98), the New Orleans Saints (part of the 1998 season), the New York Giants (1999-2003), Oakland Raiders (2004-05), Tennessee Titans (2006-10) and the Indianapolis Colts (2011). He capped the 2000 season by leading the Giants to Super Bowl XXXV. Collins lives in Nashville, Tenn.

Odrick became the sixth Penn State defensive lineman to earn first-team All-America accolades since 1999. The Big Ten coaches selected Odrick the 2009 Defensive Player of the Year and Defensive Lineman of the Year. He became the first interior defensive lineman selected for the Big Ten's top defensive honor since Dan Wilkinson in 1993. Odrick garnered first-team all-conference honors for the second consecutive year. He was No. 7 in the Big Ten with 7.0 sacks. Odrick was fifth on the team with 43 tackles and had 11.0 tackles for loss (minus-72), a blocked field goal in the win at Northwestern during the 2009 season. Odrick played three seasons with the Miami Dolphins after being selected in the first round of the 2010 NFL Draft.

► STEFEN WISNIEWSKI

Guard, 2010, Bridgeville, Pa., selected by the American Football Coaches Association. He also received All-America honors from the Associated Press, Walter Camp Football Foundation, CBSsports.com, Rivals.com and Scout.com. Wisniewski became the 11th Penn State offensive lineman to receive first-team All-America honors under Joe Paterno. He was first-team All-Big Ten in 2009 and 2010 and became the Nittany Lions' eighth three-time all-conference honoree. A starter in 38 of the last 39 games of his career, Wisniewski became the program's first three-time CoSIDA Academic All-American, earning first-team honors in 2009 and '10. He also was selected a National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete and was named to the AFCA Good Works Team. Wisniewski, a second-round pick by the Oakland Raiders in the 2011 NFL Draft, has played four seasons with the Raiders.

► DEVON STILL

Defensive tackle, 2011, Wilmington, Del., selected by the Associated Press, Walter Camp Football Foundation, Football Writers Association of America, The Sporting News, Pro Football Weekly, CBSsports.com, ESPN.com, SI.com, Rivals.com, FoxSportsNet.com and Yahoo! Sports. Still became the sixth Penn State defensive lineman to earn first-team All-America accolades since 2002. Still was a finalist for the Chuck Bednarik Award, Bronko Nagurski Trophy and Outland Trophy. A two-year starter, who overcame two serious injuries early in his career, Still was selected the 2011 Big Ten Smith-Brown Defensive Lineman of the Year and the conference's Nagurski-Woodson Defensive Player of the Year. He was second in the Big Ten in solo tackles for loss with 15, made 4.5 sacks (minus-36) and recorded 55 total tackles, with one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. He was selected by the Cincinnati Bengals in the second round of the 2012 NFL Draft and has played three seasons with the Bengals.

Devon Still was a unanimous All-American after finishing second in the Big Ten in solo tackles for loss.

Carl Nassib led FBS in sacks (15.5) and forced fumbles (6) en route to winning three national awards.

► MICHAEL MAUTI

Linebacker, 2012, Mandeville, La., selected by ESPN.com. He was a semifinalist for the Butkus Award and was selected the Big Ten Butkus-Fitzgerald Linebacker of the Year. Returning to the field after his second serious knee injury, Mauti earned first-team All-Big Ten honors from the coaches and media. A passionate leader and team co-captain, Mauti was the only Big Ten player ranked in the top 10 in the conference in tackles (6th, 96), interceptions (7th, 3) and forced fumbles (3rd, 3). He also led the Big Ten in interception return yards (125). Mauti recorded 4.0 TFL, 2.5 sacks (minus-25), three interceptions, three forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and two pass breakups in 2012. He was selected Penn State's 2012 Outstanding Senior Player. He has played for the Minnesota Vikings after being a seventh-round pick in the 2013 NFL Draft.

► ALLEN ROBINSON

Wide receiver, 2013, Southfield, Mich., selected by Sporting News and CBSsports.com. Robinson also earned second-team All-America honors from the Football Writers Association of America and SI.com and third-team accolades by the Associated Press. The 2012 and 2013 Big Ten Richter-Howard Receiver of the Year, Robinson was the first player since at least 1985 to lead the conference in receptions and receiving yardage in consecutive seasons. His combined 174 receptions and 2,445 receiving yards in 2012-13 rank No. 3 in Big Ten history for consecutive seasons. A semifinalist for the 2013 Biletnikoff Award as a junior, Robinson attained first-team All-Big Ten honors from the coaches and media in 2012 and '13. He led the Big Ten with school season records in receptions (97) and receiving yardage (1,432) for the second consecutive year. He made six TD catches in 2013 (17 career, fifth place). Robinson ranks second in school career receptions (177) and third in career receiving yardage (2,474 yards), with numbers compiled almost entirely in the 2012 and '13 seasons (3 catches for 29 yards in 2011). His eight 100-yard receiving games in 2013 also were a Penn State season record. Allen plays for the Jacksonville Jaguars, who selected him in the second round of the 2014 NFL Draft.

► CARL NASSIB

Defensive end, 2015, West Chester, Pa., selected by AFCA, FWAA, Walter Camp, Associated Press, Sporting News, ESPN.com, SI.com, CBS Sports and Athlon Sports. Nassib became the 13th unanimous consensus All-American in program history and the 41st overall after a suburb senior campaign. He was also the winner of the the 46th Rotary Lombardi Award for the nation's top lineman (offense or defense) or linebacker, the 14th Ted Hendricks Award for the nation's top defensive end and the Lott IMPACT Trophy for the top defensive player that represent the qualities embodied by Hall of Famer Ronnie Lott – Integrity, Maturity, Performance, Academics, Community and Tenacity. He was named the CBS Sports National Defensive Player of the Year, as well. Nassib was also a finalist for the Burlsworth Trophy (top player that started his career as a walk-on), the Nagurski Trophy (nation's top defensive player) and Bednarik Award (nation's top defensive player). The West Chester, Pennsylvania native was picked as the Big Ten's Nagurski-Woodson Defensive Player of the Year and earned first team All-Big Ten honors. Despite playing only four snaps in the last two regular-season games due to injury, Nassib led FBS in sacks (15.5) and forced fumbles (6) and was 11th in FBS and second in the Big Ten in tackles for loss (19.5). He became the first Nittany Lion to lead the nation in sacks and forced fumbles and joined placekicker Matt Bahr (1978) and running back Larry Johnson (2002) as the only Penn Staters to lead the nation in two statistical categories in the same season. He is the first Nittany Lion to lead the country in a statistical category since Larry Johnson's 2002 rushing title. With one sack at Northwestern, Nassib broke the Penn State single-season sacks record by upping his total to 15.5. He surpasses the mark of 15 sacks set by Larry Kubin (1979) and Michael Haynes (2002).

SIGNIFICANT DATES IN PENN STATE FOOTBALL HISTORY

Penn State's first varsity football team began play in 1887 and recorded shutouts of nearby Bucknell in its only two games that season.

February 22, 1855 — Pennsylvania Governor James Pollock signs the charter creating the Farmers' High School of Pennsylvania with its location to be determined.

September 1855 — Two-hundred acres of farm land outside the village of Centre Furnace in Centre County are chosen as the location of the Farmers' High School after a review committee, headed by Governor James Pollock, visits other proposed sites in Allegheny, Butler, Erie and Perry counties.

February 16, 1859 — Sixty-nine students show up for the first day of classes at the new Farmers' High School of Pennsylvania.

1862 — The Farmers' High School of Pennsylvania is given a new name as the Agriculture College of Pennsylvania in anticipation of being given official recognition as a land grant college under the federal Morrill Act.

1874 — The name of the college is officially changed to Pennsylvania State College. The town's post office takes the name State College.

November 12, 1881 — Penn State College students organize a football team without administration support and play the first game against the University of Lewisburg (renamed Bucknell University in 1896) in Lewisburg. Penn State wins, 9-0, in a cold, sleet-like drizzle.

September 1887 — George "Lucy" Linsz arrives on campus as a freshman and, with the help of fellow freshman Charles Hildebrand, gets approval from President George Atherton to organize the first official football team for Penn State College.

Fall 1887 — Pink and Black are picked as the team colors.

November 12, 1887 — The first official game is played against Bucknell at Lewisburg. Penn State wins, 54-0.

November 19, 1887 — The first home game is played on Old Main lawn. Captain and quarterback "Lucy" Linsz scores three second-half touchdowns to lead Penn State to a 24-0 win over Bucknell.

Fall 1888 — The team colors are changed to Blue and White. A Student Athletic Association is formed to help support athletics with three divisions, including football, baseball and general.

November 11, 1889 — Penn State is handed its worst all-time defeat, 106-0, by Lehigh at Bethlehem. Penn State plays the first half with only nine players; the referee mercifully stops the game with five minutes left to play.

March 18, 1890 — Blue and White are formally adopted as the college colors at a meeting of the Athletic Association.

November 7, 1891 — Penn State plays its biggest game since 1887 against Bucknell for the lead in the Pennsylvania Intercollegiate Foot-Ball Association and loses a mistake-prone game, 12-10.

January 9, 1892 — Penn State is awarded the first championship of the Pennsylvania Intercollegiate Foot-Ball Association after finishing with a 4-1 league record, edging out "bitter rival" Bucknell (3-1-1).

January 1892 — George "The General" Hoskins is hired as the first "official" head football coach and first director of physical training for the Athletic Association.

Spring 1892 — Football players participate in the first spring practice as George Hoskins stresses physical conditioning and teamwork.

November 6, 1893 — Beaver Field (later known as Old Beaver Field) is dedicated with General James Beaver and his wife present, as Penn State plays its first game against Pitt, then known as Western University of Pennsylvania, and wins easily, 32-0. Funding of $15,000 from the State Legislature helps in the construction of the venue, including a 500-seat grandstand, located between present-day Osmond and Frear laboratories in center campus.

October 13, 1894 — Charlie Atherton sets four all-time records that still stand in the opening game, a 60-0 win against Gettysburg. Atherton kicks 10-of-10 extra point attempts to set the game extra points record for accuracy, points and attempts, and also adds three touchdowns for the most points in a game by a senior (32).

November 10, 1894 — Bill Suter establishes a Penn State record that has never been broken for the longest touchdown run from scrimmage with a 90-yard dash around right end for the only Penn State touchdown in a 6-6 tie with Navy in Annapolis.

November 24, 1894 — Charlie Atherton kicks one of the first placements from scrimmage in the history of college football; his 25-yard boot in a 9-6 win over Oberlin is ignored by historians.

November 29, 1894 — Penn State finishes its first unbeaten season with a 14-0 win over the Pittsburgh Athletic Club and a final 6-0-1 record.

Summer 1896 — George Hoskins resigns as "head coach" to become coach at Pitt and Dr. Sam Newton is hired as his replacement.

September 1897 — "Henny" Scholl introduces the first helmet during fall practice. It actually is a derby hat with the brim cut off and rags stuffed inside for padding. It gets little usage. The Athletic Association sets a mandatory student fee of $2 to support athletic programs, including football.

October 30, 1897 — The "Hidden Ball Trick" is used for the first time in intercollegiate football by Cornell against Penn State in a game at Ithaca. Cornell wins, 45-0.

Summer 1898 — Dr. Sam Newton resigns as "head coach" to coach at Lafayette. Sam Boyle is hired as his replacement as coach and trainer.

Fall 1898 — The school's loosely organized drum and bugle corps expands to create a full-sized Cadet Band, which later changes its name to the Blue Band.

December 1898 — Junior guard "Brute" Randolph becomes the first Penn State player named to the All-America team, when selected by Walter Camp for the 1898 third team.

Spring-Fall 1899 — Sam Boyle of the University of Pennsylvania is hired as "head coach" but leaves at the end of the season.

October 7, 1899 — Star quarterback Earl Hewitt runs back a punt 65 yards for the only touchdown, then makes a game-saving tackle on the Penn State six-yard line late in the game as Penn State upsets Army, 6-0, in the first meeting of the two teams at West Point. Penn State will not beat Army again for 60 years.

Summer 1900 — William "Pop" Golden is hired as head coach and director of physical training for the Athletic Association.

October 1903 — Pop Golden is chosen as the school's first unofficial athletic director and gives up the position of head coach of the football team. Dan Reed of Cornell is hired as head coach for the last month of the season and decides not to return in 1904.

October 24, 1903 — In the first game at Pitt, Carl Forkum scores 39 points on five TDs and 9-of-10 PATs and Irish McIlveen scores two touchdowns — one on a 56-yard run — as Penn State clobbers Pitt, 59-0, in what would be the biggest margin of victory in the series for 65 years.

Winter 1904 — Tom Fennell, Cornell star of the 1890s, is hired as the first full-time head coach.

October 1, 1904 — Carl Forkum sets the all-time kickoff return record with a 115-yard runback for a touchdown in a 50-0 win over Allegheny, but his feat is never listed in the Penn State record books.

November 3, 1905 — Penn State sets a team scoring record with a 73-0 win over Geneva at Beaver Field as nine players score touchdowns.

Center W.T. "Mother" Dunn was selected Penn State's initial first-team All-American in 1906. The team captain led Penn State to an 8-1-1 record, with eight shutout victories

October 6, 1906 — Penn State wins one of its biggest games ever with a 4-0 victory over the Carlisle Indians before 4,000 fans at Williamsport as freshman "Bull" McCleary kicks a 35-yard field goal for the only points.

October 20, 1906 — Ed Cyphers runs the "wrong way" after recovering a blocked kick during the big game with Yale in New Haven and his "bad luck" error helps lose the game, 10-0. It will be the only defeat of the season.

November 29, 1906 — The first of Penn State's outstanding teams compiles an 8-1-1 record after beating Pitt, 6-0, on Thanksgiving Day in Pittsburgh on a touchdown in the last 30 seconds, setting a record of nine shutouts that remains the all-time best for the Nittany Lions.

December 1906 — Center William "Mother" Dunn becomes Penn State's initial first-team All-American when selected by Walter Camp.

March 17, 1907 — Senior H.D. "Joe" Mason advocates adopting a Lion as the college mascot in an article in the humor magazine Lemon. Mason says the idea evolved when he was a freshman baseball player during a 1904 game with the Princeton Tigers, and that he answered taunts by Princeton players that the "king of the beasts" — Lions — roamed the Nittany Valley until becoming extinct from hunting by Indians and settlers. Penn State beat Princeton that day in 1904, 9-1. Students later vote to adopt a mountain Lion as the mascot, and Penn State becomes the first college to use Lion as its symbol.

October 26, 1907 — Penn State sets a team scoring record with a 75-0 win over Lebanon Valley at Beaver Field. Sophomore "Bull" McCleary scores five touchdowns in the game, setting a season scoring record of 13 touchdowns (which remained the record until broken by Charlie Pittman in 1968).

November 28, 1907 — Penn State's former football captains and managers meet in Pittsburgh on Thanksgiving evening to form an organization that becomes the forerunner of today's Varsity Letterman's Club.

September 19, 1908 — Penn State loses its first and only game on Old Beaver Field in a shocking 6-5 upset by Bellefonte Academy.

November 7, 1908 — A record crowd of several thousand (exact figure unknown) turns out as Penn State plays the final game on Old Beaver Field, beating Bucknell, 33-6. The victory is the 48th against only one defeat on the playing field.

Spring-Summer 1909 — Tom Fennell resigns as head coach and Bill Hollenback, All-American fullback and captain of the 1908 University of Pennsylvania team, is hired as his replacement with the title of "advisory coach." Former Penn State player and then current baseball coach "Irish" McIlveen is given the title of "head coach."

September 1909 — Penn State's first great recruiting class enters school and starts football practice. The recruits include two future members of the College Football Hall of Fame — Pete Mauthe and Dexter Very.

October 2, 1909 — Two major milestones in Penn State football history take place as Penn State records its 100th all-time victory and the first game is played at New Beaver Field near Rec Hall. A crowd of 500 sees Penn State beat Grove City, 31-0, with Captain Larry Vorhis, the quarterback, scoring the first touchdown and kicking a field goal.

October 9, 1909 — Penn State gives up the lead on a two-point safety in the last minute to allow Pop Warner's Carlisle Indians to gain 8-8 tie before 10,000 at the neutral site of Wilkes-Barre. A major brawl breaks out after game when Penn State and Carlisle players fight over which team gets the "victory" ball.

October 23, 1909 — After 15 consecutive defeats since the series began in 1890, Penn State ties Pennsylvania, 3-3, at Franklin Field. The Nittany Lions go on to finish the year at 5-0-2 for their second undefeated season in history.

Summer 1910 — Bill Hollenback resigns to accept a one-year position as head coach at Missouri. Hollenback's older brother, Jack, takes over as "advisory coach" and McIlveen continues as "head coach."

November 12, 1910 — An admission fee is charged at a home game for the first time as Penn State beats Bucknell, 45-3.

Summer 1911 — Bill Hollenback returns from Missouri to again become coach, still with the title of "advisory coach." Former star running back and 1908 captain "Bull" McCleary is named "head coach."

October 14, 1911 — Penn State pulls off a major upset over Cornell, 5-0, in Ithaca, touching off a riot in State College that has been called the worst in history following a football game. Students and townspeople fight with fists, clubs and shovels throughout the streets and alleys of the borough after which school officials apologized.

October 28, 1911 — Penn State beats Pennsylvania for the first time, 22-6, as "Shorty" Miller shocks the crowd of 15,000 at Franklin Field by running back the opening kickoff 95 yards for a touchdown.

December 12, 1911 — New eligibility rules are adopted by the Athletic Association requiring athletes to finish their education in four years and eliminating rules that allowed athletes to take less credit hours than the minimum requirements for a freshman.

Spring 1912 — Pop Golden resigns as unofficial athletic director to enter private business.

October 12, 1912 — The largest crowd at New Beaver Field since its opening in 1909 — 4,000 fans — watches as Penn State beats Washington & Jefferson, 30-0. Pete Mauthe kicks three field goals to set the record for most field goals in a game.

November 16, 1912 — Penn State "upsets" Ohio State at Columbus in the first game between the two teams by the unofficial score of 37-0. The Buckeyes walk off the field with nine minutes left to play claiming "unnecessary roughness" and the score is officially recorded as a 1-0 forfeit.

November 28, 1912 — Penn State's greatest team to date beats Pitt, 38-0, on Thanksgiving Day at Forbes Field to finish with an 8-0 record, outscoring opponents 256-6 and ending a two-year run of 16-0-1. Pete Mauthe sets the record for the longest field goal with a 51-yard boot. The kick remains the record until broken by Chris Bahr in 1975. Mauthe scores a total of 20 points, with two touchdowns and five extra points. Mauthe also sets an individual season scoring record of 119 points, that is not broken until 1971, with 11 touchdowns, 8 field goals and 29 PATs.

February 5, 1913 — A rule is adopted by the Athletic Association requiring athletes to "be in good standing for a four-year collegiate course." This tightened eligibility requirement eliminated the so-called "tramp athlete" who would be on a campus for only one year to play a specific sport while taking a few courses and then move on to another college.

Fall 1913 — A new fight song called "Victory" ("Fight, Fight, Fight, For the Blue and White") is introduced by its author, undergraduate Jimmy Leydon, and sung at all football games.

October 4, 1913 — "Shorty" Miller sets the game rushing record that lasts 68 years with 250 yards, including five touchdowns on runs of 23, 55, 47, 37 and 40 yards as Penn State beats Carnegie Tech, 49-0, at New Beaver Field in the 1913 season-opener.

November 8, 1913 — Penn State loses its first game at New Beaver Field before a record crowd of "several thousand" in its first ever major intersectional game and first game against Notre Dame. The Fighting Irish win, 14-7, in a game that ends with a controversial referee decision nullifying a Penn State touchdown. Knute Rockne catches a touchdown pass from Gus Dorais for Notre Dame that helps end Penn State's 20-game home unbeaten streak.

October 25, 1914 — Penn State stops Harvard's 22-game winning streak with a 13-13 tie at Cambridge, as Harvard, considered the best team in the country, rallies on a trick-play touchdown in the last minutes of the game. A celebration on campus two days later causes injuries and major damage to school buildings as a bonfire explodes.

November 13, 1914 — A record crowd of 10,000, including governor John K. Tener, watch on Pennsylvania Day as Penn State loses its second major intersectional game at New Beaver Field in its first game with Michigan State, 6-3.

December 1914 — Bill Hollenback resigns as head coach to enter private business in Philadelphia.

January 2, 1915 — Assistant coach Dick Harlow becomes the first former Penn State player to be named as official head coach of the football team.

December 1, 1915 — Sophomore end Bob Higgins becomes the first Penn State underclassman to earn first-team All-American honors when picked by International News Service.

Penn State students met the wagons returning the football team from the Lemont train station after Penn State beat powerhouse Pennsylvania for the first time, 22-6, on October 28, 1911 in Philadelphia.

November 4, 1916 — Penn State breaks a nine-year-old scoring record with a 79-0 rout over Geneva at New Beaver Field.

October 6, 1917 — Junior Harry Robb sets a record — that has never been broken — for most touchdowns in a game with six in an 80-0 rout of Gettysburg at New Beaver Field, as the team again shatters the game scoring record.

October 13, 1917 — Penn State breaks its one-week old team scoring record with a 99-0 win over St. Bonaventure at New Beaver Field. Nine players score touchdowns, including three by Harry Robb.

November 17, 1917 — Harry Robb ties "Bull" McCleary's season record for touchdowns with 13 by scoring three touchdowns as Penn State plays Maryland for first time and wins, 57-0, at New Beaver Field.

July 1918 — Dick Harlow asks out of his contract as head coach to enter military service. He says he will return.

July 18, 1918 — Lt. Levi Lamb, a star lineman on the teams of 1912-14, is killed near Soissons, France, while leading his Army platoon against a German stronghold. He is one of two former players to die in World War I as 1912 teammate Red Bebout is killed on a French battlefield on Sept. 29, 1918.

August 25, 1918 — Hugo Bezdek, manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates Baseball Club, is hired as head football coach and director of physical education with supervision over intercollegiate sports.

November 27, 1918 — Penn State completes an unusual season because of World War I by losing, 28-6, at Pitt and finishing with a 1-2-1 record.

Fall 1919 — Dick Harlow returns to Penn State to serve as assistant coach to Hugo Bezdek.

October 4, 1919 — A new song — "The Nittany Lion" — is introduced at the opening game against Gettysburg at New Beaver Field. The first words, "Hail to the Lion, Loyal and True," written by Jimmy Leyden, will become familiar to generations of Penn State fans.

November 27, 1919 — End Bob Higgins takes a flat-pass near his own goal line from Bill Hess on a fake punt and officially runs 92 yards for a touchdown for the longest pass play in Penn State history (historians say it should have been recorded as 95 yards). The surprise play helps Penn State down Pitt, 20-0, to finish with its best season since 1912, but Penn State will not beat Pitt again for 20 years.

September 25, 1920 — New wood grandstands are added to New Beaver Field's East side, raising the seating capacity to 5,500, but only 2,500 show up for the season-opening 27-7 victory over Muhlenberg.

October 9, 1920 — On the first alumni "Home-Coming" day, a record standing-room crowd of 12,000 turns out to see Penn State beat Dartmouth, 14-7.

October 16, 1920 — In only the third major intersectional game at New Beaver Field, and the first since 1914, Penn State clobbers North Carolina State, 41-0.

October 23, 1920 — Penn State sets the all-time team scoring record with a 109-7 win over Lebanon Valley at New Beaver Field, coming back from a 7-0 first-quarter deficit. Charley Way scores three touchdowns in the first quarter to lead the rout.

November 6, 1920 — Penn State wins its fourth major intersectional game at New Beaver Field in its first game against Nebraska, 20-0, on Pennsylvania Day. Glenn Killinger and Charley Way combine to lead the as each scores a TD and Killinger passes for another.

September 24, 1921 — New Beaver Field opens its first press box, located atop the West stands. The press box is used for the first time in a 53-0 season-opening win over Lebanon Valley.

October 22, 1921 — Penn State gives up a touchdown in the fourth-quarter darkness at Cambridge as heavily favored Harvard manages to come back for a 21-21 tie in a game many sportswriters at the time called "one of the greatest football games ever."

October 29, 1921 — In the first Penn State game played in New York City, Penn State easily beats national power Georgia Tech, 28-7, at the Polo Grounds as Glenn Killinger's 85-yard kickoff for a touchdown breaks open the game and helps make him a first-team All-American.

December 3, 1921 — Penn State plays its first game on the West Coast, beating Washington, 21-7, before 35,000 in Seattle to complete an 8-0-2 season and its 24th straight game without a defeat.

September 23, 1922 — The New Beaver Field seating capacity is increased to 12,000 as the 1922 season opens with a 54-0 victory over St. Bonaventure.

October 28, 1922 — The Nittany Lion mascot makes its first appearance on the field dressed in an African Lion uniform during Penn State's first game against Syracuse played at New York's Polo Grounds. Dick Hoffman, Class of '23, dresses in the uniform of a maned African Lion that he had worn while appearing in the Penn State Players' production of George Bernard Shaw's "Androcles and the Lion." Penn State and Syracuse battle to a 0-0 tie before a crowd of 25,000.

November 3, 1922 — Navy uses a fake punt and fumble recovery to end Penn State's 30-game unbeaten streak, 14-0, before 35,000 spectators at Washington's American League Park. Dozens of congressional, government and foreign leaders and many of college football's leading coaches, players and sportswriters are in attendance.

January 1, 1923 — Penn State plays in its first bowl game, the 1923 Rose Bowl at Pasadena, and loses to Southern California, 14-7, but receives $21,350 for participating in the game. It is the first Rose Bowl played at its present site in Pasadena's Arroyo Seco area and the first appearance in the game by Southern California. The contest is the first radio broadcast of a Penn State game and any post-season game by Los Angeles radio station KHJ.

September 29, 1923 — Additional wooden bleachers are constructed at New Beaver Field, raising the seating capacity to 13,500. Just 3,000 turn out to see Penn State beat Lebanon Valley, 58-0, in the season-opener.

October 20, 1923 — A New Beaver Field attendance record of 20,000 is set as Penn State upsets unbeaten Navy, 21-3, in the Homecoming game. "Light Horse" Harry Wilson has his greatest game, rushing for 123 yards and scoring all three Penn State touchdowns with a 55-yard interception return, a 95-yard kickoff return and a 72-yard run off a fake reverse.

Spring 1924 — Bas Gray becomes the first junior elected team captain.

September 15, 1924 — The football team moves into new Varsity Hall, across the street from New Beaver Field. Varsity Hall includes dormitory rooms, a training table and football locker room. The building name is later changed to Irvin Hall after athletes move out and now is an undergraduate residence hall.

October 25, 1924 — Penn State's 29-game winning streak at New Beaver Field comes to an end as Syracuse wins the Homecoming game, 10-6. The streak began after a loss to Rutgers during World War I in 1918.

November 7, 1925 — Penn State surprises Notre Dame by tying the Irish, 0-0, in driving rain and mud on Homecoming at New Beaver Field before a record-breaking crowd reported as 25,000 by several newspapers. But official attendance is listed as 20,000.

November 14, 1925 — Penn State visits West Virginia for the first time to participate in dedication ceremonies for West Virginia's new Mountaineer Field, and loses, 14-0.

January 14, 1926 — The Penn State administration appoints an alumni committee to study football policies in the wake of allegations by the Carnegie Foundation and others that Penn State over-emphasizes sport to the detriment of educational goals of higher education.

October 9, 1926 — Penn State wins its 200th game by beating Marietta, 48-6, at New Beaver Field. Cy Lungren runs back a kickoff 95 yards for a touchdown to spark the win.

October 16, 1926 — Penn State loses its 100th football game as Notre Dame wins, 28-0, in the Nittany Lions' first visit to South Bend, Ind.

December 25, 1926 — Dr. Ralph Hetzel becomes Penn State's 10th president and calls for stronger supervision of the athletic programs, especially football, by the administration.

February 26, 1927 — A blue ribbon committee known as the Beaver White Committee issues its final report recommending the elimination of all athletic scholarships and the creation of two separate bodies to supervise Penn State's athletic programs for athletes and students: the Board of Athletic Control and the Department of Physical Education.

August 10, 1927 — The newly organized Board of Athletic Control ends all financial aid to athletes beginning with 1928 incoming freshmen and recommends that Penn State athletic officials "not scout opponents' games regardless of scouting policies of opponents."

October 1, 1927 — The first radio broadcast of a Penn State football game is carried over the college station, WPSC. Assistant coach Larry Conover describes the action in a 34-13 win over Gettysburg. Conover goes on to broadcast four more games from New Beaver Field in the 1927 season.

October 22, 1927 — Penn State beats Syracuse for the first time, after four defeats and a tie, as captain Johnny Roepke shakes off an injury and sparks the team to victory by kicking a 21-yard field goal and making a game-saving tackle on the ensuing kickoff in a 9-6 victory at Archbold Stadium.

November 24, 1927 — The first away game is broadcast over radio by KDKA in Pittsburgh as undefeated Pitt scores the most points against Penn State in 11 years to win 30-0 at Pitt Stadium.

September 29, 1928 — The first radio broadcast of a Penn State game by students is done over the college station, WPSC. Sophomore Ken Holderman (later a university vice president and trustee) does play-by-play in a 25-0 victory over Lebanon Valley.

January 19, 1929 — A new athletic building, soon to be known as Recreation Hall, is used for the first time for "winter" football practice. The $600,000 building is dedicated on March 23, 1929 during the weekend of the Intercollegiate Boxing Championships.

Penn State and Gettysburg played every season from 1919-24 at New Beaver Field, with the Nittany Lions posting six consecutive shutout wins.

October 26, 1929 — Cooper French and Frank Diedrich team for one of the greatest punt returns in history in an impromptu razzle-dazzle 60-yard lateral-and-run for a touchdown on the last play of the game to defeat Lafayette, 6-3, before a disbelieving but cheering Homecoming crowd of 10,000 at New Beaver Field.

October 29, 1929 — The Carnegie Foundation releases a 383-page report on the Advancement of Teaching condemning Penn State and other colleges for dishonesty in over-emphasizing football and other intercollegiate sports by giving athletic scholarships and urged a return to amateurism. Carnegie later issues an addendum declaring Penn State had changed policies two years previously, but the addendum is virtually ignored by the public and press and Penn State's educational image is damaged. (The stock market crashes this same day, precipitating a nationwide depression.)

March 27, 1930 — Former two-time All-American Bob Higgins is promoted from assistant coach to head coach of the football team.

October 31, 1931 — Pitt coach Jock Sutherland rests his first team and plays the scrubs the entire game as the Panthers clobber the Nittany Lions, 41-6, scoring the most points since the series began, then insults the New Beaver Field Homecoming crowd by working out his first team for 15 minutes after game. Fans did not know that Sutherland had received Bob Higgins' approval before the game for the workout. This was Pitt's first visit to Penn State since 1902, and the teams did not play again until 1935.

November 28, 1931 — Penn State ends a seven-game losing streak, which remains the school record, by beating Lehigh, 31-0, in a post-season game for charity at Philadelphia's Franklin Field and ends the season with its worst record in history, 2-8.

October 14, 1933 — Penn State football hits a low point when Muhlenberg wins in a major upset, 3-0, at New Beaver Field. The team goes on to a 3-3-1 record.

October 20, 1934 — Penn State wins its first regular-season road game in five years and the first away game in the Higgins era with 31-0 win over Lehigh in Bethlehem.

September 1, 1936 — Penn State opens preseason practice with its first all-alumni coaching staff: Bob Higgins ('20), head coach; Joe Bedenk ('24), Earle Edwards ('31) and Al Michaels (Mikelonis) ('35), varsity assistants; and Marty McAndrews ('30), freshman coach.

October 1, 1936 — Former head coach Hugo Bezdek agrees to a one-year leave of absence with pay from the position of director of the Physical Education School, and resigns a year later.

October 6, 1936 — Four surviving members of the 1881 "forgotten pioneers" team are officially recognized as playing in Penn State's first intercollegiate football game and given Varsity "S" letters.

Fall 1937 — Dr. Carl P. Schott is hired as the director of Physical Education and de facto Dean of Athletics.

October 2, 1937 — The first game is filmed on request by the coaches to help the team in practice. Penn State beats Gettysburg, 32-6, at New Beaver Field, but the film shot by student cameramen is too dark and Bob Higgins hires zoology instructor and part-time track coach Ray Conger to take charge of filming, a position Conger holds for 39 years.

November 13, 1937 — Penn State clinches its first winning season since 1929 and the first in Bob Higgins' coaching regime by beating Maryland in the last minute at New Beaver Field, 21-14, but loses the next week to National Champion Pitt and finishes with a 5-3 record.

September 26, 1938 — Ridge Riley writes and publishes the first "Football Newsletter" with a preseason analysis of the 1938 season.

October 1, 1938 — The first Penn State radio network is set up and starts broadcasting with an opening game against Maryland at New Beaver Field. KDKA Pittsburgh originates a broadcast with Bill Sutherland on play-by-play and Jack Barry doing color commentary as Penn State wins, 38-0.

October 29, 1938 — Two players each get 100 yards in a game for the first time as sophomore Chuck Peters (156 yards) and junior Steve Rollins (122) help lead Penn State to a 33-6 win over Syracuse at New Beaver Field.

November 20, 1938 — Penn State loses, 26-0, at Pitt to finish with 3-4-1 record that will be the last losing season for 49 years. Despite the record, the team sets three NCAA defensive records, including one for fewest yards passing allowed per game (13.1 yards average) that still stands.

Penn State and West Virginia tied, 13-13, on October 27, 1923 at Yankee Stadium in New York.

November 25, 1939 — Future All-American Leon Gajewski leads Penn State to its first victory over Pitt in 20 years in a 10-0 upset before a record-tying crowd of 20,000 at New Beaver Field and Penn State finishes the year with its best record since 1921 at 5-1-2.

November 9, 1940 — Juniors Bill Smaltz and Lenny Krouse team for the greatest passing day to date as Smaltz completes 14-of-21 passes (including 12 in succession that remained a record until 1994) for 193 yards and two touchdowns and Krouse catches 10 for two touchdowns and 155 yards.

November 16, 1940 — Chuck Peters sets the all-time kickoff return record with a 101-yard touchdown return on the opening kickoff of a 25-0 win over NYU. It's his second touchdown runback of the season (96 yards at Temple to open the second half) and sets the season record for kickoff touchdown returns now shared by Curt Warner (1980).

November 23, 1940 — Penn State loses its first and only game of the season and a chance for a bowl game when upset by Pitt, 20-7, at Pitt Stadium.

September 1941 — Dave Alston and his brother, Harry, of Midland, Pa., become the first African-American players on the Penn State team. Dave becomes the star of the unbeaten freshman team and is selected by some preseason magazines as college football's "sophomore of the year."

September 1941 — The State College Quarterback Club organizes and meets for the first time to sponsor Wednesday luncheons with head football coach Bob Higgins, players and other assistant coaches.

October 31, 1941 — Penn State plays its first night game, at New York's Polo Grounds, against New York University and wins, 42-0, in heavy rain on a sloppy field.

November 12, 1941 — Led by Dave and Harry Alston, Steve Suhey and Red Moore, the freshman team goes unbeaten for the first time since 1916 with a 5-0 record. Dave Alston scores eight touchdowns, passes for four others and drop-kicks six extra points in one of the school's outstanding individual freshman performances ever.

September 10, 1941 — The Athletic Board authorizes freshmen to play on varsity teams for the duration of World War II.

August 15, 1942 — Freshman star Dave Alston, Penn State's first African-American player, dies in Bellefonte Hospital after a tonsillectomy operation, but his death is traced to injuries suffered in a spring practice scrimmage against Navy. (Brother Harry is so shaken he never returns to school.)

September 1, 1942 — The first radio network, organized by KDKA, dissolves because of World War II. A major gasoline sponsor can't get enough gas to sell.

October 24, 1942 — The Nittany Lion Shrine, created by famed sculptor Heinz Warneke, near the entrance of New Beaver Field is dedicated during halftime of a 13-10 Homecoming win over Colgate. H.D. "Joe" Mason, Class of 1907, who instigated the move for a Lion as the mascot, is among the crowd of 11,510.

November 14, 1942 — In one of the biggest upsets of the Higgins era, Penn State shocks Penn, 13-7, before 50,000 at Franklin Field behind the punting of Joe Colone and the running and defensive play of Larry Joe, who is carried off the field at the end of the game.

November 30, 1942 — Penn State is ranked for the first time by the Associated Press at season's end, tying at No. 19 with defending National Champion Minnesota and Holy Cross, as a team dominated by sophomores and freshmen surprises the nation with a 6-1-1 record.

November 13, 1943 — Snow forces some officials to be late for the Temple game at New Beaver Field as Doggie Alexander, owner of the Rathskeller tavern, comes out of the stands to be the field judge and Philadelphia Inquirer sportswriter Stan Baumgartner leaves the press box to serve as the head linesman. Only one 15-yard penalty is called in Penn State's 13-0 win.

October 21, 1944 — Larry Cooney, 16, of Pittsburgh becomes the youngest player ever to start a Penn State football game. He opens at right halfback against Colgate in the fourth game of season, when frosh were eligible because of World War II, and carries the ball five times for eight yards. Johnny Chuckran becomes the only freshman ever to serve as captain for a season, and runs back a punt 50 yards in the last minute to spark a 6-0 upset win over Colgate in Hamilton, N.Y.

October 28, 1944 — For the first time, an all-freshman starting lineup takes the field and loses to West Virginia, 28-27, in the first home loss since 1938.

November 17, 1945 — Freshman Wally Triplett becomes the first African-American player to start a Penn State game when he takes the field at right halfback (the tailback position in the single-wing formation) against Michigan State at East Lansing, Mich. The Nittany Lions lose, 33-0, but Triplett is praised for his all-around play.

Summer 1946 — Jim O'Hora, a center at Penn State from 1933-35, and Earl Bruce, the high school coach from Brownsville, Pa., join Bob Higgins' coaching staff, O'Hora as assistant line coach and Bruce as freshman coach based at California (Pa.) State Teachers College.

Summer 1946 — Casey Jones and other Pittsburgh area alumni raise $19,000 to buy an old fraternity house off campus to house football players. New assistant coach Jim O'Hora agrees to be "counselor" of the facility and he and his family move in. All freshmen players are assigned to the campus of California State Teachers College, where they will train under the direction of Bruce.

November 9, 1946 — Penn State cancels the final game of season, set for Nov. 29, when University of Miami (Fla.) officials request that Penn State not bring its two African-American players, Wally Triplett and Dennie Hoggard, on the trip.

November 16, 1946 — A U.S. President makes his first known attendance at a Penn State game as Harry Truman gives Navy a pep talk before the game and at halftime in Annapolis. Penn State upsets the heavily favored Middies, 12-7, as Elwood Petchel runs back a pass interception for one touchdown and scores another on a one-yard run.

October 18, 1947 — Penn State sets an NCAA record for fewest total yards allowed by holding Syracuse to a minus-47 yards in a 40-0 Homecoming win at New Beaver Field.

October 25, 1947 — In the key game of the 1947 season, Penn State comes from behind to beat undefeated West Virginia, 21-14, before the largest New Beaver Field crowd (20,313) since the 1925 Notre Dame game and stays on track for its first bowl game in 25 years.

November 15, 1947 — Penn State wins its 300th game with a 20-7 conquest of Navy at Baltimore's Memorial Stadium. Fullback Jeff Durkota runs 48 and 42 yards for touchdowns on the identical inside-reverse play.

November 22, 1947 — Penn State beats Pitt, 29-0, to become the first Penn State squad in history to win all nine games of a regular-season and sets school records for giving up the least amount of points (27) and the most shutouts (6). The Nittany Lions also set NCAA defensive records for fewest rushing yards allowed per game (17) and per rush (0.64).

December 8, 1947 — Penn State finishes in the Top 10 for the first time when ranked fourth in the final Associated Press poll. The Nittany Lions also are awarded the Lambert Trophy as the best team in the East for the first time since the trophy's inception in 1936.

January 1, 1948 — Tailback Wally Triplett and end Dennie Hoggard become the first African-Americans to play in the Cotton Bowl game. Triplett scores a TD and plays an outstanding defensive game as Penn State and Doak Walker-led SMU battle to a 13-13 tie.

Guard Steve Suhey earned first-team All-America honors in 1947 and was a member of arguably the most prominent family in Penn State football history. Suhey married a daughter, Ginger, of Penn State All-American and future head coach, Bob Higgins, and three of their sons — Paul, Larry and Matt Suhey — played for Penn State in the 1970s.

October 23, 1948 — A New Beaver Field attendance record of 24,579 is set during Homecoming as Penn State ties Michigan State, 14-14, in a game marked by controversy over a clipping penalty that nullified a Spartan 100-yard touchdown on an interception return.

November 6, 1948 — Penn State plays before the largest crowd to date — 71,180 — and defeats Penn at Franklin Field, 13-0, sparked by a razzle-dazzle touchdown run-and-pass play of Fran Rogel-to-Chuck Drazenovich-to-Elwood Petchel-to-Rogel.

November 27, 1948 — A Penn State team travels by airplane for the first time to play Washington State at Tacoma and wins the game, 7-0, to finish the season at 7-1-1 and achieve the No. 18 ranking in the Associated Press college football poll.

March 12, 1949 — Bob Higgins announces his resignation as head football coach and long-time assistant coach Joe Bedenk is named as his successor.

Spring 1949 — Earle Edwards resigns from the football coaching staff following spring practice and joins the Michigan State staff as an assistant coach. Joe Bedenk names former Penn State lineman Sever Toretti (1936-38) as line coach and ex-Pitt star Frank Patrick as defensive backfield coach.

1949 — Tuition scholarships for all sports are re-established by the Board of Trustees on the recommendation of the Athletic Board with 100 total scholarships approved.

September 1949 — The first class of scholarship players since 1927 enters Penn State but are sent to California State Teachers College because of crowded housing conditions on the main campus. Among the freshmen are future starters Joe Yukica, Don Barney, Jim Dooley and Joe Gratson.

October 1, 1949 — Penn State plays its 500th game since 1887 and loses, 42-7, to an Army team that would stay unbeaten and be rated No. 4 in the country. This contest also is the first known telecast of a Penn State football game. It is televised on WNBT-TV in New York City.

March 5, 1950 — Joe Bedenk resigns after one year as head football coach, but remains on the staff as an assistant coach.

April 22, 1950 — Charles A. "Rip" Engle, head coach at Brown University, is named head football coach by acting Penn State president James Milholland.

May 27, 1950 — Rip Engle names Joe Paterno, his senior quarterback at Brown, to the coaching staff and assigns him to coach the quarterbacks.

October 14, 1950 — Penn State loses for the first time at night after four wins at night dating to 1941, all played in the rain, as Syracuse wins, 27-7, on a clear night at Archbold Stadium.

November 11, 1950 — The first Band Day is held at Beaver Field, with nine Centre County high school bands participating as Penn State beats West Virginia, 27-0. Band Day was held annually for 25 years, with the final one taking place at the Nov. 16, 1974 game with Ohio University. Band Day was brought back for the Blue-White games from 1984-88.

December 2, 1950 — A major snow storm forces postponement of the final game of the season against Pitt at Pitt Stadium on November 25. The game is moved to Forbes Field one week later, where Penn State wins, 21-20, in what becomes known as "the Snow bowl."

December 1950 — The Athletic Board adds 15 scholarships for football, bringing the total to 45.

September 1, 1951 — The Athletic Board and Eastern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference agree to make freshmen eligible for varsity play because of the Korean War. The authorization only lasts one year before freshmen are banned again.

October 21, 1951 — Another Beaver Field attendance record —30,321 — is set, again in a Homecoming game, against unbeaten (and eventual No. 2) Michigan State, but this time Penn State loses, 32-21.

July 1952 — Ernest “Ernie” McCoy, basketball coach at Michigan since 1948, takes over as Director of Athletics and Dean of the Physical Education Department.

September 20, 1952 — Former player and coach Joe Bedenk watches his first game since 1917 as a spectator after stepping down as assistant coach. He sees a 20-13 win over Temple at Beaver Field.

September 27, 1952 — Junior Tony Rados surprises fans and makes national headlines by giving Penn State its greatest passing day in 12 years, completing 17-of-30 passes for 179 yards and one TD (and 2 interceptions), and out-dueling Purdue’s All-American passing sensation, Dale Samuels, in leading Penn State to a surprising 20-20 tie at Beaver Field.

November 13, 1952 — Penn State goes over 100,000 in total season home attendance for the first time in history (103,751 in five games) as 15,957 at Beaver Field watch the Lions escape with 7-6 win over underdog Rutgers.

November 22, 1952 — Penn State upsets Pitt, 17-0, to knock the Panthers from the Orange Bowl before 53,766 at Pitt Stadium. The Nittany Lions’ defense, led by Jack Sherry’s two interceptions, and Ted Kemmerer’s punting throttles the Pitt attack, while Rados’ passing sparks the Lions’ offense.

October 17, 1953 — Mickey Bergstein, colorman and engineer for Penn State’s radio network, makes a spectacular debut as play-by-play announcer in a game against Syracuse at Beaver Field, when he takes over in the fourth quarter for regular announcer Bob Prince, who has to leave to broadcast a Steelers-Eagles NFL game in Philadelphia that night. Bergstein describes how Penn State scores two touchdowns in the fourth quarter in a come-from-behind 20-14 win that ends with a brawl at the Syracuse bench.

November 7, 1953 — Heavy snow blankets State College in a 24-hour period, forcing a major snow removal at Beaver Field for a game against Fordham. Kickoff is delayed by two hours because of the late arrival of the Penn State team, which was trapped in a Clinton County hunting camp known as “Camp-Hate-To-Leave-It.” The Nittany Lions go on to win a 28-21 thriller before some 13,897 hearty fans.

November 13, 1953 — Penn State becomes The Pennsylvania State University and the next day the Nittany Lions play their first game as Penn State and come from behind from a 14-6 second-quarter deficit to whip Rutgers, 54-26, at New Brunswick.

December 1953 — The Levi Lamb Fund, named for the former Penn State star, is established at the suggestion of athletic director Ernie McCoy to assist in obtaining financial aid for athletes and the athletic department.

March 1, 1954 — J.T. White, who played on Michigan’s 1948 National Champion team as well as at Ohio State as a center, joins Rip Engle’s staff as an assistant coach.

September 25, 1954 — Underdog Penn State stuns preseason Big Ten Conference favorite Illinois, 14-12, in the opening game of the season played at Champaign, shocking the college football world and becoming an overnight front-runner to win the Lambert Trophy.

October 23, 1954 — Jesse Arnelle, Rosey Grier and Lenny Moore become the first African-Americans to play college football in Fort Worth, Texas, but the Nittany Lions make too many mistakes and lose to Texas Christian, 20-7.

October 30, 1954 — Penn State plays its first game on national television and beats Penn, 35-13, at Franklin Field, scoring the most points in the long-time series against the Quakers. Lenny Moore rushes for 140 yards and scores three touchdowns.

September 1, 1955 — Penn State begins a year-long celebration of its Centennial Year with Navy scheduled to visit Beaver Field for the first time since 1923. A new dateline of “University Park” is established with the opening of a campus post office.

September 29, 1955 — The first game is televised from Beaver Field as CBS transmits the season-opener with Boston University to a limited region in the East. The Nittany Lions win, 35-0, as an unknown fifth-string sophomore fullback — Joe Sabol — scores two touchdowns to lead the team to victory.

November 5, 1955 — Syracuse’s Jim Brown outgains Lenny Moore, 159 yards to 146, and scores all the Syracuse points on three touchdowns and two extra point kicks, but Penn State comes back from a 20-7 deficit on the quarterbacking of Milt Plum to win a thrilling 21-20 Band Day contest in one of the greatest games ever played at Beaver Field before a crowd of 30,321 and a CBS regional TV audience.

September 29, 1956 — The first all-Penn State alumni broadcast team works its first game for the radio network as Mickey Bergstein (’43) moves from color commentary to play-by-play and Bob Wilson (’40) takes over color. Penn State beats Pennsylvania, 34-0, at Franklin Field.

October 20, 1956 — Penn State stuns heavily-favored Ohio State, 7-6, in Columbus, winning on Milt Plum’s extra point kick before the largest crowd to see a Penn State football game up to that time, numbering 82,584.

October 19, 1957 — Pete Mauthe, captain of the undefeated 1912 team, becomes the first Penn State player inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame during halftime ceremonies of the Homecoming game against Vanderbilt. The Nittany Lions squander a 13-point lead and are upset, 32-20.

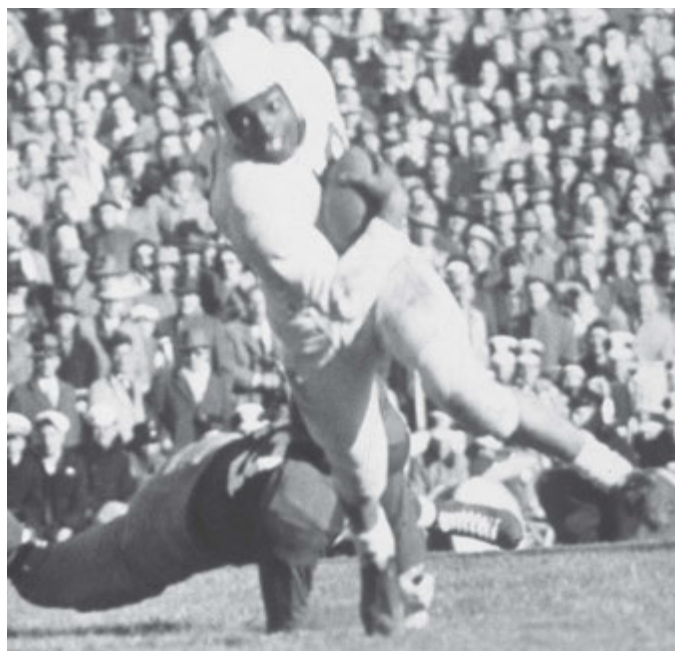

October 26, 1957 — The third game of the Engle era is televised from Syracuse by CBS on a regional basis as Penn State beats the Orangemen, 21-12, behind the surprise quarterbacking of sophomore Richie Lucas, who was forced to take over for the injured starter, Al Jacks.

December 1957 — Outstanding freshman running back Robert “Red” Worrell, who was a potential varsity starter on the 1958 team, is electrocuted at his family home in Denbo, Pa., while helping his father erect a TV antenna. Athletic officials establish an award in his name to honor the most improved player after spring practice. Lineman Andy Stynchula wins the first award in 1958.

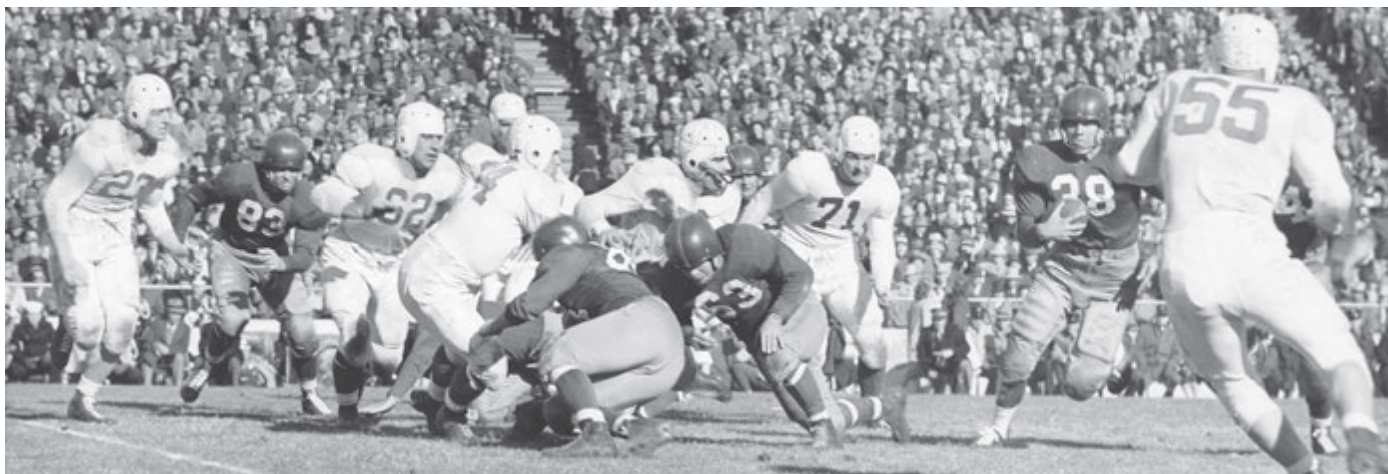

Spring 1958 — Former linebacker Dan Radakovich, one of the standouts in the 7-6 upset over Ohio State in 1956, becomes Penn State’s first linebackers coach when hired as an undergraduate assistant. The next year, Radakovich continues coaching as a graduate assistant.

September 27, 1958 — Penn State ends its longest series with one of its oldest opponents, Pennsylvania, with a 43-0 win at Franklin Field. The series, which began in 1890, was never played outside of Philadelphia and finished with Penn State winning 18, losing 25 and tying 4. The team’s first ever two-point conversion is scored when Al Jacks passes to end John Bozick after Penn State’s second touchdown. Richie Lucas later passes to Jim Schwab for a second two-point conversion.

December 19, 1959 — Penn State plays in the first Liberty Bowl and tackle Charlie Janerette becomes the first African-American to play against Alabama as the Nittany Lions beat the Crimson Tide, coached by Paul “Bear” Bryant, 7-0, in Philadelphia’s Municipal Stadium.

Freshman tailback Wally Triplett was Penn State’s first African-American player to start a game (at Michigan State, 1945) and was instrumental in the Nittany Lions compiling a record of 23-3-2 from 1946-48.

Penn State's appearance in the 1948 Cotton Bowl was significant on several fronts. Wally Triplett and end Dennie Hoggard became the first African-Americans to play in the Cotton Bowl game and helped Penn State to a 9-0-1 record in 1947, with the only blemish a 13-13 tie with Southern Methodist in the Cotton Bowl. Behind a defense that posted six shutouts, Penn State won its first Lambert Trophy and its No. 4 final ranking was its highest in program history to date.

April 1959 — The Nittany Lion Club is organized by 15 alumni who want to arouse interest in Penn State athletic affairs through contributions to the Levi Lamb Fund. Membership stipulated an annual contribution to the fund of at least $50 or at least $25 for graduates of less than 10 years. Members will receive "special consideration" on game tickets and "preferred parking" at the stadium.

November 7, 1959 — The all-time attendance record is set at Beaver Field as 34,000 watch a memorable battle of unbeaten play with national rankings and bowl berths at stake. Syracuse edges Penn State, 20-18, despite an electrifying 100-yard kickoff return by sophomore Roger Kochman as the Nittany Lions fail to make an extra point kick and two two-point conversions.

November 14, 1959 — Penn State downs Holy Cross, 46-0, in the 229th and last game played at Beaver Field as 20,000 spectators watch the final quarter in rain and heavy wind. The Nittany Lions end with a record of 184-34-11 at Beaver Field.

January 2, 1960 — Dan Radakovich is hired as a full-time assistant coach in charge of linebackers. He eventually will become known as "The Father of Linebacker U."

September 17, 1960 — Penn State opens Beaver Stadium before a less than capacity crowd of 22,559 as the Nittany Lions beat Boston University, 20-0. Lion senior halfback Eddie Caye scored the stadium's initial touchdown at 10:25 of the first quarter.

October 3, 1960 — What later becomes known as "Tailgating" is first suggested in a front-page column by Centre Daily Times Editor Jerry Weinstein after monumental traffic jams developed before and after the Homecoming game against Illinois at Beaver Stadium on Saturday, October 1. Weinstein advocates adoption of the Ivy League tradition of pregame "picnic lunches" and says Penn State fans should add "picnic suppers" for after the game while traffic disperses.

October 8, 1960 — The "hero" defensive back makes its debut in a 27-16 victory over Army at West Point. Senior Sam Sobczak is the first player designated as "Hero."

September 29, 1961 — The Athletic Department experiments with closed-circuit television by televising Penn State's first game ever against Miami (Fla.) from the Orange Bowl Stadium to Rec Hall and Schwab Auditorium on the Penn State campus. However, paid attendance is disappointing with less than 40 percent of the seating capacity filled.

November 4, 1961 — Maryland beats Penn State for the only time in the lengthy series, 21-17, at College Park behind the passing combination of Dick Shiner and Gary Collins.

December 30, 1961 — End Dave Robinson becomes the first African-American to play in the Gator Bowl and makes the defensive "play-of-the-game" with a quarterback sack and fumble recovery that helps the Nittany Lions beat Georgia Tech, 30-15.

Spring 1962 — Penn State joins Pitt, Syracuse and West Virginia in agreeing to forbid "redshirting," a practice that withholds athletes from competition for a year so they can "mature."

October 13, 1962 — Penn State becomes the first team to play three service academies in one season, losing to Army at West Point on this date, 9-6, after beating Navy, 41-7, and Air Force, 20-6, earlier in the season at Beaver Stadium.

October 27, 1962 — Assistant coach Joe Paterno is presented a game ball by the team for the first time since he joined Rip Engle's staff in 1950 when the Nittany Lions overcome the sensational debut of sophomore quarterback Craig Morton and defeat California, 23-21, in Berkeley.

December 1962 — End Dave Robinson becomes the first African-American player in Penn State football history to be named first-team All-American when selected by the Associated Press, the Football Writers and others.

Summer 1963 — Penn State joins Pitt, Syracuse and West Virginia in a Letter of Intent agreement for incoming freshmen football players, obligating recruits to a specific school for at least one year. The national agreement under consideration also would include the Big Ten, Southwest, Southeastern, Atlantic Coast, Big Eight and Missouri Valley conferences.

Summer 1964 — Joe Paterno is named associate coach and heir-apparent to succeed Rip Engle as head coach when Engle retires.

November 7, 1964 — Penn State, with a 3-4 record, shocks unbeaten No. 2 Ohio State, 27-0, in what the Associated Press calls the "college upset of the year." The Nittany Lions' defense limits the Buckeyes to 60 net yards, while the Lions' offense totals 341 yards.

November 24, 1964 — In a closed door meeting without coaches, players vote down the opportunity to play in the Gator Bowl after overcoming an 0-3 start and ending a 6-4 season with stunning shutout victories over Ohio State and Pitt and winning the Lambert Trophy. This will mark the last time that players are given the opportunity to vote on bowl games.

Fall 1965 — College football is changed forever with a rule change implementing unlimited substitution for the first time in the modern era.

December 4, 1965 — Rip Engle coaches his last game as Penn State beats Maryland, 19-7, at Byrd Stadium, in a game televised nationally by NBC, to finish a 5-5 season and wind up 16 years at Penn State with a 104-48-4 record and no losing seasons.

February 18, 1966 — Rip Engle officially announces his retirement as head coach, about one month from his 60th birthday (March 26).

February 19, 1966 — Associate head coach Joseph V. Paterno, 38, is named head football coach by University President Eric Walker and Director of Athletics and Dean of the Physical Education Department Ernest McCoy at an annual salary of $20,000.

September 17, 1966 — Joe Paterno wins his first game, 15-7, in the season-opener against Maryland at Beaver Stadium as sophomore middle guard Mike Reid sets a team record by scoring three safeties before a crowd of 40,911. The team presents Paterno with the game ball for only the second time in his coaching career.

September 24, 1966 — Joe Paterno suffers his first loss as No. 1 Michigan State, led by All-Americans Bubba Smith and George Webster, whip the Nittany Lions, 42-8, before 65,763 at East Lansing.

September 29, 1967 — In what becomes the "turning point" of Joe Paterno's career, he replaces several defensive veterans with untested sophomores, including future All-American Dennis Onkotz, and tackle Steve Smear and Penn State beats Miami (Fla.), 17-8, at the Orange Bowl behind the running of Bobby Campbell and pass receiving of another future All-American, Ted Kwalick. Among the 39,516 spectators that night are 150 members of Penn State's first Alumni Holiday Tour.

October 7, 1967 — A new policy requires students to buy tickets (at $4 each) for home games as the University eliminates pre-paid activity fees for football. Several thousand students are among the 46,007 in attendance to watch Penn State lose, 17-15, to No. 3 UCLA. The loss is the Nittany Lions' last over the next 31 games, stretching into the 1970 season.

November 11, 1967 — A Paterno-coached team gains national recognition for the first time with a 13-8 upset over then No. 3 North Carolina State after a fourth-down goal line stand in the last minute preserves the win at Beaver Stadium.

November-December 1967 — Junior tight end Ted Kwalick becomes the first first-team All-American coached by Joe Paterno when named by the Newspaper Enterprise Association and the Football Coaches. Kwalick also is the first junior to win the honor and the first underclassman selected since Bob Higgins in 1915.

December 30, 1967 — Joe Paterno gains nationwide attention in the Gator Bowl by gambling for a first down on his own 15-yard line with a 17-0 third-quarter lead. When the gamble fails, Florida State rallies for a 17-17 tie in front of a record crowd of 68,019.

December 7, 1968 — The first Joe Paterno team to have a regular-season game televised nationally beats Syracuse, 30-12, at Beaver Stadium to become the first Penn State squad to be unbeaten in the regular-season since 1947 and the first one to win 10 games.

January 1, 1969 — Penn State beats Kansas, 15-14, in the Orange Bowl after the Jayhawks are penalized for having 12 men on the field. The team makes its highest finish in the final Associated Press poll at No. 2 behind Ohio State, which beats previous No. 1 Southern California and Heisman Trophy winner O.J. Simpson in the Rose Bowl.

July 1, 1969 — Ed Czekaj, placekicker and end on the undefeated 1947 team, becomes Athletic Director, succeeding the retiring Ernie McCoy.

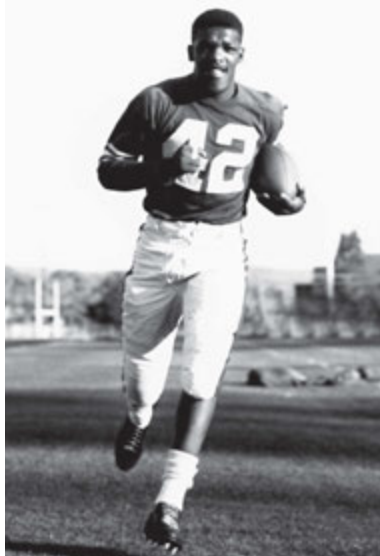

September 27, 1969 — Some 2,000 seats and an enlarged press box are constructed at Beaver Stadium before a record crowd of 51,402 turns out to see Penn State beat Colorado, 27-3. Paul Johnson returns a kickoff 91 yards for a touchdown.

November 29, 1969 — Penn State completes a second straight unbeaten regular-season with its 21st straight win by beating North Carolina State, 33-8, in Raleigh as part of the second half of a ABC national television doubleheader following the Army-Navy game. All-American Charlie Pittman scores two touchdowns to stretch his career touchdown record to 31, and break Pete Mauthe's 67-year-old career scoring record with 186 points.

December 31, 1969 — Earl Bruce, long time assistant coach, retires.

January 1, 1970 — Penn State's defense, led by Outland and Maxwell Trophy winner Mike Reid, sets an Orange Bowl record with seven intercepted passes as Penn State beats Missouri, 10-3, for its second consecutive 11-0 season, tying a 30-game school unbeaten streak set by teams from 1919-22, but again finishes No. 2 in the Associated Press (and UPI) poll to Texas, which beat Notre Dame in the Cotton Bowl.

September 19, 1970 — Penn State sets a record for consecutive games won (23) and unbeaten games in a row (31) with a 55-7 pasting of Navy in the season-opener at Beaver Stadium. Senior Mike Cooper of Harrisburg becomes the first African-American to start at quarterback for Penn State and throws for two touchdowns. The new six-station television network telecasts the first of five home games on a delayed basis at 11 p.m. The games are aired in Philadelphia, Altoona, Harrisburg, Scranton, Lancaster and York. Governor Ray Shafer helps do color commentary with Dick Scherr of WTAF (Philadelphia) and Dick Richards of WFBG (Altoona) handling play-by-play and other commentary, respectively.

Lenny Moore was among the greatest players to wear the blue and white. In 1954, he became the first Nittany Lion to rush for more than 1,000 yards in a season, gaining 1,082 with 11 touchdowns. Moore was selected by the Baltimore Colts in the first round of the 1956 NFL Draft and had a brilliant 12-year career with the Colts, playing in seven Pro Bowls and gaining induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1975.

September 26, 1970 — Colorado ends Penn State's consecutive game winning and unbeaten streaks by beating the Nittany Lions, 41-13, in Boulder before an ABC national television audience.

September 18, 1971 — Albert Vitiello, a native of Naples, Italy, becomes the first junior college transfer to play for Penn State, the first placekicking specialist to be recruited and given a "grant-in-aid" and the first soccer-style placekicker for the Nittany Lions. He debuts by kicking eight extra points in a season-opening 56-3 win at Navy.

November 20, 1971 — Lydell Mitchell establishes an NCAA record for scoring and touchdowns and breaks Pete Mauthe's 59-year-old season scoring record with 174 points and Charlie Pittman's career touchdown record with 29 by scoring three touchdowns in a 55-18 win over Pitt.

December 4, 1971 — In one of the most significant losses of the Paterno era, the Nittany Lions are upset by Tennessee, 31-11, in Knoxville, ruining an unbeaten season.

December 1971 — Tackle Dave Joyner becomes Penn State's first pure offensive interior lineman to be named a first-team All-American when selected by six organizations, including United Press International, the American Football Coaches and the Football Writers.

January 1, 1972 — Penn State rallies from a 6-3 halftime deficit to stun Texas, 30-6, in the Cotton Bowl in a game Joe Paterno said was one the Nittany Lions "had to win" more than any other in Penn State history. The victory helps quiet criticism of Penn State's football program and establishes the Lions solidly as a legitimate national power.

Spring 1972 — For the first time in history, the team elects four co-captains, choosing quarterback John Hufnagel and guard Carl Schaukowitch for offense and tackle Jim Heller and safety Greg Ducatte on defense.

September 23, 1972 — The Beaver Stadium seating capacity expands to 57,538 as 5,600 seats are added to the east side and 3,570 to the north end zone, but just 50,547 turn out to watch Penn State come from behind to beat four-touchdown underdog Navy, 21-10, in the season-opening game.

September 30, 1972 — The majorettes debut with the Blue Band as a corps of 12 coeds, led by junior Judy Shearer, before a record crowd of 58,065 at the Iowa game.

Fall 1972 — Freshman eligibility, which since the early 1900s had been allowed only in the war years of 1918, 1944-45 and 1951, is restored for Division I NCAA football teams. However, Coach Joe Paterno refuses to play freshmen until the 1973 season.

November 25, 1972 — Pitt announces it will no longer follow a mutual agreement with Penn State, Syracuse and West Virginia prohibiting "redshirting" and a maximum of 25 football grants-in-aid per year.

December 31, 1972 — Penn State plays in the first Sugar Bowl held on New Year's Eve and loses, 14-0, to second-ranked Oklahoma after star running back John Cappelletti is forced to miss the game with a virus. Oklahoma is later forced to forfeit the game to Penn State after the NCAA penalizes Oklahoma for using ineligible players.

September 1973 — Defensive tackle Randy Crowder becomes the first African-American elected captain when he is chosen as a defensive co-captain along with linebacker Ed O'Neil. Tailback John Cappelletti and center Mark Markovich are elected offensive co-captains.

September 22, 1973 — Dave Shukri and Brad Benson become the first freshmen to play varsity football since 1951 when they play in the second half of a 39-0 win at Navy.

September 19, 1973 — Women become members of the marching Blue Band as the band entertains a near record Homecoming crowd of 59,980 in the home season-opener with Iowa. The five coed pioneers include Debbie Frisbee, flag carrier; Carol Gable, alto horn; Linda Hall, clarinet; Kit Murphie, alto horn; and Susan Nowlin, drums.

December 13, 1973 — John Cappelletti becomes the first Nittany Lion to win the Heisman Trophy as college football's outstanding player and accepts the award with an emotional speech about his younger brother, stricken with leukemia, before Vice President Gerald Ford and 4,000 other dignitaries in New York.

Glenn Ressler excelled at center and middle guard and was a consensus All-American as a senior in 1964. Winner of the Maxwell Award as the nation's most outstanding player in 1964, Ressler was an All-Pro guard with the Baltimore Colts (1965-74) and was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 2001.

January 1, 1974 — Penn State beats LSU, 16-9, in the Orange Bowl to become the first Nittany Lion team to win 12 games without a loss, but the squad is voted No. 5 by the Associated Press and UPI. Joe Paterno calls the team "the best I've ever coached" and votes it No. 1 in the "Paterno Poll."

July 1, 1974 — Penn State withdraws from the Eastern College Athletic Conference in a dispute over financial arrangements with its 214 member schools. Penn State balks at paying 1/5th of the ECAC's total budget, plus 10 percent of television and bowl revenues.

September 21, 1974 — In what might have been the biggest upset of a Joe Paterno team ever, 24-point underdog Navy, coached by former Paterno assistant George Welsh, beats the Nittany Lions, 7-6, in rain and wind at Beaver Stadium.

October 12, 1974 — Tight end Randy Sidler becomes the first freshman to start since 1951 when two-year regular Dan Natale is sidelined by injury in the Homecoming game against Wake Forest. Sidler catches two passes for 41 yards, but another freshman wingback, Jimmy, Cefalo thrills the crowd by scoring touchdowns on a 57-yard pass from Tom Shuman and a 39-yard run.

November 16, 1974 — Penn State wins its 500th game by beating Ohio University, 35-16, at Beaver Stadium despite 85 yards in penalties and four lost fumbles as Tom Donchez scores three touchdowns.

December 31, 1975 — Penn State plays in the first Sugar Bowl held at the Louisiana Superdome and loses to Alabama, 13-6.

January 6, 1976 — Ridge Riley, creator of the alumni "Football Letter," dies of a heart attack in the kitchen of head coach Joe Paterno while interviewing Paterno for the final chapter of his soon-to-be-published book, "Road to Number One."

August 1976 — John Black takes over the alumni "Football Letter" and writes the first issue analyzing the team before fall practice.

September 18, 1976 — A record crowd of 62,503 and a regional TV audience watch as Ohio State visits Penn State for the first time in history and avenges four previous losses in five games at Columbus with 12-7 win.

November 6, 1976 — Joe Paterno wins his 100th game as a head coach as the Nittany Lions beat North Carolina State, 41-20, before 60,462 at Beaver Stadium.

July 1, 1977 — Assistant coaches Jim O'Hara and Frank Patrick retire; O'Hara after 31 years and Patrick after 24 years of coaching and three as athletic academic counselor.

September 19, 1977 — The last record crowd before another Beaver Stadium expansion — a standing room only gathering of 62,554 — turns out in the second game of the season to see Penn State beat Houston, 31-4. Junior quarterback Chuck Fusina hits 15-of-23 passes for 245 yards and a TD and All-American Randy Sidler makes 11 tackles and causes one fumble to lead the victory.

October 15, 1977 — Joe Paterno misses the first game of his head coaching career when his 11-year-old son, David, is severely injured in a trampoline accident. Paterno spends the day in a hospital in Danville, Pa., as his team, coached by offensive coordinator Bob Phillips and defensive coordinator Jerry Sandusky, staves off a fourth-quarter comeback at Syracuse and wins, 31-24.

A dominant two-way player from 1960-62, Dave Robinson was a consensus first-team All-American as a senior. A ferocious linebacker known for his big hits, he also made 17 receptions for 178 yards in 1962. A first-round choice of the Green Bay Packers in the 1963 NFL Draft, Robinson was an All-Pro linebacker with the Packers (1963-72) and Washington (1973-74). He was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1997 and the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2013.

September 1, 1978 — The addition of 16,000 seats to Beaver Stadium is completed after lifting the existing stadium, constructing 20 to 40 new rows of concrete stands, eliminating the track that had encircled the field, closing the south end of the horseshoe and expanding the press box.

September 11, 1978 — A Beaver Stadium record crowd of 77,154 sees Penn State beat Rutgers, 26-10, in the home season-opener. Matt Bahr ties his brother Chris's record of four field goals and Chuck Fusina hits Scott Fitzkee for a 53-yard touchdown pass in the first quarter to spark the win.

November 6, 1978 — In a watershed battle of unbeaten teams before another record crowd of 78,019 and a national TV audience, No. 2 Penn State defeated No. 5 Maryland, 27-3, limiting the Terps to minus-32 yards rushing, intercepting five passes (three by Pete Harris) and recording 10 quarterback sacks (three by Larry Kubin). Matt Bahr kicked two field goals and Chuck Fusina connected on a 63-yard TD pass to Tom Donovan.

November 13, 1978 — For the first time in history, Penn State is voted No. 1 in the polls by the Associated Press and United Press International after beating North Carolina State, 19-10, thanks to another record four field goals by Matt Bahr.

November 16, 1978 — The Nittany Lion Shrine near Recreation Hall is damaged for the first time since it was dedicated in 1942, when vandals smash off the right ear.

January 1, 1979 — No. 1-ranked Penn State plays for the National Championship for the first time and loses to No. 2 Alabama, 14-7, in the Sugar Bowl when Mike Guman is stopped on fourth-and-inches at the goal line in the fourth quarter in what was the biggest play of the game.

November 3, 1979 — Miami (Fla.) upsets Penn State, 26-10, at Beaver Stadium behind the passing of surprise starting freshman quarterback Jim Kelly. The Hurricanes' new coach, Howard Schnellenberger, tells reporters, "This day will go down in the history of Miami football as the day we turned our football program around."

December 1, 1979 — The first Penn State punt to be blocked in 10 years occurs when Ralph Giacommaro's punt is blocked by Pitt after 629 consecutive successful kicks in a 29-14 loss to the Panthers at Beaver Stadium.

March 1, 1980 — Joe Paterno becomes Athletic Director succeeding Ed Czekaj, but Paterno remains head football coach.

July 1, 1980 — J.T. White, the last assistant coach from the Rip Engle era except for Joe Paterno, retires after 26 years of coaching the defensive ends.

September 6, 1980 — Beaver Stadium's seating capacity increases to 83,770 with the addition of 7,000 seats. An electronic scoreboard also debuts as a record crowd of 78,926 watches Penn State whip Colgate, 54-10.

October 10, 1981 — A new Hall of Fame room and Indoor Sports Complex is dedicated at Homecoming festivities as the No. 2 Nittany Lions win their fourth straight by beating Boston College, 38-7, before a record crowd of 84,473.

October 20, 1981 — Penn State is voted No. 1 for only the second time in history after beating Syracuse, 41-16, in the Nittany Lions' first appearance at the Carrier Dome. Curt Warner breaks Shorty Miller's 69-year-old rushing record with 256 yards and a touchdown on 26 carries. But with Warner sidelined by injury, the Lions lose two weeks later at Miami, 17-14, and drop to No. 6 as Pitt moves up to No. 1.

Quarterback Chuck Burkhardt directed Penn State to its first two undefeated seasons under Joe Paterno in 1968 and '69. In the 1969 Orange Bowl against Kansas (above), Burkhardt ran for a three-yard touchdown with eight seconds left and Bob Campbell's two-point run gave Penn State one of its most thrilling victories in program history, 15-14, to cap an 11-0 season and No. 2 finish in the Associated Press poll.

November 28, 1981 — Penn State pulls off one of its finest come-from-behind victories, snapping back from a 14-0 second-quarter deficit to rout No. 1 Pitt, 48-14, and end the national title chances of the Sugar Bowl-bound Panthers before a national television audience and 60,260 at Pitt Stadium. The victory was sparked by interceptions of Dan Marino passes by Roger Jackson and Mark Robinson and the passing combination of Todd Blackledge to Kenny Jackson.

January 1, 1982 — Penn State plays in the first Fiesta Bowl held on New Year's Day and beats Southern California, 26-10, holding Heisman Trophy winner Marcus Allen to 85 yards as Curt Warner gains 145 yards on 26 carries. Penn State finishes No. 3 in the Associated Press and UPI rankings.

March 1, 1982 — Associate Athletic Director Jim Tarman succeeds Joe Paterno as Athletic Director as Paterno continues as head coach of the football team.

September 11, 1982 — Penn State wins its 100th game at Beaver Stadium in a 39-31 shootout with Maryland. Todd Blackledge passes for 262 yards and four touchdowns and Maryland's Boomer Esiason throws for 276 yards and two TDs before a sellout crowd of 84,567.

September 25, 1982 — In one of the most thrilling games ever played at Beaver Stadium, No. 8 Penn State comes from behind with a 65-yard drive in the last 1:18 to beat No. 3 Nebraska. Todd Blackledge throws the winning two-yard touchdown pass to tight end Kirk Bowman with four seconds left on the clock before a record crowd of 85,304 and a national television audience.

November 26, 1982 — Curt Warner establishes a Penn State career rushing record of 3,398 yards and Todd Blackledge sets the career touchdown passing record of 41 as they lead the Nittany Lions to a 19-10 win over once-beaten Pitt at Beaver Stadium to take a No. 2 ranking to the Sugar Bowl. Warner gains 118 yards and Blackledge throws a 31-yard touchdown to Kenny Jackson in the victory.

January 1, 1983 — Penn State wins its first National Championship by beating previously No. 1 Georgia, 27-23, in the Sugar Bowl. Todd Blackledge passes 47 yards to Gregg Garrity for a key fourth-quarter touchdown and Curt Warner out-duels Heisman Trophy winner Herschel Walker with 117 yards and two touchdowns.

September 14, 1985 — A new home team locker room and media room open at Beaver Stadium along with additional permanent seats in the North end zone for the handicapped and the visiting band. Four circular concrete ramps to help spectators reach their seats are part of the renovation.

October 26, 1985 — Penn State wins its 600th game by beating West Virginia, 27-0, before a sellout Homecoming crowd of 85,534 and an ABC regional TV audience. John Shaffer throws two touchdown passes and the defense limits the Mountaineers to 268 yards with three interceptions, two fumble recoveries and four sacks.

November 6, 1985 — Penn State is voted No. 1 for the fourth time in program history when the UPI coaches board selects the Nittany Lions first after a 16-12 come-from-behind fourth-quarter win over Boston College. But, in the Associated Press poll, the Lions remain No. 2 behind Florida, coached by former Penn State quarterback Galen Hall.

November 13, 1985 — Penn State moves to No. 1 in the Associated Press rankings after beating Cincinnati, 31-10, in Riverfront Stadium, while Florida loses to Georgia.

January 1, 1986 — Oklahoma beats the No. 1 Nittany Lions, 25-10, in the Orange Bowl to win the National Championship as two Penn State interceptions and a fumble help the Sooners to victory.

September 6, 1986 — Penn State plays the first night game at Beaver Stadium in the season-opener against Temple that helps launch the celebration of the first 100 years of Penn State football. Quarterback John Shaffer passes for three touchdowns and runs for another in the 45-15 victory.

October 25, 1986 — The sixth-ranked Nittany Lions shock the country with a dominating 23-3 upset win over No. 2 Alabama in Tuscaloosa behind a defense led by linebackers Shane Conlan and Trey Bauer and the running of D.J. Dozier. It is just the Crimson Tide's third loss in 25 years at Bryant-Denny Stadium. The victory pushed Penn State to No. 2 in the polls and on track to play No. 1 Miami (Fla.) for the national title.

January 2, 1987 — Penn State wins its second National Championship in four years by upsetting previous No. 1 Miami, 14-10, in the Fiesta Bowl with a four-down goal line stand in the last minute of play behind a defense led by All-American Shane Conlan. The Nittany Lions fluster Heisman Trophy winner Vinny Testaverde with five sacks and five interceptions, including one by linebacker Pete Gifopoulos at the goal line on the game's last play.

September 5, 1987 — Joe Paterno wins his 200th game in a 45-19 victory over Bowling Green in the season-opening game at Beaver Stadium and later tells the media, "I may live to be 100, but I'll never be around for another 100 victories."

October 1, 1988 — Tony Sacca becomes the first true freshman to start at quarterback in the Paterno and Engle eras and leads Penn State to 45-9 win over Temple at Veterans Stadium in Philadelphia.

November 19, 1988 — Penn State loses to Notre Dame, 21-3, in South Bend to finish with a record of 5-6, the Nittany Lions' first losing season in 49 years.

December 19, 1989 — Representatives of Penn State and the Big Ten Conference announce that an "invitation in principle" has been extended for Penn State to join the Big Ten. The invitation is made formal on June 4, 1990 in a 7-3 vote of the Council of 10 ruling body and Penn State accepts.

December 29, 1989 — In one of the zaniest games in Penn State history, the Nittany Lions best Brigham Young in a Holiday Bowl shootout, 50-39, scoring 21 points in a wild fourth quarter that includes two spectacular plays, one by All-American linebacker Andre Collins and another by defensive back Gary Brown. Collins scores Penn State's first ever two points off an opponent conversion attempt when he returns an interception 102 yards following a BYU touchdown. Moments later, Brown strips the ball from Cougars' quarterback Ty Detmer and runs 53 yards for another TD with 45 seconds remaining.

November 17, 1990 — Penn State pulls off one of the biggest upsets in program history as freshman Craig Fayak kicks a 34-yard field goal with 58 seconds left to give the 18th-ranked Nittany Lions a 24-21 victory at No. 1 Notre Dame after trailing at halftime, 21-7.

Spring 1991 — The Big Ten announces Penn State football will be fully integrated into the Big Ten for the 1993 season. Iowa becomes the first opponent on the schedule, fulfilling dates previously set with Notre Dame in 1993 and 1994. The new Big Ten schedule is expected to mark the end of games with traditional rivals Pitt and West Virginia.

September 7, 1991 — A 10,000-seat upper deck is added in the north end of Beaver Stadium and a new attendance record of 94,000 is set as Penn State beats Cincinnati, 81-0, in the home-opener. The score is the largest winning point differential in the Paterno era.

January 1, 1992 — In the most bizarre and exciting four-minute span in program history, the Nittany Lions come back from a 17-7 third-quarter deficit with 28 points in less than four minutes to defeat Tennessee, 42-17, in the Fiesta Bowl. A crowd of 71,133 helps take Penn State's total season attendance over one million for the first time, with 1,017,843 attending the Lions' 13 games.

September 12, 1992 — A new policy is implemented banning smoking inside Beaver Stadium, starting with the season-opener against Temple. For just the second time in the Paterno era, a true freshman starts at quarterback as Wally Richardson leads the Nittany Lions to 49-8 victory over Temple.

October 10, 1992 — In what is the biggest game at Beaver Stadium in several years and a clash of unbeaten teams, No. 2 Miami (Fla.) beats No. 5 Penn State, 17-14, with the help of an interception return for a TD and sends the Nittany Lions into a tailspin for the season.

Halfback John Cappelletti led Penn State to a 12-0 season in 1973 and won the Heisman Trophy, Maxwell and Walter Camp awards as the nation's outstanding player. Cappelletti ran for 1,522 yards as a senior and is the only Nittany Lion to rush for 200 yards in three consecutive games. An emotional Cappelletti dedicated the Heisman Trophy to his younger brother, Joey, who was battling leukemia, during a moving acceptance speech that has become part of Penn State and college football lore. Cappelletti was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1993.

November 5, 1994 — The Nittany Lions lose their No. 1 USAToday/CNN ranking to Nebraska after two last-minute touchdowns by Indiana make a 35-29 win in Bloomington look closer than it was.

November 12, 1994 — Penn State claims its first Big Ten Championship by overcoming a 21-0 first-quarter deficit with one of the greatest clutch drives in school history, a 96-yard, 15-play march into the rain and wind late in the fourth quarter to beat Illinois, 35-31, at Champaign in a late afternoon game televised by ABC. The drive is keyed by passes from quarterback Kerry Collins to Bobby Engram and Kyle Brady and the running of Ki-Jana Carter and Brian Milne, who scored the winning TD on a two-yard plunge with 57 seconds left in the game.

January 2, 1995 — Penn State beats Oregon, 38-20, to win the Rose Bowl, but, despite a 12-0 season, finishes No. 2 to Nebraska, which is named National Champion by the Associated Press and USA Today/CNN. The New York Times computer rankings list Penn State No. 1 with a schedule rated the 19th toughest by the NCAA compared to Nebraska's 57th rating.

November 18, 1995 — State College was hit with a rare 18-inch snowfall three days before No. 12 Michigan visited Beaver Stadium. Volunteers, including some local inmates, cleared the stands of snow and an estimated 80,000 fans attended the "Snow Bowl." Joe Nastasi's run for a touchdown on a fake field goal late in the game sealed the Nittany Lions' 27-17 win.

November 25, 1995 — Wide receiver Bobby Engram climaxes his career and cements his standing as one of the greatest clutch players in Penn State history, scoring the winning touchdown with eight seconds left and no time outs on a four-yard flanker screen pass from Wally Richardson, ducking under two Michigan State tacklers, to give the Nittany Lions a thrilling 24-20 win over Michigan State at East Lansing.

August 25, 1996 — Penn State introduces a new logo with a Lion head looking more fierce as Penn State upsets Southern California, 24-7, before a record Kickoff Classic crowd of 77,716. Tailback Curtis Enis comes within 15 yards of Curt Warner's game rushing record with 241 yards and three touchdowns at Giants Stadium.

The Nittany Lions improve to 8-1 overall and become the first team in Big Ten history to win five consecutive conference games by 10 points or less. The victory is the 409th of Joe Paterno's career moving him past legendary Grambling coach Eddie Robinson for the most wins in NCAA Division I history and No. 2 all-time for all NCAA divisions. Paterno's career record stands at 409-136-3 over 46 years in what would be the final game for the Hall of Fame coach and icon.

November 9, 2011 — The Penn State Board of Trustees announces President Graham Spanier and head coach Joe Paterno have been relieved of their duties, effective immediately, in the wake of the Jerry Sandusky investigation. Long-time assistant coach and defensive coordinator Tom Bradley is named interim head coach for the remainder of the season.

November 12, 2011 — On an emotionally-charged Senior Day in Beaver Stadium, Penn State rallies from a 17-0 deficit to within 17-14 against new Big Ten rival Nebraska, but falls by three points. Prior to the game, student-athletes, coaches and team personnel from both squads joined at midfield in a moment of reflection and prayer for the victims of child abuse.

November 18, 2011 — The family of Joe Paterno announces the legendary coach is suffering from a treatable form of lung cancer.

November 19, 2011 — Penn State scores on four of its initial five possessions en route to a 20-14 win at Ohio State and a share of the inaugural Big Ten Leaders Division Championship. The Nittany Lions play their seventh consecutive conference game decided by 10 points or less (6-1 record).

January 6, 2012 — Bill O'Brien is named Penn State's 15th head football coach. O'Brien was the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach with the New England Patriots in 2011, helping the Patriots to their second Super Bowl in his five years on the coaching staff. Like Joe Paterno, O'Brien graduated from Brown University, where he played linebacker and defensive end from 1990-92.

January 22, 2012 — Joe Paterno dies of lung cancer at the age of 85 in State College, surrounded by his family. Three days of private and public viewings and memorial services bring tens of thousands of people to campus to pay their respects.

July 23, 2012 — The NCAA announces sanctions against Penn State after the conviction of Jerry Sandusky and the release of the Freeh Report. Included in the sanctions are a four-year bowl ban and reduction in scholarships, the vacating of all 112 victories from 1998-2011, 111 of which were under Joe Paterno, and giving current squad members the opportunity to immediately transfer to another institution until August 2013. (The NCAA repealed all remaining sanctions and restored the 112 wins on January 16, 2015.)

July 25, 2012 — Seniors Michael Mauti and Michael Zordich, flanked by their teammates, pledge their commitment to Penn State and to keeping the 2012 team together less than two weeks from the start of training camp.

September 1, 2012 — In his first game as head coach, Bill O'Brien's Nittany Lions take a 14-3 halftime lead over Ohio, but the Bobcats rally for a 24-14 win in Beaver Stadium.

September 15, 2012 — Matt McGloin throws four touchdown passes, three to sophomore Allen Robinson, to lead the Nittany Lions to a 34-7 win over Navy in Beaver Stadium for Bill O'Brien's first career victory.

September 29, 2012 — Matt McGloin runs for a pair of touchdowns and throws for another and Michael Mauti grabs two interceptions, returning one a school-record 99 yards, to lead Penn State to a 35-7 win at Illinois in the Big Ten-opener for Bill O'Brien's first conference win.

October 6, 2012 — Matt McGloin completes a school-record 35 passes and scores the go-ahead touchdown with 2:37 to play, sparking Penn State to 22 points in the fourth quarter in a 39-28 comeback Homecoming win over No. 24 Northwestern.

November 24, 2012 — Thirty-one seniors are introduced before the Wisconsin game in an emotional ceremony and then lead Penn State to a 24-21 overtime win over the eventual Big Ten champions. Sam Ficken caps a 3-for-3 day on field goal attempts with a 37-yard game-winner, giving the Nittany Lions their first home overtime win.

November 26, 2012 — Bill O'Brien sweeps Big Ten Coach of the Year honors and six Nittany Lions are named first-team all-conference, led by Michael Mauti, the Butkus-Fitzgerald Linebacker of the Year, and Allen Robinson, the Richter-Howard Receiver of the Year. Defensive end Deion Barnes is named Big Ten Freshman of the Year and is joined by tight end Kyle Carter as a first-team Freshman All-American.

January 17, 2013 — Bill O'Brien is named Bear Bryant Coach of the Year, his third national coaching honor, joining accolades from the Maxwell Football Club and ESPN.com.

February 2, 2013 — Former Penn State All-America end Dave Robinson becomes the sixth Nittany Lion selected for enshrinement in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He was enshrined in Canton on August 3, 2013.

August 31, 2013 — Christian Hackenberg becomes just the second true freshman quarterback since 1911 to start a Penn State season-opener and directs the Nittany Lions to a 23-17 victory over Syracuse at MetLife Stadium in East Rutherford, N.J. Hackenberg was 22-of-31 for 278 yards, throwing a pair of 50-yard plus touchdown passes en route to the first of his five Big Ten Freshmen-of-the-Week accolades.

September 7, 2013 — During a celebration of the 1973 team's undefeated season, Penn State announces that the No. 22 worn by 1973 Heisman Trophy winner John Cappelletti will become the first number retired by Penn State. At Cappelletti's request, his No. 22 will not be retired until then-freshman running back Akeel Lynch completes his Nittany Lion career.

September 24, 2013 — The NCAA announces a modification in some of the scholarship sanctions, allowing Penn State the opportunity to provide 20 initial scholarships and a total of 75 scholarships for the 2014 season, increasing to 25/80 (2015) and the NCAA maximum of 25/85 for the 2016 season.

October 12, 2013 — Trailing No. 18 Michigan, 34-27, with :50 to play, and no timeouts, freshman quarterback Christian Hackenberg directs an 80-yard touchdown drive in four plays to tie the game and Penn State goes on to defeat the Wolverines, 43-40, in four overtimes. The primetime four-overtime thriller before 107,844 was the longest game in terms of overtimes in the Big Ten's 118-year history. Allen Robinson's leaping 36-yard catch at the Michigan one-yard line set up Hackenberg's game-tying sneak with :27 left in regulation. Bill Belton's two-yard TD run was the game-winner, but was only possible after Kyle Baublitz blocked Michigan's 40-yard field goal attempt in the first overtime.

November 30, 2013 — Christian Hackenberg throws for 339 yards and four touchdowns to power Penn State past No. 14 Wisconsin, 31-24, in the season-finale in Madison. The Nittany Lions attained their first win over a Top 15 team since defeating No. 13 LSU in the 2010 Capital One Bowl. Penn State posted the four longest plays from scrimmage all season allowed by the Badgers.

December 2, 2013 — Record-breaking junior Allen Robinson is named the Big Ten Richter-Howard Receiver of the Year for the second consecutive year. Quarterback Christian Hackenberg is named the Big Ten Thompson-Randle El Freshman of the Year and also was the consensus second-team Freshman All-American quarterback behind Heisman Trophy winner Jameis Winston.

December 10, 2013 — Senior guard John Urschel is named Penn State's first recipient of the National Football Foundation's William V. Campbell Trophy, presented to the nation's top college football scholar-athlete. As the winner of the "Academic Heisman" Urschel receives $25,000 for post-graduate study.

January 2, 2014 — Bill O'Brien resigns as head coach to become head coach of the NFL's Houston Texans.

January 11, 2014 — James Franklin is named Penn State's 16th head football coach. A native of Langhorne, Pa., and an All-PSAC quarterback at East Stroudsburg University, Franklin was head coach at Vanderbilt University from 2011-13. He compiled a 24-15 record at Vanderbilt, leading the team to nine wins each in 2012 and 2013, capped by bowl wins and consecutive Top 25 final rankings, all for the first time in program history.

Bill O'Brien recorded his first victory as Penn State's head coach when the Nittany Lions defeated Navy, 34-7, at Beaver Stadium on September 15, 2012.

February 5, 2014 — James Franklin and former Nittany Lion All-American LaVar Arrington co-host "The Signature Event" at the Bryce Jordan Center, discussing each member of Penn State's Class of 2014.

August 30, 2014 — Playing in its first international game, Penn State rallies to defeat UCF, 26-24, in the Croke Park Classic in Dublin, Ireland in James Franklin's first game as head coach. Christian Hackenberg shatters the school record with 454 passing yards and Sam Ficken delivers the game-winning 36-yard field goal on the final play of the game. In his first game, wide receiver DaeSean Hamilton breaks the school freshman records with 11 catches for 165 yards. More than 20,000 Penn State fans are in attendance in Croke Park Stadium.

September 8, 2014 — The NCAA announces modifications to Penn State's bowl and scholarship limitations. Effective immediately, the Nittany Lions can qualify for a 2014 bowl game and will have the full complement of 85 scholarships for the 2015 season.

September 20, 2014 — The Nittany Lions defeat Massachusetts, 48-7. James Franklin joins Dick Harlow in 1915 as the only first-year Penn State head coaches to begin their careers with a 4-0 record.

October 25, 2014 — Redshirt freshman DaeSean Hamilton breaks the Penn State game record with 14 receptions, but the Nittany Lions fall to Ohio State, 31-24, in double-overtime in front of an electric primetime crowd of 107,895 in Beaver Stadium.

November 8, 2014 — The Nittany Lions gain 254 rushing yards and force five turnovers to defeat Temple, 30-13, improving to 6-4 to become bowl eligible for the 45th overall and the first time since 2011. Cornerback Grant Haley returns an interception 30 yards for the first defensive touchdown by a Penn State true freshman since Paul Posluszny returned an interception for a score in a 2003 win over Indiana.

December 27, 2014 — Playing in its first bowl game in three years, Penn State rallies from a 14-point deficit late in the third quarter to defeat Boston College, 31-30, in overtime in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl. Christian Hackenberg breaks or ties nine school bowl records with his 34-of-50 effort for 371 yards, with four touchdowns and no interceptions. Sam Ficken ties the game on a 45-yard field goal with 20 seconds to play in regulation and wins the game with his PAT kick in the first overtime. The game was played in Yankee Stadium, the Nittany Lions' first game in New York City since 1947.

January 16, 2015 — A settlement is announced in the lawsuit relating to the Endowment Act, dissolving the Consent Decree between Penn State and the NCAA and eliminating all sanctions. The football team's 112 victories from 1998-2011 are restored, returning Joe Paterno as major college football's all-time victories leader with 409.

February 4, 2015 — Penn State welcomed 22 student-athletes who signed National Letters of Intent to join the football program to be ranked the No. 11 to 14 recruiting class in the country. They joined three Nittany Lions who enrolled in classes in January for a total class of 25 signees for the 2015 season. Franklin and his staff signed seven of the top 10 players in Pennsylvania and 10 of the top 15. The Nittany Lions signed a total of 11 Keystone State prep standouts. All three Pennsylvania totals are the highest for Penn State in more than a decade.

February 12, 2015 — The Big Ten announces Penn State will receive its full share of conference bowl revenues, effective with the 2015-16 academic year.

June 7, 2015 — The Big Ten Council of Presidents and Chancellors decides Penn State will receive its full share of the 2014-15 conference bowl revenues.

July 15, 2015 — Former Penn State standout Devon Still accepts the Jimmy V. Perseverance Award on behalf of his daughter, Leah, who publicly battled cancer, at the ESPY Awards.

July 16, 2015 — The Penn State football program announces that it will remove the names from the back of the jerseys beginning with the 2015 season. The decision to remove the names from the jerseys was made to pay homage to the history of Penn State football and return to the tradition that represented Penn State for 125 years.

Placekicker Sam Ficken is pursued by his jubilant teammates celebrating the senior's PAT that lifted Penn State over Boston College, 31-30, in overtime in the 2014 Pinstripe Bowl at Yankee Stadium. The Nittany Lions ended the 2014 season with a 7-6 season record in James Franklin's first year as head coach.

Sept. 12, 2015 — True freshman running back Saquon Barkley runs for 115 yards, including 101 in the fourth quarter, and senior defensive end Carl Nassib registers three sacks and two forced fumbles to lead the Nittany Lions to a 27-14 win over Buffalo in the first of five consecutive home games. Barkley is the first true freshman to rush for more than 100 yards in a game since Silas Redd (131 yds.) against Northwestern in 2010. Barkley and fellow true freshman Brandon Polk each scored a touchdown in the game, giving Penn State two true freshmen with touchdowns in the same game for the first time since Justin King and Derrick Williams both had touchdown receptions in the 2005 victory at Northwestern.

Sept. 15, 2015 — Linebacker Ben Kline is selected to the Allstate, AFCA Good Works Team for his contributions to the community. Kline is the third Nittany Lion to earn Allstate AFCA Good Works Team honors, joining Stefan Wisniewski (2010) and Wayne Holmes (1994).

Sept. 19, 2015 — The inaugural Penn State "Stripe Out" was well received as 103,323 fans stuffed Beaver Stadium wearing their assigned color for Penn State's 28-3 win over Rutgers. Freshman running back Saquon Barkley rushed for 195 yards and two touchdowns. For the second consecutive game, Barkley had 100 rushing yards in a single quarter, becoming the first Nittany Lion to do so since Larry Johnson in 2002.

Sept. 26, 2015 — Austin Johnson returns a Carl Nassib-forced fumble 71 yards and Christian Hackenberg threw for 296 yards to lead the Nittany Lions to a 37-21 win over 2015 Mountain West Conference Champion San Diego State.

Oct. 3, 2015 — The Nittany Lions had a record turnout of Servicemembers for the Seats for Servicemembers game en route to a 20-14 win over Army West Point. The announced crowd of 107,387 marked the first non-conference sellout since 2011 against Alabama.

Oct. 10, 2015 — Christian Hackenberg accounted for all four touchdowns and became the second in school history to surpass 7,000 career passing yards to lead the Nittany Lions past Indiana, 29-7. The Penn State defense allowed a total of 10 points in its first two Big Ten games (5.0 ppg), marking the best two-game start defensively by the Nittany Lions since joining the conference in 1993.

Oct. 12, 2015 — Crews began work to remove the sod, which has been in the stadium since October of 2005, before installing a new Kentucky bluegrass surface.

Oct. 24, 2015 — The Nittany Lions become bowl eligible by picking up their sixth win of the season, a 31-30 victory over Maryland at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore. Christian Hackenberg throws for 315 yards and three touchdowns to become Penn State's career leader in completions (608) and yards passing (7,453), displacing Zach Mills in both categories.

Oct. 31, 2015 — Penn State turns in a solid all-around performance for a 39-0 win over Illinois. The shutout marks the first Big Ten shutout by the Nittany Lions since blanking Minnesota in 2009 (20-0). Additionally, Penn State starts 6-0 at home for the first time since 2008.

Nov. 7, 2015 — With a sack in the fourth quarter at Northwestern, defensive end Carl Nassib breaks the Penn State single season sack record with his 15.5th of the season. The old record of 15.0 was held by Larry Kubin (1979) and Michael Haynes (2002).

Nov. 21, 2015 — Christian Hackenberg becomes the first Nittany Lion quarterback to throw for 8,000 career yards after throwing for 137 yards against Michigan.

Nov. 28, 2015 — Running back Saquon Barkley rushes for his fifth 100-yard performance of the season with 103 yards at Michigan State. With his performance, Barkley (1,007) breaks D.J. Dozier's freshman rushing record (1,003) from 1983. Christian Hackenberg's 8-yard TD pass to Chris Godwin in the second quarter was the 47th of his career to break the Penn State record he shared with Matt McGloin.

Nov. 30, 2015 — After a record-breaking season, defensive end Carl Nassib is selected as the Big Ten's Nagurski-Woodson Defensive Player of the Year.

Dec. 9, 2015 — Despite missing the final two games of the season, defensive end Carl Nassib claims a pair of national honors after winning the Ted Hendricks Award for the nation's top defensive end and the Rotary Lombardi Award for the nation's top lineman (offense or defense) or linebacker. Nassib is the first Penn Stater to win the Hendricks Award and the second to win the Lombardi Award (Bruce Clark, 1978).

Dec. 13, 2015 — Defensive end Carl Nassib wins his third national award when he claims the Lott IMPACT Trophy, given to the distinguished defensive player that represent the qualities embodied by Hall of Famer Ronnie Lott — Integrity, Maturity, Performance, Academics, Community and Tenacity. He is the first Penn State player to win the award. Nassib becomes the first Nittany Lion to win three national awards in a season since Larry Johnson (Maxwell, Walter Camp, Doak Walker) in 2002.

Dec. 17, 2015 — Defensive end Carl Nassib capped off his stellar senior season with a unanimous selection to the NCAA's consensus All-America team. He is the 13th Nittany Lion to be a unanimous consensus All-American and 41st consensus All-American in program history.

Jan. 2, 2016 — With 133 receiving yards against Georgia in the TaxSlayer Bowl, wide receiver Chris Godwin becomes the third player in school history to register 1,000 receiving yards in a season, joining Allen Robinson (2013, 2012) and Bobby Engram (1994, 1995) as players to accomplish the feat. For just the third time program history, Penn State had a 1,000-yard receiver (Godwin; 1,101 yards) and a 1,000-yard rusher (Saquon Barkley; 1,076 yards).

Jan. 14, 2016 — Defensive end Carl Nassib is selected as the CBS Sports National Defensive Player of the Year.

Information from the Penn State Football Encyclopedia by Lou Prato, a noted Penn State football historian, was used in this compilation. Current as of January 29, 2016.

PENN STATE UNIVERSITY

Penn State's historic mission of teaching, research, and public service — launched under the most modest of circumstances more than 150 years ago — now reaches into virtually all parts of Pennsylvania. Consider, for example, that the University now has 24 campuses across the Commonwealth, putting a Penn State education within practical reach of nearly every Pennsylvanian. In fact, nearly 75 percent of Penn State's undergraduates are Pennsylvania residents.

Penn State is Pennsylvania's largest nongovernmental employer with employees and expenditures in every one of its 67 counties. The University generates a total economic impact across the Commonwealth that surpasses $8.5 billion annually.

Part of that impact is derived from Penn State's research program, which brings more than $500 million in federal funds to Pennsylvania each year, and an additional $100 million from private industry.

Penn State's outreach and online programs — ranging from 4H to Cooperative Extension, from summer camps to public broadcasting — provide educational and service programs to more than a million Pennsylvania households annually.

The University's presence throughout Pennsylvania today contrasts sharply with its humble beginnings. Chartered as a college of scientific agriculture, the institution was located in rural Centre County after James Irvin, a partner in the Centre Furnace iron works (remains of which can be seen today along East College Avenue), offered to donate 200 acres of farmland for a campus.

Founding President Evan Pugh wanted the fledgling institution to embody a new approach to higher education that blended classical studies with subjects that had practical value. He joined similar visionaries in other states in convincing Congress to pass the Morrill Land-Grant Act in 1862. The act gave individual states tracts of federal land to sell; the proceeds supported colleges that agreed to include engineering, science and the liberal arts as well as agriculture in their course of studies. In 1863, the Pennsylvania legislature designated Penn State the Commonwealth's sole land-grant institution. The lawmakers in effect bestowed on the privately incorporated college a public character. In return for state support, the institution assumed obligations of teaching, research and service that are normally associated with publicly owned land-grant universities in other states.

By the 1890s Penn State was making its mark. It ranked among the nation's 10 largest undergraduate engineering schools, a distinction it still holds. It established one of the nation's first collegiate agricultural experiment stations, and Professor Whitman Jordan's pioneering research on using fertilizers for soil enrichment had global impact on crop yields.

Penn State in 1871 became one of the first land-grant schools in the Northeast to admit women, graduated its first international student in 1890, and its first African-American student in 1905.

In the early 1900s, President Edwin E. Sparks supported a number of efforts to "carry the college to the people," as he liked to say. Technical institutes were established in various locations statewide for engineering education, beginning with an evening school in Allentown in 1910. In 1912, Penn State helped create a system of county agents in agriculture and home economics. Today, the Penn State World Campus, with its "anywhere, anytime" learning through the Internet, builds on that outreach tradition.

But undergraduate education remained foremost. Enrollment surpassed 5,000 students by 1936, including those attending several undergraduate centers that were created for students who, in the depths of the Great Depression, could not afford to leave their hometowns to get a college education. The centers offered the first year of baccalaureate studies and were the predecessors of today's statewide system of campuses. Thanks to this innovative approach to higher education, Penn State in the 1930s became Pennsylvania's largest single source of baccalaureate degrees, a distinction it holds to this day.

Following World War II, Penn State underwent unprecedented expansion, first to meet the needs of returning military veterans and later to accommodate the Baby Boom generation. Total enrollment at all Penn State campuses climbed to 40,000 by 1970.

The University also emerged on the national scene as a research powerhouse in fields as diverse as dairy science, acoustics, psychology, and diesel engineering. The expansion of research went hand in hand with a steady increase in the number of graduate students. The University awarded its first graduate degree — a master's degree in scientific agriculture — in 1862, and the Graduate School was established in 1922. But overall graduate enrollment remained modest until the 1950s, then swelled steadily. The Graduate School has awarded to date approximately 113,000 master's, doctoral, and other advanced degrees.

The University Park campus is Penn State's administrative and research hub. In addition, there are 19 primarily undergraduate campuses; Penn State Milton S. Hershey Medical Center, including the College of Medicine; the Pennsylvania College of Technology; the Penn State Dickinson Schools of Law: Dickinson Law; the Penn State Great Valley School of Graduate Professional Studies; and the Penn State World Campus.

To date, Penn State has awarded nearly 770,000 degrees, hallmarks of an educational experience second to none in quality. In addition, Penn State alumni — including 328,000 in Pennsylvania alone — have job- and social-networking opportunities that no other college or university in the Commonwealth can surpass.

PRESIDENT ERIC J. BARRON

Eric J. Barron began his tenure as the 18th president of Penn State on May 12, 2014. Over the past year, he has been focused on making our great university even greater. He has focused his efforts on six imperatives: access and affordability; economic development and student career success; student engagement; diversity and demographics; technology and curriculum delivery; and excellence. This year, he helped launch Invent Penn State: The ingenious power of partnership, a $30 million initiative designed to help Penn State become a driver for job creation, economic development and student career success. In addition, he has led the creation of five new pilot programs to ensure that our students make academic progress so they graduate on time, and he established task forces to examine pressing issues such as sexual assault and harassment; and health care benefits.

Dr. Barron returned to Penn State from the helm at Florida State, bringing with him nearly 35 years of leadership experience in academic administration, education, research, and public service, and a track record as a talented manager of fiscal policy within large and complex institutions. Dr. Barron led Florida State to two consecutive U.S. News and World Report rankings as the nation's "most efficiently operated" institution of higher education.

Dr. Barron earned a bachelor of science degree in geology at Florida State in 1973 before moving on to the University of Miami, where he earned master's and doctoral degrees in oceanography, in 1976 and 1980, respectively. Dr. Barron spent 20 years of his career at Penn State, serving as dean of the College of Earth and Mineral Sciences from 2002 to 2006, and as founding director of the Earth System Science Center, one of the first major initiatives focused on the total study of Earth as a system, from 1986 to 2002. He also had a simultaneous appointment as director of the Earth and Mineral Sciences Environment Institute from 1998 to 2002. In 1999, he was named Distinguished Professor of Geosciences at Penn State, and during his tenure as director, Industry Week magazine ranked him among "50 R&D Stars to Watch."

An accomplished scientist with a long background in atmospheric research, Dr. Barron served as director of the National Center for Atmospheric Research (NCAR) from 2008 to 2010 and as dean of the Jackson School of Geosciences at the University of Texas at Austin from 2006 to 2008. Early in his career he was a postdoctoral research fellow and scientist at the National Center for Atmospheric Research in Boulder, Colorado, a federal research center focusing on atmospheric and related science issues. Dr. Barron originally worked at NCAR as a postdoctoral fellow (1981-85), and served for one year on the faculty at the University of Miami before joining Penn State.

Over the decades, Dr. Barron has lent his significant expertise in the areas of atmospheric science and the geosciences to many national committees and federal organizations, including contributions as chair of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's (NOAA) science advisory board and nearly 20 years of service as the chair of multiple National Research Council committees and boards. Throughout his career he has earned numerous accolades and awards, including Penn State's Wilson Award for Excellence in Teaching (1999); the National Aeronautic and Space Administration's (NASA) Distinguished Public Service Medal (2003); and the Bridge Builders Leadership Award from the Martin Luther King Foundation of Florida (2012).

Dr. Barron is a Fellow of the American Geophysical Union, the American Meteorological Society, the Geological Society of America, and the American Association for the Advancement of Science. He has authored more than 125 peer-reviewed papers in geology, oceanography, and climate issues.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR SANDY BARBOUR

Sandy Barbour began her leadership of the Penn State Intercollegiate Athletics program on August 18, 2014 and has quickly made a strong impression on one of the nation's most successful and comprehensive athletic departments. President Eric J. Barron named Barbour the school's ninth Director of Athletics after serving 10 years as Director of Athletics at the University of California.

Barbour brought to Penn State more than 30 years of varied experiences as a collegiate administrator and coach, with a demonstrated record of championships, academic success, innovation, facility modernization and revenue growth. She directs Penn State's 31-sport, broad-based program that supports approximately 800 student-athletes and a staff of more than 300.

One of the nation's most highly-respected athletic directors, Barbour began her tenure in Happy Valley with a pair of championships during the 2014 fall semester and two more titles in the spring. The women's volleyball team captured its second consecutive NCAA Championship and the women's soccer team earned the Big Ten crown during the fall. In the spring, the men's gymnastics team won the Big Ten title in front of an enthusiastic Rec Hall crowd and the women's lacrosse team won the inaugural Big Ten Women's Lacrosse Tournament.

Penn State finished No. 8 in the 2014-15 Learfield Sports Directors' Cup standings to cap Barbour's first year in Happy Valley. Twenty Nittany Lion squads competed in their respective NCAA Championships, the football team won the New Era Pinstripe Bowl, and 30 teams participated in post-season competition. Nine Penn State teams advanced to or finished in the Top/Elite 8 of their respective NCAA Championships in 2014-15. The Nittany Lions also captured individual NCAA titles in men's fencing, men's gymnastics and wrestling.

Penn State student-athletes delivered record-setting academic performances during Barbour's inaugural year, including the two highest 3.0 grade-point totals in a semester in school history. During the 2014 fall semester, a school record 500 Nittany Lions earned at least a 3.0 grade-point average. Another mark was broken with 241 student-athletes garnering Dean's List honors by posting a GPA of 3.50 or higher. A total of 23 teams earned a semester GPA of 3.0 or higher for another Penn State mark.

More academic marks fell during the 2015 spring semester as a school spring record 474 student-athletes earned at least a 3.0 grade-point average. A spring record 241 Nittany Lions garnered Dean's List honors by posting a GPA of 3.50 or higher and 21 teams earned a semester GPA of 3.0 or higher. The combined average GPA was 3.11 among Penn State's 31 programs for the spring semester.

The 2014-15 academic year was punctuated with the selection of wrestling national champion Matt Brown as the CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year for all sports.

In March 2015, Barbour announced a reorganization of Intercollegiate Athletics that introduced a more vertical structure to encourage communication and collaboration across business units and sports. Four administrative divisions were formed, aligned with how Penn State will best serve its student-athletes and key stakeholders. The divisions include business and finance; student-athlete performance, health and welfare; internal and external operations; and administration.

Barbour joined several head coaches, Nittany Lion Club and Alumni Association staff members on the Penn State Coaches Caravan in May 2015. At each of 11 stops across Pennsylvania and the Mid-Atlantic, Barbour met with alumni, fans and students and shared her vision for Penn State Athletics and creating the best conditions possible for student-athlete success in the classroom and on the playing field.

Serving as the Director of Athletics at Cal from 2004-14, Barbour guided the Golden Bears through one of the most successful periods in school history. Under her direction, the athletic department became one of the consistently elite programs in the country. Barbour's 10-year term was the longest tenure for the department since men's and women's athletics merged into a single entity in 1992.

During her tenure overseeing Cal's 30-sport program, the Golden Bears won 20 team national championships, 97 individual national titles, finished in the top 10 in the annual Learfield Sports Directors' Cup standings six times, including a program-best third in 2011, and reached record levels in ticket sales, sponsorships and fundraising.

Among Cal's many team athletic accomplishments under Barbour's leadership were a 2006 Pac-12 co-championship and seven bowl game invitations in football; the men's basketball team's first conference title in 50 years in 2009-10; a first-ever NCAA Final Four berth in women's basketball in 2013; two trips to the national semifinals in women's volleyball and six NCAA Championships in men's and women's swimming and diving.

Under Barbour's leadership, two major facility projects designed to benefit both student-athletes and fans opened. On Sept. 1, 2012, Cal welcomed a sold-out crowd to a newly restored California Memorial Stadium after the historic facility underwent a $321 million renovation and seismic retrofit to bring the facility up to modern standards while honoring the historic nature of the building.

In 2011, Cal opened the Simpson Center for Student-Athlete High Performance, a 142,000-square-foot state-of-the-art student-athlete training, coaching, and applied sports science and sports medicine center to support the daily needs of football and 12 Olympic sports programs.

During the 2013-14 academic year, the Bears won two team national championships, with men's swimming and diving capturing its third NCAA title in four years and men's varsity rugby repeating as Rugby 7's national champions.

In 2012, a total of 46 Golden Bear student-athletes, alumni and staff represented Cal at the Summer Olympic Games and they won a school-record-tying 17 medals, including 11 gold.

Named one of the "100 Most Influential Women in Business" in the Bay Area according to the San Francisco Business Times, the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) named Barbour a regional Athletic Director of the Year for 2008-09 and she was a finalist for National AD of the Year at the Sports Business Awards.

While at Cal, Barbour was an active member of several committees on both the national and conference levels. In 2010, she was selected as the Pac-12 representative to the NCAA Division I Leadership Council. She chaired the Pac-12 Athletic Directors TV Committee and served on the conference's Recruiting Guidelines Committee. Barbour has also served on the NACDA Executive Committee, the NCAA Diversity Leadership Strategic Planning Committee, the NCAA Women's Basketball Discussion Group and the WBCA Defensive Player of the Year Selection Committee.

Prior to her tenure at Berkeley, Barbour was the deputy director of athletics at Notre Dame, serving as the university's senior athletic administrator from July 2002 to September 2004. She previously held an associate athletic director position there starting in 2000.

In her position at Notre Dame, Barbour oversaw facilities and event operations for the school's 26-sport program, including football game management and the department's two golf courses. She was also responsible for developing, maintaining and implementing Notre Dame's $127 million athletics facilities master plan.

In 1996, Barbour was appointed Tulane's director of athletics at age 36, and during her three years overseeing the program, Green Wave teams won 12 conference championships. In her first year in the position, the school captured four conference titles, a feat never before accomplished in Tulane history. She also hired Tommy Bowden as head football coach during her first year. Bowden proceeded in 1997 to post the Green Wave's first winning season (7-4) in 16 years, and then directed the school to a 12-0 record, a Conference USA championship and a No. 7 national ranking the following season as the 1998 Liberty Bowl champions. Barbour was recruited to Tulane as an associate athletic director in 1991.

Born in Annapolis, Md., Barbour grew up in a military family. Her father was a career aviator in the U.S. Navy, and her family lived in various U.S. locations as well as in Western Europe during her childhood.

Barbour graduated cum laude in 1981 with a B.S. degree in physical education from Wake Forest University, where she was a four-year letterwinner and served as captain of the field hockey team. She also played two seasons of women's basketball for the Demon Deacons.

Barbour earned advanced degrees at the University of Massachusetts (an M.S. in sports management in 1983) and Northwestern's Kellogg School of Management (an MBA in 1991). Barbour's career in intercollegiate athletics began as a field hockey assistant coach and lacrosse administrative assistant at Massachusetts in 1981.

Between master's programs, Barbour served as assistant field hockey and lacrosse coach at Northwestern from 1982-84. She also held the position of director of recruiting services during that period, before being promoted to assistant athletic director for intercollegiate programs in 1984, a position she held until 1989.

Prior to joining Tulane, Barbour worked in programming and production for FOX Sports Net in Chicago during the summer of 1990.

► NITTANY LION LEGEND

Penn State's athletic symbol, chosen by the student body in 1906, is the mountain lion which once roamed central Pennsylvania.

H.D. "Joe" Mason, a member of the Class of 1907, conducted a one-man campaign to choose a school mascot after seeing the Princeton tiger on a trip with the Penn State baseball team to that New Jersey campus. A student publication sponsored the campaign to select a mascot and Penn State is believed to be the first college to adopt the lion as a mascot.

Since Penn State is located in the Nittany Valley at the foot of Mount Nittany, the lion was designated as a Nittany Lion. In regional folklore, Nittany (or Nita-Nee) was a valorous Indian princess in whose honor the Great Spirit caused Mount Nittany to be formed. A later namesake, daughter of chief O-Ko-Cho, who lived near the mouth of Penn's Creek, fell in love with Malachi Boyer, a trader. The tearful maiden and her lost lover became legend and her name was given to the stately mountain.

► NITTANY LION SHRINE

Penn State's Nittany Lion shrine was dedicated on Oct. 24, 1942, during Homecoming Weekend. Animal sculptor Heinz Warneke and stonemason Joseph Garatti molded a 13-ton block of Indiana limestone into the most recognizable symbol of Penn State. The shrine was chosen from six models submitted by Warneke.

The shrine is a gift of the Class of 1940 and rests in a natural setting of trees near the Recreation Building. The site was chosen because of its accessibility, the surrounding trees and the fact that the sculpture would not be dwarfed by nearby buildings.

The shrine was surrounded by a base of Pennsylvania stone and extensive changes made to the landscaping over the summer. The work was the gift to the University from the Class of 2012.

Penn State's student-athletes are instantly identified by their blue and white uniforms — but those weren't the original school colors.

A three-member committee representing the sophomore, junior and senior classes was appointed in October of 1887 to develop color options from which the student body would select the school colors. Dark pink and black was the unanimous choice of the students after considering the color combinations presented by the committee. Soon many students and the baseball team were sporting pink and black striped blazers and caps. Problems arose, however, when the pink faded to white after several weeks of exposure to the sun. The students then opted for blue, rather than black, and white. The official announcement of the new choice was made on March 18, 1890.

► "HAPPY VALLEY"

The first thing to know is Wikipedia has it wrong. The term "Happy Valley" originated with Centre Daily Times columnist Katey Lehman. Ross and Katey Lehman, one of the town's regal couples, became good friends with Pat and Harriet O'Brien. Ross Lehman, a 1942 graduate, was the executive director of the Penn State Alumni Association, among other things, and Katey wrote a column for the Centre Daily Times entitled "Open House." Pat O'Brien was a Liberal Arts professor. The O'Briens used to take Sunday drives with their children and often remarked, "What a happy valley?" a phrase that made its way to Katey. The initial appearance of the phrase in print was in Katey's column of June 22, 1961. She used it in lower case between quotes, "happy valley." In a June 25, 1962 column, she headlined it, "Happy Valley And Jet Age." Katey continued to mention it a few more times in the early 1960s.

► WE ARE...PENN STATE

The original Penn State cheer from the 1920s into the 1960s was N-I...Double-T...A-N-Y. In the 1970s, the cheerleaders sought out additional cheers. They checked with other schools and learned of cheers at Kentucky, Ohio State and Southern California that they liked. They blended the three together to come create "We Are...Penn State." The cheer didn't catch on right away, but after several years it caught hold in the early 1980s. The cheerleaders later added "Thank You...You're Welcome."

The first use of the phrase "We are Penn State" is often attributed to football All-American Steve Suhey. A captain on the 1947 Cotton Bowl team, Suhey used the phrase as the team, an early racially-integrated unit, was faced with several situations in which Penn State's African-American players were not welcome to participate. Team captain Suhey, pointing at all his teammates, said "We're Penn State and we play together or we don't play." Penn State forfeited a game against the University of Miami and stayed in Army barracks when hotels at the Cotton Bowl refused the Nittany Lions lodging as a team.

► THE "S" ZONE

Organized in 1999 by the Penn State Lion Ambassadors, the student alumni corps, the "S" Zone revived one of the oldest traditions — Block S — in the student section at Beaver Stadium. Now formed when 700 undergrads don coordinated blue and white t-shirts, the giant block "S" is a striking symbol visible throughout the stadium and captured regularly by national television cameras. The "S" Zone, which has had several locations over the years, most recently moved to the end zone.

► PENN STATE WHITE OUT

During the past decade, Penn State students have donned white clothes, paint — anything white — to show their solidarity and support for the Nittany Lions. As a mass of bouncing and infectious enthusiasm, the Penn State students have "Whited Out" Beaver Stadium, making it one of the noisiest and most intimidating stadiums in America.

► FOOTBALL TROPHY GAMES

Since joining the Big Ten in 1993, Penn State has begun a tradition of two trophy games played against Big Ten foes Michigan State and Minnesota.

The Land Grant Trophy is awarded to the winner of the Penn State-Michigan State game and honors the nation's two pioneer land-grant schools, each founded in February of 1855. The Nittany Lions and Spartans will play for the trophy November 29 this season.

The Governor's Victory Bell is presented to the winner of the Penn State-Minnesota contest. It was first awarded when the Golden Gophers provided the opposition for Penn State's first game as a member of the Big Ten. Commissioned by Pennsylvania Governor Robert Casey and Minnesota Governor Arne Carlson, Penn State and Minnesota will play next on October 1, 2016 in Beaver Stadium.

► VICTORY BELL

A tradition that started in 1964 returned to its roots as the authentic Victory Bell that once "rang" after Nittany Lion victories was brought out of storage and installed at the team tunnel at the south end of Beaver Stadium. Players ring the bell as they leave the field after home victories.

At first, the Victory Bell was mounted atop the old scoreboard at the south end of the stadium. What fans at Beaver Stadium had been hearing since the early 1980s was a recording of a ringing bell.

Coach Rip Engle came up with the idea of a Victory Bell before the 1964 season as a way to boost school spirit for the football team. Wagner Building, which houses the university's Military Science program, was the original location of the bell, which came from the battleship U.S.S. Pennsylvania. It had been installed at the right front of Wagner Building years before.

The bell was first rung when the Nittany Lions pulled off a 6-2 upset of Army at West Point, their first win after three losses to start the season. Almost like magic, the 1964 season began to turn around.

The official class Victory Bell, now located at the tunnel, was dedicated by president Dr. John Oswald on September 17, 1978, during a game against Rutgers. It is the third incarnation of the bell and was brought out of storage in recent years by Lou Prato, Penn State historian and the first director of the All-Sports Museum.
